Andrea O'Reilly, Sharon Abbey

The Activists Daughter:

The Activist's Daughter Ellyn Bache, 1997 A daughter ends up like the mother she is rebelling against The girl Beryl Rosinsky of Washington finds civil rights a bore and she dreams of college to get away from her mother's radicalism But once in college she discovers racism the college is in North Carolina and she too becomes an activist By the author of Safe Passage

Child Activist Literature at the Turn of the 2020s Niall C. Nance-Carroll, 2024-10-29 Child Activist Literature at the Turn of the 2020s From Kids You Read About to Kids You Read looks at how today's child activists are not just followers in their forekids footsteps but blazers of new pathways employing sophisticated rhetorical strategies that invert and subvert conventional thinking on the roles of children in politics These young activists situate their work within a dense web of texts the ones they read the ones they write and the ones that they expect adults to deploy to dismiss them Nance Carroll analyzes texts authored by child activists alongside narratives of youth activism in literature and media and the stories activists tell about themselves and their work exploring issues of influence inspiration and authorship in child activist literature as a growing body of work challenges not just adults' assumptions about children and politics but also some fundamental disciplinary tenets of children's and young adult literature

Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition Andrea O'Reilly, 2021-04-04 The 2nd edition includes a new preface that considers how matricentric feminism in positioning mothering as a verb affords a gender neutral understanding of motherwork and allows for an appreciation of how motherwork is deeply gendered and how this may be challenged and changed through empowered mothering The book argues that the category of mother is distinct from the category of woman and that many of the problems mothers face are specific to women's role and identity as mothers Indeed mothers are oppressed under patriarchy as women and as mothers Consequently mothers need a feminism of their own one that positions mothers' concerns as the starting point for a theory and politic of empowerment O'Reilly terms this new mode of feminism matricentric feminism and the book explores how it is represented and experienced in theory activism and practice

Mothers and Daughters Andrea O'Reilly, Sharon Abbey, 2000 In 1976 Adrienne Rich wrote in Of Woman Born Motherhood as Experience and Institution that the cathexis between mother and daughter_essential distorted misused_is the great unwritten story O In the quarter century since Rich wrote those words the topic of mothers and daughters has emerged as a salient issue in feminist scholarship Using women's writing film feminist theory and personal experience contributors to Mothers and Daughters explore how the mother daughter relationship is represented and experienced as a site of empowerment This volume will offer readers an important and welcome chapter in the story of the complex relationship that is a part of nearly every woman's life

Accumulating Insecurity Shelley Feldman, Charles C. Geisler, Gayatri A. Menon, 2011 Accumulating Insecurity examines the relationship between two vitally important contemporary phenomena a fixation on security that justifies global military engagements and the militarization of civilian life and the dramatic increase in day to day insecurity associated with contemporary crises in health care housing incarceration personal debt and unemployment Contributors to the volume explore how violence is used to maintain conditions for accumulating capital Across world regions violence is manifested in the increasingly strained often terrifying circumstances in which people struggle to socially reproduce themselves Security is often sought through armaments and containment which can lead to the impoverishment rather than the nourishment of laboring bodies Under increasingly precarious conditions governments oversee the movements of people rather than scrutinize and regulate the highly volatile movements of capital They often do so through practices that condone dispossession in the name of economic and political security

The Girl with Three Legs Soraya Mire, 2011 A personal story of female genital mutilation Mire reveals what it means to grow up in a traditional Somali family where girls and women's basic human rights are violated on a daily basis She describes FGM is the ultimate child abuse a ritual of mutilation handed down from mother to daughter and protected by the word culture

After Violence Debra Javeline, 2023 In 2004 Russia experienced its most appalling act of terrorism in history the 53 hour seizure of School No 1 in Beslan North Ossetia Approximately 1 200 children parents and teachers were taken hostage and over 330 were killed hundreds more seriously wounded and all severely traumatized In After Violence Debra Javeline analyzes the aftermath of this large scale violence with evidence from almost all direct victims Despite widespread predictions of retaliatory ethnic violence the massacre instead triggered unprecedented peaceful political activism After Violence provides insights into this unexpected but favorable outcome

Children of Paradise Laura Secor, 2016-02-02 The drama that shaped today's Iran from the Revolution to the present day In 1979 seemingly overnight moving at a clip some thirty years faster than the rest of the world Iran became the first revolutionary theocracy in modern times Since then the country has been largely a black box to the West a sinister presence looming over the horizon But inside Iran a breathtaking drama has unfolded since then as religious thinkers political operatives poets journalists and activists have imagined and reimaged what Iran should be They have drawn as deeply on the traditions of the West as of the East and have acted upon their beliefs with urgency and passion frequently staking their lives for them With more than a decade of experience reporting on researching and writing about Iran Laura Secor narrates this unprecedented history as a story of individuals caught up in the slipstream of their time seizing and wielding ideas powerful enough to shift its course as they wrestle with their country's apparatus of violent repression as well as its rich and often tragic history Essential reading at this moment when the fates of our countries have never been more entwined Children of Paradise will stand as a classic of political reporting an indelible portrait of a nation and its people striving for change

