The Architecture Of Wine English And German Edition:

Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott, 2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclopedia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century's vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries

Strategies of Adaptation in Tourist Communication Gudrun Held, 2018-01-29 The papers in this volume study the relationship between language use and the concept of the tourist gaze through a range of communicative practices from different cultures and languages From a pragmatic perspective the authors investigate how language constantly adapts to contextual constraints which affect tourism discourse as a strategic meaning making process that turns insignificant places into desirable tourist destinations The case studies draw on both in situ interactions with visitors such as guided tours and counter information old and new mediatized genres i.e. guide books travelogues print advertising as well as TV commercials service web sites and apps Despite the diversity of data one of the common findings in the volume is that staging the sensory lived tourist experience is the lynchpin of all communicative practices Hence the use of tourism language reveals itself as the mirror of how people on the move continuously enact as tourists and places are constructed as must see sights
