The Apocalypse Of Desire

Jessica A. Folkart

The Apocalypse Of Desire:

Death and Desire Tina Pippin, 2021-01-12 This innovative study of the use of gender in the Apocalypse of John pushes against the boundaries of feminist biblical interpretation Based on sociopolitical and literary readings of texts it presents a challenging new way of reading the Apocalypse Using the concept of catharsis Tina Pippin focuses on two themes central to the Apocalypse death and desire She examines the role of the female in fantastic literature and reviews the social construction of gender and of the female body In this interdisciplinary investigation Pippin incorporates fantasy theory and the function of the female in the fantastic to expose the Apocalypse s ambiguous representation of women Apocalyptic Desires Leslie Hill, 1993 Marguerite Duras is France s best known and most controversial contemporary woman writer Duras influence extends from her early novels of the 1950 s to her radically innovative experimental autobiographical text of the 1980 s The Lover Leslie Hill s book throws new light on Duras relationship to feminism psychoanalysis sexuality literature film politics and the media Feted by Kristeva and Lacan who claimed her as almost his other self Duras is revealed to be a profoundly transgressive thinker and artist It will be a must for all concerned with contemporary writing writing by women recent European cinema film and literature Gender and Apocalyptic Desire Brenda E. Brasher, Lee Quinby, 2014-12-18 The female body has been an object of oppression and control throughout history Gender and Apocalyptic Desire exposes the often hidden links between the struggles of women and the conflict of good versus evil The essays examine the collisions between feminist and apocalyptic thought the ways in which apocalyptic belief functions as bodily discipline and cultural practice and how some currents of apocalyptic desire can enable women s equality A wide range of issues are examined from anti abortion terrorism to the stigmata of Christ and visions of Mary Jesus in Q Ky-Chun So, 2017-04-06 JESUS IN Q is about the Sabbath and the theology of Jesus There are several books about the Sabbath with regard to the Gospel of Matthew Mark Luke and John but nothing regarding Q This book is designed to address the relation to the Sabbath in Q which makes it remarkable amongst other Sabbath related books with reference to the Synoptic Gospels Considering the rabbinic writers and the early fathers who have used generally in a free way the sayings of Jesus drawn from the Gospels and or oral tradition this book examines the apologists and the extracanonical writers whose writings constitute a well defined literary genre and witness a progressively more bookish use of the sayings of Jesus This book understands the extracanonical documents in early Judaism as a prerequisite for understanding the appearances of Jesus Apocalyptic Bodies Tina Pippin, 2002-03-11 Apocalyptic Bodies traces the biblical notions of the end of the world as represented in ancient and modern texts art music and popular culture for example the paintings of Bosch Tina Pippin addresses the question of how far we in the late twentieth century are capable of reading and responding to the signs of the times It will appeal not only to those studying religion but also to those fascinated with interpretations of the end of the world Sex Working and the Bible Avaren Ipsen, 2014-12-18 The Bible contains many stories of prostitution Feminist and liberation readings of these biblical narratives have often made sex workers invisible Sex Working and the Bible examines stories of biblical prostitution through the experiences and understanding of sex workers today The Bible narratives ranging across Rahab in the Book of Joshua the story of Solomon and the two prostitutes the anointing women traditions and the apocalyptic vision of the whore of Babylon in Revelation are set within both a practical and theoretical framework This radical book offers a new more inclusive way of approaching issues of gender sexuality and prostitution in the Bible Thinking Sex with the Great Whore Luis

Menéndez-Antuña,2018-04-17 Many scholars in Biblical and Revelation studies have written at length about the imperial and patriarchal implications of the figure of the Whore of Babylon However much of the focus has been on the links to the Roman Empire and ancient attitudes towards gender This book adds another layer to the conversation around this evocative figure by pursuing an ideological critique of the Great Whore that takes into account contemporary understandings of sexuality and in so doing advances a de moralization of apparent sexual deviancy both in the present and in the past Offering an emancipatory reading of Revelation 17 18 using Foucauldian postcolonial and queer historiographies this study sets out alternative paths for identity construction in Biblical texts By using these alternative critical lenses the author argues that the common neglect of the ethical and political impact of Biblical texts in the present can be overcome This in turn allows for fresh reflection on the study of the Bible and its implications for progressive politics Situated at the intersection of Revelation Studies Biblical Studies and Hermeneutics as well as Contextual Liberationist Theologies and Queer and Postcolonial Criticism this is a cutting edge study that will be of keen interest to scholars of Theology and Religious Studies

