Opening the Prayer Book Jeffrey Lee, 1999-01-25 What Roger Ferlo did for the Bible in Opening the Bible volume 2 of The New Church s Teaching Series Jeffrey Lee now does for the prayer book in volume 7 of the series Opening the Prayer Book introduces us to the history and liturgies of The Book of Common Prayer and helps us understand why the prayer book is such an important aspect of Anglican self understanding Lee begins with the fundamental question What is common prayer He explores some of the ways in which our worship according to The Book of Common Prayer affects who we are as a church and the way it shapes our lives of faith In chapter 2 Lee turns to the development of patterns of liturgy from the time of Jesus to the Reformation tracing changes in the primary liturgies of baptism eucharist and daily prayer The American prayer book is the focus of chapter 3 from the earliest revisions in the new nation through the liturgical scholarship that led to the substantial theological and liturgical changes in the 1979 Book of Common Prayer Chapter 4 begins a survey of the pages of the prayer book itself Lee examines in particular the liturgies of Holy Week and Easter baptism and eucharist and the daily office with a view to understanding the way the parts of the services are rooted in the historical prayers of the church and at the same time reflect the living tradition of Christians today This theme is further developed in chapter 5 which focuses on the prayer book and our common life Here Lee discusses questions of how a common prayer book can be responsive to a growing variety of pastoral situations and diverse cultures in a fast changing world The final chapter addresses the future of the prayer book within the Anglican Communion in light of demands for further revision and for greater freedom to adapt the prayer book to local needs and beliefs As with each book in The New Church's Teaching Series recommended resources for further reading and questions for discussion are included London at Prayer Charles Morley, 1909
