SOME TOPICS OF THE DAY

AFTER-DINNER SPEECHES

"IS it possible that after-dinner speeches are a marketable commodity?" asks the Times. "Are we to believe that there exist professional writers of them, composing them at unfestive desks and selling them to uninspired customers? So it would seem, if we are to judge by a recent advertisement for a supply of them."

"The English have a poor reputation in this difficult art, and most Englishmen are not easily to be persuaded to practise it. If the importunity of their friends drives them to their feet, if they find themselves unwillingly embarked upon this dangerous collective wooing, they forget to woo and think only of the happy divorce which shall bring them once more to silence, a seat, and a cigar."

"Every success is a personal success—the reward of an instinctive judgment of circumstance. You must express yourself in your words without being an egoist; you must take your hearers into your confidence without exhibiting a desire to instruct them; you must know exactly when they are beginning to want more of you. And at that instant you must sit down and leave them happy in their disappointment."

EDISON CANNOT GET GOOD MEN

AN extremely interesting article by Thomas A. Edison, the famous discoverer, on "How I Would Double the Volume of Business," appears in System. He makes a remarkable confession about his inability to get good men.

"There is," he says, "a lack of men capable of designing automatic machinery. We are increasing our knowledge of the possibilities of automatic machinery at the rate of one hundred and we are increasing the men capable of putting the ideas into effect at two. No educational or technical institution that I know of is even attempting to develop men for this all-important phase of industry."

"This is an extremely serious problem. I had much less trouble getting good men 40 years ago than I have to-day. The men of to-day seem to lack imagination. I have examined 1,800 men for positions in the last two years. I took 80 of them and of that 80 only 35 have lasted."

"I test out the men with a questionnaire in which I put five little mathematical problems which I took from a child's school book on arithmetic. Not one man as yet has correctly answered all five of the problems."

"It seems somehow that in the modern system of education the average boy's brain stops somewhere between the elementary school and the secondary school—that is, when he is about 14—and thereafter he takes no interest in knowing anything. I find that unless a boy has become interested in some subject—it does not make much difference what it is—before he is 14, he never thereafter masters anything, but is content to be led or driven."

"Industry is the result of the efforts of man, and I think a large part of the work of bettering industry will have to begin with the education of the boy."

AN EDITOR'S PERSONAL QUEST

MR. GLENN FRANK, the Editor of the Century Magazine, is making "a personal quest for religious satisfaction. For some time I have found myself at sea between the Scylla of Traditionalism and the Charybdis of Modernism. I have been left cold alike by the unsound affirmations of the Traditionalist and the sound negations of the Modernist. There is in me, as there is in men everywhere to-day, a hunger for a positive faith that will, as Kiersopp Lake puts it, 'satisfy the soul of the saint without disgusting the intellect of the scholar.'"

"Though neither a saint nor a scholar, I have this hunger because I belong to this generation and this is the modern religious hunger. There is something in me that holds me fascinated at a street corner listening to a Salvation Army exhorter, despite my inner revolt against his inadequate conception of life and religion. I am likewise drawn irresistibly into the liberal camp in religion. But religious liberalism seems to me not yet to have found itself."

"In this liberal preacher and that, in this liberal scholar and that, I find isolated fragments of what seems to me a sound and satisfying sense of the religion of Jesus as contrasted with theological Christianity, which is rapidly losing the loyalty of the modern mind. But all this liberal thought is scattered here and there. It is not co-ordinated. In many instances it is buried under the jargon of scholarship. The layman must search for guidance; it is not waiting for him at the corner."

MOUSE HOLDS UP A CITY

THROUGH a mouse having crept into the air gap between two 6,000-voltage cables, Aberdeen's electricity supply for motor power and lighting was cut off; the massive door of the switch-chamber at the generating station was blown out, the main cables and much machinery were wrecked, and the place was enshrouded in a curtain of flame and smoke. Serious dislocation of tramcar traffic was caused, lighting gave out, and lifts were held up. One untoward incident of the breakdown was the "marooning" of a lady and three children in the lift-well of a large drapery warehouse. Shipping was also delayed, as the electrically-controlled gates of a swing bridge at the harbour were inoperative for over half an hour. The charred body of the mouse was found.