Contesting Religious Identities Bob E.J.H. Becking,Anna-Marie J.A.C.M. Korte,Lucien van Liere,2017-01-09 Religion is a hot topic on the public stages of secular societies not in its individualized liberal or orthodox form but rather as a public statement challenging the divide between the secular neutral space and the religious In this new challenging modus religion raises questions about identity power rationality subjectivity law and safety but above all religion questions contests and even blurs the borders between the public and the private These phenomena urge to rethink what are often considered to be clear differences between religions between the public and the private and between the religious and the secular In this volume scholars from a range of different disciplines map the different aspects of the dynamics of changing contesting and contested religious identities Desiring Martyrs Harry O. Maier,Katharina Waldner,2020-12-16 Martyrs create space and time through the actions they take the fate they suffer the stories they prompt the cultural narratives against which they take place and the retelling of their tales in different places and contexts The title Desiring Martyrs is meant in two senses First it refers to protagonists and antagonists of the martyrdom narratives who as literary characters seek martyrs and the way they inscribe certain kinds of cultural and social desire Second it describes the later celebration of martyrs via narrative martyrdom acts monuments inscriptions martyria liturgical commemoration pilgrimage etc Here there is a cultural desire to tell or remember a particular kind of story about the past that serves particular communal interests and goals By applying the spatial turn to these ancient texts the volume seeks to advance a still nascent social geographical understanding of emergent Christian and Jewish martyrdom It explores how martyr narratives engage pre existing time space configurations to result in new appropriations of earlier traditions Violence, Desire, and the Sacred, Volume 1 Scott Cowdell,Chris Fleming,Joel Hodge,2012-08-16 Violence Desire and the Sacred presents the most up to date inter disciplinary work being developed with the ground breaking insights of Ren Girard s mimetic theory The collection showcases the work of outstanding scholars in mimetic theory and how they are applying and developing Girard s insights in a variety of fields Girard s mimetic insight has provided a fruitful way for different disciplines such as literature anthropology theology religion studies cultural studies and philosophy to engage on common anthropological ground with a shared understanding of the human person The aim of this edited collection is to present this interdisciplinary work and to illustrate how Girard s insights provide fertile ground for bringing together disparate disciplines in a shared purpose As academic work on Girard s insights is growing this collection would meet the need to show the critical interdisciplinary applications of these insights

Violence, Desire, and the Sacred, Volume 2 Scott Cowdell,Chris Fleming,Joel Hodge,2014-01-30 This collection of state of the art interpretations of the thought of Ren Girard follows on from the volume Violence Desire and the Sacred Girard s Mimetic Theory Across the Disciplines 2012 The previous collection has been acclaimed for demonstrating and showcasing Girard s mimetic theory at its inter disciplinary best by bringing together scholars who apply Girard s insights in different fields This new volume builds on and extends the work of that earlier collection by moving into new areas such as psychology politics classical literature national literature and practical applications of Girard s theory in pastoral spiritual care peace making and religious thought and practice Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium Jessica A. Folkart,2014-10-08 Liminal Fiction at the Edge of the Millennium The Ends of Spanish Identity investigates the predominant perception of liminality identity situated at a threshold neither one thing nor another but simultaneously both and neither caused by encounters with otherness while negotiating identity in contemporary Spain Examining how identity and alterity are parleyed through the cultural concerns of historical memory gender roles sex religion nationalism and immigration this study demonstrates how fictional representations of reality converge in a common structure wherein the end is not the end but rather an edge a liminal ground On the border between two identities the end materializes as an ephemeral limit that delineates and differentiates yet also adjoins and approximates In exploring the ends of Spanish fiction both their structure and their intentionality Liminal Fiction maps the edge as a constitutive component of narrative and identity in texts by Najat El Hachmi Cristina Fern ndez Cubas Javier Mar as Rosa Montero and Manuel Rivas In their representation of identity on the edge these fictions enact and embody the liminal not as simply a transitional and transient mode but as the structuring principle of identification in contemporary Spain Here Comes the Judge Matthew Streett,2012-02-16 Matthew Streett considers violence in Revelation particularly the book s demand that Christias act non violently contrasted with the violence of God depicted in the text The Decalogue through the Centuries Jeffrey P. Greenman, Timothy Larsen, 2012-11-10 This collection of essays by prominent scholars surveys the ways in which the Decalogue the Ten Commandments has been understood and appropriated from biblical times until today With chapters devoted to major thinkers such as Aquinas Barth Calvin Luther Maimonides and Wesley the writers explore ways the Decalogue has provided theological ethical moral and devotional reflection throughout many facets of religious thought The pieces reveal both the continuities in interpretation through the centuries as well as ways in which individual theologians departed from reigning readings to develop new directions Contributors include Daniel I Block Craig A Evans George Hunsinger Matthew Levering D Stephen Long William E May David Novak Alison G Salvesen Susan E Schreiner Carl R Trueman and Timothy J Wengert Untold Tales from the Book of Revelation Stephen D. Moore, 2014-10-31 An interlinked collection of essays representing the best of Stephen D Moore s groundbreaking scholarship This collection of previously published essays is a companion to The Bible in Theory Critical and Postcritical Essays 2010 Chapters engage postcolonial studies cultural studies deconstruction autobiographical criticism masculinity studies queer theory affect theory and animality studies methods Moore believes present unprecedented challenges to the monochrome model of Revelation scholarship based on traditional historical critical methods Features Nine essays on biblical literary criticism including two co written with Jennifer A Glancy and Catherine Keller Contextual introductions for each essay Annotated bibliographies Wallace Stevens And The Apocalyptic Mode Malcolm Woodland, 2009-11 Wallace Stevens and the Apocalyptic Mode focuses on Stevens s doubled stance toward the apocalyptic past his simultaneous use of and resistance to apocalyptic language two contradictory forces that have generated two dominant and incompatible interpretations of his work The book explores the often paradoxical roles of apocalyptic and antiapocalyptic rhetoric in modernist and postmodernist poetry and theory particularly as these emerge in the poetry of Stevens and Jorie Graham This study begins with an examination of the textual and generic issues surrounding apocalypse culminating in the idea of apocalyptic language as a form of discursive mastery over the mayhem of events Woodland provides an informative religious historical discussion of apocalypse and engaging with such critics as Parker Derrida and Fowler sets forth the paradoxes and complexities that eventually challenge any clear dualities between apocalyptic and antiapocalyptic thinking Woodland then examines some of Stevens s wartime essays and poems and describes Stevens s efforts to salvage a sense of self and poetic vitality in a time of war as well as his resistance to the possibility of cultural collapse Woodland discusses the major postwar poems Credences of Summer and The Auroras of Autumn in separate chapters examining the interaction of anti apocalyptic modes with respectively pastoral and elegy The final chapter offers a perspective on Stevens s place in literary history by examining the work of a contemporary poet Jorie Graham whose poetry quotes from Stevens s oeuvre and shows other marks of his influence Woodland focuses on Graham s 1997 collection The Errancy and shows that her antiapocalyptic poetry involves a very different attitude toward the possibility of a radical break with a particular cultural or aesthetic stance Wallace Stevens and the Apocalyptic Mode offering a new understanding of Stevens's position in literary history will greatly interest literary scholars and students

