The Art of Public Speaking, 11th Ed Stephen E. Lucas, 2012      The Art of Public Speaking Stephen Lucas, 2012 The Art of Public Speaking 11e continues to define the art of being the best by helping today's students become capable responsible speakers and thinkers With a strong focus on the practical skills of public speaking and grounded in classical and contemporary theories of rhetoric The Art of Public Speaking offers full coverage of all major aspects of speech preparation and presentation Utilizing the full suite of resources students learn to internalize the principles of public speaking build confidence through speech practice and prepare for success in the classroom and beyond With the new Enhanced Speech Capture in Connect Lucas instructors now have the ability to evaluate live speeches using a customizable rubric in the classroom Instructors may also upload speech videos on students behalf to create and manage true peer review assignments With its ground breaking adaptive learning system Connect Lucas tm also helps students know what they know while guiding them to experience and learn important concepts that they need to know to succeed With McGraw Hill Create tm instructors can now customize their Lucas 11e textbook to the section level selecting and arranging only the sections covered in the course The new Create system will automatically repaginate and re number chapters sections graphs and illustrations based on how the instructor chooses to arrange them This deep level of customization guarantees that students pay only for the content covered in the course      An Essential Guide to Public Speaking Quentin J. Schultze, 2020-03-17 Communication expert and popular speaker Quentin Schultze offers a practical accessible and inspiring guide to public speaking showing readers how to serve their audiences with faith skill and virtue This thoroughly rewritten and expanded four color edition has been tested and revised with input from Christian undergraduates and contains new chapters on timely topics such as speaking for video conducting group presentations and engaging society civilly A complete public speaking textbook for Christian universities it includes helpful sidebars tips and appendixes Additional resources for students and professors are available through Textbook eSources      The Art of Public Speaking Stephen Lucas, 1992 This text on public speaking provides examples and a balance of theory and skills It leads students through the process of learning how to speak publicly providing guidelines and illustrations of key concepts      Developing Advanced English Language Competence Armin Berger, Helen Heaney, Pia Resnik, Angelika Rieder-Bünemann, Galina Savukova, 2022-02-03 This volume presents a systematic approach to developing advanced English language competence at tertiary level It includes the reflections of experienced language teachers and teacher researchers in the English Language Competence programme at the University of Vienna and provides examples of good practice amalgamating teaching expertise and research with aspects of curriculum design and programme management The book addresses a growing academic and professional interest in understanding advanced language learning and use To date research has tended to investigate advanced proficiency from a specific theoretical viewpoint for example cognition psycholinguistic processing strategies or the assumption of a critical period or the age factor

In contrast this work examines advanced proficiency from a curricular and instructional perspective by providing a profile of advanced level language development in a specific institutional context It brings together three areas of language education curriculum design pedagogical practice and research Within this triangle advanced English language education is the focus or conversely advanced English language education provides the lens through which links between curriculum design teaching and research can be established

Preaching that Matters Lori J. Carrell, 2013-04-11 Listeners do love their pastors and they agree with the sermon content they hear Lori Carrell once explained to a group of pastors but most sermons don't ask for change and most listeners don't experience spiritual growth as a result of the sermon A participant responded Let's get practical I want my preaching to make a difference What changes are worth making and how do I make them In Preaching that Matters Lori Carrell shares answers to that question drawing on the experiences of thousands of people preachers and their listeners whose effort she has studied over many years In each chapter of this book she offers research revelations about high impact preaching that will encourage and challenge readers to continue to grow as preachers She then links these principles with Reflective Practice Challenges RPCs exercises that honor the rich experiences of pastors while opening opportunities for self analysis spiritual introspection conversation with a trusted other or implementation of research based preaching recommendations The activities have been used by hundreds of other pastors and each RPC has been carefully selected for its demonstrated contribution to the process of transforming sermon communication A selection of the RPCs are available as a downloadable file E mail resource material rowman.com for more information As a communication expert Carrell approaches preaching from a sermon communication paradigm She begins with the task of identifying the spiritually transformative purpose of the sermon and then explores exegeting organizing deepening and delivering the sermon as well as listening to the listeners and planning for continued transformation Her own goal is simple to inspire and equip clergy to make changes that will enhance the transformative power of their preaching To connect with others reading Preaching That Matters and to find an online accountability partner join the book's Google communities
