Gertrude Stein Lucy Daniel,2009-09-15 You are of course never yourself wrote Gertrude Stein 1874 1946 in Everybody's Autobiography Modernist icon Stein wrote many pseudo autobiographies including the well known story of her lover The Autobiography of Alice B Toklas but in Lucy Da Gertrude Stein: The Language That Rises Ulla E. Dydo,William Rice,2008-12-19 The definitive book on Gertrude Stein Food and Culture in the Works of Ford Madox Ford, Gertrude Stein, and Virginia Woolf Nanette O'Brien,2024-01-09 Writing about food has long been a part of autobiographical expression that combines culinary record keeping and histories drawing on the personal and the cultural Concentrating on the transatlantic work of Ford Madox Ford Gertrude Stein and Virginia Woolf this book illuminates modernist uses of the terms civilization and barbarism showing how these concepts are shaped by the rules of preparing and eating food in literature and in public Nanette O'Brien introduces the concept of culinary Impressionism as an extension and repositioning of current scholarly thinking about Ford's literary Impressionism and his synesthetic writing about cookery and small farming She also presents a new reading of Stein's crafting of her modernist authority as interlinked with her cooks and shows Stein's and Toklas's jointly authored unpublished cookbook draft as evidence of their direct authorial collaboration and of Stein adapting domestic culinary techniques into her other writing O'Brien goes on to present new archival research demonstrating that Virginia Woolf's representation of the financial and culinary difference between men's and women's dining in colleges at the University of Cambridge is justified and the material inequality was in fact worse than previously understood This disparity in institutional food intensifies Woolf's later reimagining of the term civilization While drawing on themes of modernism and life writing the everyday domestic life and gender the book argues that food is a vehicle for positive modernist re-conceptions of civilization The Gourmands' Way Justin Spring,2024-03-26 The French effect on six food and wine writers including Julia Child M F K Fisher Alexis Lichine A J Liebling Richard Olney and Alice B Toklas During les trente glorieuses a thirty year boom period in France between the end of World War II and the 1974 oil crisis Paris was not only the world's most delicious stylish and exciting tourist destination it was also the world capital of gastronomic genius and innovation The Gourmands Way explores the lives and writings of six Americans who chronicled the food and wine of the glorious thirty paying particular attention to their individual struggles as writers to their life circumstances and ultimately to their particular genius at sharing awareness of French food with mainstream American readers In doing so this group biography also tells the story of an era when America adored all things French The group is comprised of the war correspondent A J Liebling Alice B Toklas Gertrude Stein s life partner who reinvented herself at seventy as a cookbook author M F K Fisher a sensualist and fabulist storyteller Julia Child a television celebrity and cookbook author Alexis Lichine an ambitious wine merchant and Richard Olney a reclusive artist who reluctantly evolved into a brilliant writer on French food and wine Together these writer adventurers initiated an American cultural dialogue on food that has continued to this day Justin Spring s The Gourmands Way is the first book ever to look at them as a group and to specifically chronicle their Paris experiences A literary meal both luscious and lively and essential to understanding our vacillating love affair with the French Kirkus Reviews starred review

Consumption and the Literary Cookbook Roxanne Harde, Janet Wesselius, 2020-11-18 Consumption and the Literary Cookbook offers readers the first book length study of literary cookbooks Imagining the genre more broadly to include narratives laden with recipes cookbooks based on cultural productions including films plays and television series and cookbooks that reflected and or shaped cultural and historical narratives the contributors draw on the tools of literary and cultural studies to closely read a diverse corpus of cookbooks By focusing on themes of consumption gastronomical and rhetorical the sixteen chapters utilize the recipes and the narratives surrounding them as lenses to study identity society history and culture The chapters in this book reflect the current popularity of foodie culture as they offer entertaining analyses of cookbooks the stories they tell and the stories told about them Recipes for Good Luck Ellen

Weinstein, 2018-04-03 A visual compendium of good luck habits implemented by influential people from history What did Maya Angelou do to keep the words flowing How do NASA engineers ensure a successful launch What was Audrey Hepburn s lucky number How does Thom Yorke get ready for a concert How did Bj rn Borg prepare for Wimbledon This charmingly illustrated book reveals the real life creative processes superstitions curious practices and performance routines of influential leaders from every walk of life artists writers scientists politicians musicians actors and more who forged their own path and left an indelible mark on the world It is a celebration of all the many weird and wonderful ways we find the courage to boldly go forth So get out there and start making some good luck of your own The Paris Wife Paula McLain, 2011-02-22 An instant national bestseller this stunningly evocative beautifully rendered story told in the voice of Ernest Hemingway s first wife Hadley has the same power and historical richness that made Loving Frank a bestseller No twentieth century American writer has captured the popular imagination as much as Ernest Hemingway This novel tells his story from a unique point of view that of his first wife Hadley Through her eyes and voice we experience Paris of the Lost Generation and meet fascinating characters such as Scott and Zelda Fitzgerald Gertrude Stein Ezra Pound and Gerald and Sara Murphy The city and its inhabitants provide a vivid backdrop to this engrossing and wrenching story of love and betrayal that is made all the more poignant knowing that in the end Hemingway would write of his first wife I wish I had died before I loved anyone but her The Passion Projects Melanie Micir, 2024-06-04 Examines the biographical projects that modernist women writers undertook to resist the exclusion of their friends colleagues lovers and companions from literary history
