"Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" Heather Belnap Jensen, 2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789-1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period

My Daughter's Wedding Gretel Killeen, 2021-02-23

Nora Fawn's daughter Hope disappeared four years ago. Nora has never known why. Refusing to answer her mother's calls, emails, or texts, Hope maintained contact only with her big sister Joy. Having once considered her mothering to be the greatest achievement of her life, Nora spent these Hopeless years searching, aching, mother-guiling, working for a famous yet talentless artist and avoiding her own emotionally repressed mother Daphne. But last night Hope rang out of the blue to say, 'I'm coming home. I'm getting married; the wedding is in three weeks, and it's your job to organise it.' Desperate to prove her worth as a mother and regain her daughter's love, Nora commits to the task, assisted by her own increasingly dementia'd mother and her two best friends: Soula, an amateur bikini line waxer, and Thilma, whom they found in a cab in the 1980s. My Daughter's Wedding is both hilarious and profound as it explores the confounding complexity, wild terrain, mountains, valleys, and quicksand found in three generations of mother-daughter love.

Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora Andrea O'Reilly Herrera, 2011-07-11

As an island, a geographical space with mutable and porous borders, Cuba has never been a fixed cultural, political, or geographical entity. Migration and exile have always informed the Cuban experience, and loss and displacement have figured as central preoccupations among Cuban artists and intellectuals. A major expression of this experience is the unconventional, multi-generational itinerant and ongoing art exhibit CAF: The Journeys of Cuban Artists. In Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora, Andrea O'Reilly Herrera focuses on the CAF project to explore Cuba's long and turbulent history of movement and rupture from the perspective of its visual arts and to meditate upon the manner in which one reconstitutes and reinvents the self in the context of diaspora. Approaching the CAFeteros' art from a cultural studies perspective, O'Reilly Herrera examines how the history of Cuba informs their work and establishes their connections to past generations of Cuban artists. In interviews with more than thirty artists, including Jos Bedia, Mar a Brito, Leandro Soto, Glexis Novoa, Baruj Salinas, and Ana Albertina Delgado, O'Reilly Herrera also raises critical questions regarding the many and sometimes paradoxical ways diasporic subjects self-affiliate or situate themselves in the narratives of scattering and displacement. She demonstrates how the CAFeteros' artmaking involves a process of re-rooting, absorption, translation, and synthesis that simultaneously conserves a series of identifiable Cuban cultural elements while re-inscribing and transforming them in new contexts. An important contribution to both diasporic and transnational studies and discussions of contemporary Cuban art, Cuban Artists Across the Diaspora ultimately testifies to the fact that a long tradition of Cuban art is indeed flourishing outside the island.

Loving Across the Color Line Sharon Rush, 2000

In this memoir, the author relates how her loving maternal relationship opened her eyes to the harsh realities of the American racial divide.

The Art of Found Objects Robert Craig Bunch, 2016-09-23

In this first book of interviews with visual artists from across Texas, more than sixty artists reflect on topics from formative influences and inspirations to their common engagement with found materials. Beyond the art itself, no source is more primary to understanding art and artist than the artist's own words. After all, who can speak with more authority about the artist's influences, motivations, methods, philosophies, and creations? Since 2010, Robert Craig Bunch has interviewed sixty-four of Texas' finest artists who have responded with honesty, clarity, and naturally great insight into their own work. None of these interviews has been previously published, even in part. Incorporating a striking full-color illustration of each artist's work, these absorbing self-examinations will stand collectively as a reference of lasting value. Private Salons and the Art World of Enlightenment Paris

Rochelle Ziskin, 2022-11-14. In Private Salons and the Art World of Enlightenment Paris, Rochelle Ziskin explores in depth two remarkable private gatherings generating significant art criticism during the middle of the eighteenth century. She demonstrates how the sites harboring them came to embody and disseminate their judgments. One politically active group assembled at the house Mme Doublet shared with amateur Petit de Bachaumont at her Mondays for artists. Mme Geoffrin collaborated with the powerful lover of antiquity Caylus and amateurs including Mariette and Watelet. In focusing on official Salons of the Royal Academy of Painting and Sculpture, historians too often overlook the crucial role of these frequent regular assemblies where works of art were quite often first assessed and taste shaped. This book will appeal to readers interested in eighteenth-century French artistic culture, journalism, and women's patronage. The painters discussed include Boucher, Van Loo, Charles Coypel, Cochin, Vien, Pierre Lagrené, and Hubert Robert.

Flying To The Moon: A Mother and Daughter's Journey Through Alzheimer's Jennifer Blackmore, 2012-07-15. FLYING TO THE MOON: A Mother and Daughter's Journey Through Alzheimer's tells of the enduring devotion of a daughter and her beloved mother, their lives imperiled by an abusive marriage and a debilitating disease. As Ivy's awareness diminishes and Jennifer's marriage unravels, they come together to embrace a new reality accentuated by poetry, piano duets, and their celebration of the nonsensical. Once a self-reliant single mother in control of her life, Jennifer returns to her art and discovers a newfound confidence and direction; her mother, resolute in support despite the ravages of Alzheimer's. Set in vibrant multicultural Miami, this affectionate account of a mother and her daughter's journey touches on universal themes of loss, survival, and empowerment. Poignant, honest, and inspiring, Flying to the Moon offers hope to everyone affected in some way by this tragic affliction. Fathers and Daughters in Shakespeare and Shaw

Lagretta Lenker, 2001-04-30. How can the most silent member of the family carry the message of subversion against venerated institutions of state and society? Why would two playwrights writing 300 years apart employ the same dramatic methods for rebelling against the establishment when these methods are virtually ignored by their contemporaries? This book considers these and similar questions. It examines the historical similarities of the eras in which Shakespeare and Shaw wrote and then explores types of father-daughter interactions, considering each in terms of the existing power structures of society. These two dramatists draw on themes of incest, daughter sacrifice, role playing, education, and androgyny to create both active and passive daughters. The daughters literally represent a challenge to the patriarchy and metaphorically extend that challenge to such institutions as church and state The volume argues that the father daughter relationship was the ideal dramatic vehicle for Shakespeare and Shaw to advance their social and political agendas By exploring larger issues through the father daughter relationship both playwrights were able to avoid the watchful eyes of censors and comment on such topics as the divine right of kings filial bonds of obedience and even regicide Monsieur Mallét: Or, My Daughter's Letter H. W. Montagu, 1830
