The Awakened One:

The Awakened Ones Gananath Obeyesekere, 2012-02-07 While a rational consciousness grasps many truths Gananath Obeyesekere believes an even richer knowledge is possible through a bold confrontation with the stuff of visions and dreams Spanning both Buddhist and European forms of visionary experience he fearlessly pursues the symbolic nonrational depths of such phenomena reawakening the intuitive creative impulses that power greater understanding Throughout his career Obeyesekere has combined psychoanalysis and anthropology to illuminate the relationship between personal symbolism and religious experience In this book he begins with Buddha's visionary trances wherein over the course of four hours he witnesses hundreds of thousands of his past births and eons of world evolution renewal and disappearance He then connects this fracturing of empirical and visionary time to the realm of space considering the experience of a female Christian penitent who stares devotedly at a tiny crucifix only to see the space around it expand to mirror Christ's suffering Obeyesekere follows the unconscious motivations underlying rapture the fantastical consumption of Christ's body and blood and body mutilation and levitation bridging medieval Catholicism and the movements of early modern thought as reflected in William Blake's artistic visions and poetic dreams He develops the term dream ego through a discussion of visionary journeys Carl Jung's and Sigmund Freud's scientific dreaming and the cosmic and erotic dream visions of New Age virtuosos and he defines the parameters of a visionary mode of knowledge that provides a more elastic understanding of truth A career culminating work this volume translates the epistemology of Hindu and Buddhist thinkers for western audiences while revitalizing western philosophical and scientific inquiry

R. Hege, 2017-10-13 The Christian faith stands or falls with the confession that Jesus Christ is risen While that assertion itself is perhaps uncontroversial precisely what this confession means has been a subject of profound significance and immense controversy for centuries Central to this discussion is the role of myth and history in the biblical witness and in the church's theological engagement with the confession that Jesus Christ is risen This book traces key trajectories of German Protestant discussions of myth history and the resurrection from its earliest critical analysis in the work of Hermann Samuel Reimarus and David Friedrich Strauss to contemporary appraisals by Eberhard Jüngel and Ingolf

Ulrich Dalferth At the center of this discussion stands Rudolf Bultmann whose work on the resurrection sparked fierce debates that left a lasting impact on Protestant theology in Germany and beyond The questions raised by these theologians continue to resonate in contemporary discussions of the nature and status of biblical texts the integrity and truth of the Christian confession and the meaning and significance of the resurrection of Jesus Christ for Christian faith and life at the beginning of the twenty first century

The Light of Reason Gloria Excelsior, 2014-10-28 Whenever there is pain and sorrow wealth is hidden from reality Whenever there is confusion disregard unworthiness there is a lurking fear that has not been uncovered These shadows cover the essence of self These shadows withdraw the self to a place of denial where the veil thickens condenses and becomes a dense cloud full of misrepresentations This dear one is the challenge that is to be faced for all who are moved to choice Denial or freedom Freedom is the strength of self Freedom is held with love and light Freedom is within the arms of the Lord who carries this burden into the light of reason Do you see my dears Do you see the love that you have Do you see the image of who you are You are the image of the Lord Thy God You are this light that shines through thy countenance of beauty You are all of that and more Gloria Excelsior Nietzsche and Zen André van der Braak, 2011-08-16 In Nietzsche and Zen Self Overcoming Without a Self Andr van der Braak engages

Nietzsche in a dialogue with four representatives of the Buddhist Zen tradition Nagarjuna c 150-250 Linji d 860 Dogen 1200-1253 and Nishitani 1900-1990 In doing so he reveals Nietzsche's thought as a philosophy of continuous self-overcoming in which even the notion of self has been overcome Van der Braak begins by analyzing Nietzsche's relationship to Buddhism and status as a transcultural thinker recalling research on Nietzsche and Zen to date and setting out the basic argument of the study He continues by examining the practices of self-overcoming in Nietzsche and Zen comparing Nietzsche's radical skepticism with that of Nagarjuna and comparing Nietzsche's approach to truth to Linji's Nietzsche's methods of self-overcoming are compared to Dogen's zazen or sitting meditation practice and Dogen's notion of forgetting the self These comparisons and others build van der Braak's case for a criticism of Nietzsche informed by the ideas of Zen Buddhism and a criticism of Zen Buddhism seen through the Western lens of Nietzsche coalescing into one world philosophy This treatment focusing on one of the most fruitful areas of research within contemporary comparative and intercultural philosophy will be useful to Nietzsche scholars continental philosophers and comparative philosophers Chanting from the Heart, 2002-12-09