The Activist Tanure Ojaide, 2006 Activism across Borders since 1870 Daniel Laqua, 2023-08-10 From the Occupy protests to the Black Lives Matter movement and school strikes for climate action the twenty first century has been rife with activism Although very different from one another each of these movements has created alliances across borders with activists stressing that their concerns are not confined to individual nation states In this book Daniel Laqua shows that global efforts of this kind are not a recent phenomenon and that as long as there have been borders activists have sought to cross them Activism Across Borders since 1870 explores how individuals groups and organisations have fostered bonds in their quest for political and social change and considers the impact of national and ideological boundaries on their efforts Focusing on Europe but with a global outlook the book acknowledges the importance of imperial and postcolonial settings for groups and individuals that expressed far reaching ambitions From feminism and socialism to anti war campaigns and green politics this book approaches transnational activism with an emphasis on four features connectedness ambivalence transience and marginality In doing so it demonstrates the intertwined nature of different movements problematizes transnational action discusses the temporary nature of some alliances and shows how transnationalism has been used by those marginalized at the national level With a broad chronological perspective and thematic chapters it provides historical context clarifies terms and concepts and offers an alternative history of modern Europe through the lens of activists movements and campaigns Freedom's Daughters Lynne Olson,2001 Provides portraits and cameos of over sixty women who were influential in the Civil Rights Movement and argues that the political activity of women has been the driving force in major reform movements throughout history Different Daughters Louise Rafkin,2001-04-12 Coming out to mom is a lesbian rite of passage In Different Daughters thirty mothers of lesbians come together to trace their journeys towards acceptance of their daughters Facing their fears and confusion prejudice and misunderstandings they speak honesty and bravely about the difficulties and joys of life with their different daughters Writing about families community religion grandchildren bisexuality transgender issues and coming out the authors of Different Daughters raise questions shared by all mothers How can we accept our children for who they are How can we love our children even when they are different from us This updated and expanded third edition of Louise Rafkin s landmark anthology includes new stories by mothers of bisexual women and young lesbians a sister of a lesbian and the brave testimony of one mother whose lesbian daughter is in the process of redefining her gender Green Planet Blues Geoffrey D. Dabelko,Ken Conca,2019-09-06 Revised and updated throughout this unique anthology examines global environmental politics from a range of perspectives and captures the voices of both the powerless and the powerful Paradigms of sustainability environmental security and ecological justice illustrate the many ways environmental challenges and their solutions are framed in contemporary international debates about climate water forests toxics energy food and biodiversity Organized thematically the selections offer a truly global scope Seventeen new readings explore climate justice globalization land and water grabs climate change and conflict China s international environmental relations and the future of climate politics in the wake of the Paris Agreement This book stresses the underlying questions of power interests authority and legitimacy that shape environmental debates and it provides readers with a global range of perspectives on the critical challenges facing the planet and its people This new edition of Green Planet Blues connects directly with a wide range of upper level undergraduate and graduate level courses Political Women in Japan Susan J. Pharr,2023-04-28 Drawing on interviews with one hundred young Japanese women engaged in a spectrum of voluntary political groups Susan J Pharr explores how politically active women overcome the constraints that bar or limit the political participation of the average woman The book treats political volunteers as agents of social change in a process of role redefinition by which prevailing concepts of women's roles gradually adjust to accommodate political behavior Tracing developments that led to the grant of suffrage and other political rights to women during the Allied occupation Pharr sets the stage for an analysis of that process as it unfolds in the experience of individual women She uses women's images of self and society and issues of political and gender role socialization career and life expectations and political role and participation to develop a three fold typology for looking at political women in Japan She examines both the satisfactions of political volunteerism from the exhilaration of addressing a crowd from a sound truck to the pleasure of speaking men's language and the psychological and social costs associated with it This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1981

Making a Killing Alicia Gaspar de Alba, Georgina Guzmán, 2010-11-01 Since 1993 more than five hundred women and girls have been murdered in Ciudad Juárez across the border from El Paso Texas At least a third have been sexually violated and mutilated as well Thousands more have been reported missing and remain unaccounted for The crimes have been poorly investigated and have gone unpunished and unresolved by Mexican authorities thus creating an epidemic of misogynist violence on an increasingly globalized U S Mexico border This book the first anthology to focus exclusively on the Juárez femicides as the crimes have come to be known compiles several different scholarly interventions from diverse perspectives including feminism Marxism critical race theory semiotics and textual analysis Editor Alicia Gaspar de Alba shapes a multidisciplinary analytical framework for considering the interconnections between gender violence and the U S Mexico border The essays examine the social and cultural conditions that have led to the heinous victimization of women on the border from globalization free trade agreements exploitative maquiladora working conditions and border politics to the sexist attitudes that pervade the social discourse about the victims The book also explores the evolving social movement that has been created by NGOs mothers organizing efforts and other grassroots forms of activism related to the crimes Contributors include U S and Mexican scholars and activists as well as personal testimonies of two mothers of femicide victims

The Activist Impulse Jared S. Burkholder, David Cramer, 2012-04-04 Anabaptists have often felt suspicious of American evangelicalism and in turn evangelicals have found various reasons to dismiss the Anabaptist witness Yet at various points in the past as well as the present evangelicals and Anabaptists have found ample reason for conversation and much to appreciate about each other The Activist Impulse represents the first book length examination of the complex relationship between evangelicalism and Anabaptism in the past thirty years It brings established experts and new voices together in an effort to explore the historical and theological intersection of these two rich traditions. Each of the essays provides fresh insight on at least one characteristic that both evangelicals and Anabaptists share: an impulse to engage society through the pursuit of active Christian witness.
