From Truth to Technique at Trial Philip Gaines, 2016-03-23 From Truth to Technique addresses key questions raised by the burgeoning literature in what Philip Gaines calls advocacy advice texts manuals handbooks and other how to guides written by lawyers for lawyers both practicing and aspiring to help them be as effective as possible in trial advocacy In these texts advice authors share principles strategies and techniques for persuading juries and winning cases Some manuals even form the basis for required

advocacy courses in law schools Unlike training manuals in other professional domains sales leadership management fundraising coaching etc advocacy advice texts offer guidance for effectiveness in a realm of activity where the stakes may be the very highest for the parties and where society has an abiding interest in the truth being discovered and justice being done Helping advocates learn how to win cases may be the ultimate purpose of advice texts but to what extent are ideas about the values of truth and justice what Gaines calls metavalues incorporated into discussions about winning tactics and techniques To explore this question Gaines takes the reader through a discursive history of the relation between technique and metavalues as presented in advocacy advice beginning with a thematic analysis of the first texts published in the Anglo American tradition in the early 17th century through treatises written during seasons of radical change in the profession in the 18th and 19th centuries and up to the present day with a look at the more than 200 trial manuals currently in print This diacronic study reveals dramatic changes in the place authors give to the metavalues of truth and justice when lawyers advise other lawyers about how to be effective in the courtroom

Orthodox Constructions of the West George E.

Demacopoulos,Aristotle Papanikolaou,2013-09-02 The category of the West has played a particularly significant role in the modern Eastern Orthodox imagination It has functioned as an absolute marker of difference from what is considered to be the essence of Orthodoxy and thus ironically has become a constitutive aspect of the modern Orthodox self The essays collected in this volume examine the many factors that contributed to the Eastern construction of the West in order to understand why the West is so important to the Eastern Christian s sense of self Truth ,1927 Strong Opinions Chris Danta,Sue Kossew,Julian Murphet,2011-07-14 This new collection of essays on Coetzee examines how his novels create and unsettle literary authority Its unique contribution is to show how Coetzee provokes us into reconsidering certain basic formal and existential questions such as the nature of literary realism the authority of the author and the constitution of the human self in a posthumanist setting by consciously revealing the literary theoretical seams of his work Strong Opinions makes the innovative claim that Coetzee s work is driven not by a sense of scepticism or nihilism but rather by a form of controlled exposure that defines the literary The essays in the volume variously draw attention to three of Coetzee s most recent and significant experiments in controlled exposure The first is the exposure of place Coetzee s decision to set his novels in his newly adopted country of Australia The second is the exposure of form Coetzee s direct almost essayistic address of literary philosophical topics within his novels And the third is the exposure of limits Coetzee s explicit deconstruction of the traditional limits of human life