Ascent of Mount Carmel John of the Cross, 2021-04-10 In Ascent of Mount Carmel John of the Cross, a prominent figure of the Spanish mysticism, articulates a profound journey toward spiritual purity and union with God. Written in the late 16th century, this text exemplifies a rich allegorical narrative interwoven with mystical theology. The book employs a lyrical style incorporating poetic elements which enhances its exploratory treatment of the soul's transformation through the obscuring dark night. As John navigates the stages of spiritual ascent, he critiques the distractions of earthly attachments, positioning his work within the broader context of the Counter Reformation where introspection and personal spirituality flourished in response to the prevailing Catholic reforms. John of the Cross, a Carmelite friar and contemporary of Teresa of Avila, was deeply influenced by the harsh conditions of his life, including imprisonment and persecution. His personal journey through suffering and joy provides a compelling backdrop to Ascent of Mount Carmel, reflecting his commitment to contemplative prayer and the mystical tradition. John's theological depth and poetic mastery afford readers a unique glimpse into the transformative processes that define intimate communion with the Divine. Recommended for those seeking a deeper understanding of Christian mysticism, this book serves as both a spiritual guide and a philosophical treatise. Whether you are a seasoned scholar or a curious reader, John of the Cross's eloquent exploration will inspire an enriching pursuit of spiritual authenticity. Paul as homo novus Eve-Marie Becker, Jacob Mortensen, 2018-04-16 20th-century research in St Paul is widely impacted by Adolf Deissmann's prominent view on the apostle as a homo novus (1911). But where does this concept originate from, and what does it imply? This collection of articles does not only re-evaluate Deissmann's concept by tracing it back to its historical and socio-political origins in Cicero and exploring how authors from early Imperial Rome perceive and transform the homo novus paradigm by diverse modes and strategies of literary self-fashioning. Scholars ranging the fields of New Testament Studies, Greek and Latin Philology, Ancient History, Patristics, and Comparative Literature also examine how the Ciceronian paradigm was early on transformed, disseminated, and applied as a literary concept and an authorial topos of self-molding. One of the leading questions throughout the volume thus is: How do authors like Cicero, Horace, Paul, Tacitus, Seneca, Athanasius and Augustine fashion themselves in accordance to or in difference from the idea of being a new man It is argued that by means of literary self configuration indeed some of these writers such as Paul and Augustine want to appear as new men by either altering traditional social moral religious or political roles or by creating new patterns of social behavior and religious self understanding

Violence, Desire, and the Sacred Scott Cowdell,Chris Fleming,Joel Hodge,2012-08-16 Showcases the application of Ren Girard s mimetic theory across a range of disciplines including philosophy religious studies literature and cultural studies