This incident is responsible for the following clever verses in the Morning Post:

TO A DEAD MOUSE.

(By the shade of Robert Burns.)
"A sense o' shame is in my breast,
I ca'd ye once a 'tim' roat
beastie."

It seems that I was over hasty,
And if I may

I'll tak' it back, for that's the least, eh?

That I can dae!

"Ye wrecked a generatin' station
And caused a heap o' dislocation,
The trams were no in operation
For half an hour."

Gosh! wha'd hae thoct that such sensation

Wad be in your power!

"But, Mouseie, must I tak' my pen
And write yon poem over again?
I wrote that 'schemes o' mice and men

Gang aft agley';
Your scheme was unco big—but then

You're deid the day!"
W. H. B."

Friedrich Nietzsche (English Edition) Georg Brandes, 2015-02-25 Example in this ebook AN ESSAY ON ARISTOCRATIC RADICALISM 1889 Friedrich Nietzsche appears to me the most interesting writer in German literature at the present time Though little known even in his own country he is a thinker of a high order who fully deserves to be studied discussed contested and mastered Among many good qualities he has that of imparting his mood to others and setting their thoughts in motion During a period of eighteen years Nietzsche has written a long series of books and pamphlets Most of these volumes consist of aphorisms and of these the greater part as well as the more original are concerned with moral prejudices In this province will be found his lasting importance But besides this he has dealt with the most varied problems he has written on culture and history on art and women on companionship and solitude on the State and society on life s struggle and death He was born on October 15 1844 studied philology became in 1869 professor of philology at Basle made the acquaintance of Richard Wagner and became warmly attached to him and associated also with the distinguished historian of the Renaissance Jakob Burkhardt Nietzsche s admiration and affection for Burkhardt were lasting His feeling for Wagner on the other hand underwent a complete revulsion in the course of years From having been Wagner s prophet he developed into his most passionate opponent Nietzsche was always heart and soul a musician he even tried his hand as a composer in his Hymn to Life for chorus and orchestra 1888 and his intercourse with Wagner left deep traces in his earliest writings But the opera of Parsifal with its tendency to Catholicism and its advancement of the ascetic ideals which had previously been entirely foreign to Wagner caused Nietzsche to see in the great composer a danger an enemy a morbid phenomenon since this last work showed him all the earlier operas in a new light During his residence in Switzerland Nietzsche came to know a large circle of interesting people He suffered however from extremely severe headaches so frequent that they incapacitated him for about two hundred days in the year and brought him to the verge of the grave In 1879 he resigned his professorship From 1882 to 1888 his state of health improved though extremely slowly His eyes were still so weak that he was threatened with blindness He was compelled to be extremely careful in his mode of life and to choose his place of residence in obedience to climatic and meteorological conditions He usually spent the winter at Nice and the summer at Sils Maria in the Upper Engadine The years 1887 and 1888 were astonishingly rich in production they saw the publication of the most remarkable works of widely different nature and the preparation of a whole series of new books Then at the close of the latter year perhaps as the result of overstrain a violent attack of mental disorder occurred from which Nietzsche never recovered To be continue in this ebook

Exploring Quantum Mechanics Viktor Mikhaïlovich Galit'skiĭ,Victor Galitski,Boris Karnakov,Vladimir Il'ich Kogan,2013-02-28 It is notoriously difficult to come up with a new quantum mechanical problem that would be solvable with a pencil and paper within a finite amount of time and that would provide a useful insight into the fascinating world of quantum physics Any person who has taught quantum mechanics is certainly aware that there is a lack of such solvable problems in quantum mechanics In fact it is exactly this deficit of illuminating examples and practical exercises that make learning and teaching quantum physics so complicated It is very difficult to understand fundamentally new concepts without real life examples Despite this difficulty this book remarkably presents some 700 problems in quantum mechanics together with solutions They are largely new to the English speaking audience The problems have been collected over about 60 years first by the lead author the late Prof Victor Galitski Sr Over the years new problems were added and the material polished by Prof Karnakov Finally the translator Prof Victor Galitski Jr has edited the material for the modern English speaking audience and extended it with new problems particularly relevant to modern science
