The Baby House:

The Boy from Baby House 10 Alan Philips, John Lahutsky, 2009-09-23 In 1990 a young boy afflicted with cerebral palsy was born prematurely in Russia His name was Vanya His mother abandoned him to the state childcare system and he was sent to a bleak orphanage called Baby House 10 Once there he entered a nightmare world he was not to leave for more than eight years Housed in a ward with a group of other children he was clothed in rags ignored by most of the staff and given little if any medical treatment He was finally and cruelly confined for a time to a mental asylum where he lived almost caged lying in a pool of his own waste on a locked ward surrounded by psychotic adults But that didn't stop Vanya Even in these harsh conditions he grew into a smart and persistent young boy who reached out to everyone around him Two of those he reached out to Sarah Philips the wife of a British journalist and Vika a young Russian woman realized that Vanya was no ordinary child and they began a campaign to find him a home After many twists and turns Vanya came to the attention of a single woman living in the United States named Paula Lahutsky After a lot of red tape and more than one miracle Paula adopted Vanya and brought him to the U S where he is now known as John Lahutsky an honors student at Freedom High School in Bethlehem Pennsylvania and a member of the Boy Scouts of America Order of the Arrow In The Boy From Baby House 10 Sarah's husband Alan Philips helps John Lahutsky bring this inspiring true life story of a small boy with a big heart and an unquenchable will to readers everywhere

Paralympic or Olympic athlete The Hard Parts is Oksana Masters's gripping account of overcoming extraordinary Chernobyl disaster caused physical challenges to create a life that challenges everyone to push through what is holding them back. Oksana Masters was born in Ukraine in the shadow of Chernobyl seemingly with the odds stacked against her. She came into the world with one kidney, a partial stomach, six toes on each foot, webbed fingers, no right bicep, and no thumbs. Her left leg was six inches shorter than her right, and she was missing both tibias. Relinquished to the orphanage system by birth parents daunted by the staggering cost of what would be their child's medical care, Oksana encountered numerous abuses, some horrifying. Salvation came at age seven when Gay Masters, an unmarried American professor who saw a photo of the little girl and became haunted by her eyes, waged a two-year war against stubborn adoption authorities to rescue Oksana from her circumstances. In America, Oksana endured years of operations that included a double leg amputation. Still, how could she hope to fit in when there were so many things making her different? As it turned out, she would do much more than fit in. Determined to prove herself and fueled by a drive to succeed that still smoldered from childhood, Oksana triumphed in not just one sport but four, winning against the world's best in elite rowing, biathlon, cross-country skiing, and road cycling competitions. Now considered one of the world's top athletes, she is the recipient of seventeen Paralympic medals, the most of any US athlete of the Winter Games. Paralympic or Olympic? Oksana's astonishing story of journeying through a series of dark tunnels is as true a tale of grit as I've ever heard, with a message filled with triumph and beauty that what doesn't kill us makes us stronger if we are loved. Angela Duckworth, New York Times bestselling author of Grit. Child of War, Curtis Whitfield Tong, 2010-09-30. Hours after attacking Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941, Japanese bombers stormed across the Philippine city of Baguio, where seven-year-old Curt Tong, the son of American missionaries, hid with his classmates in the woods near his school. Three weeks later, Curt, his mother, and two sisters were among the nearly five hundred Americans who surrendered to the Japanese army in Baguio. Child of War is Tong's touching story of the next three years of his childhood as he endured fear, starvation, sickness, and separation from his father while interned in three different Japanese prison camps on the island of Luzon. Written by the adult Tong looking back on his wartime ordeal, it offers a rich trove of memories about internment life and camp experiences. Relegated first to the men's barracks at Camp John Hay, Curt is taken under the wing of a close family friend who is also the camp's civilian leader. From this vantage point, he is able to observe the running of the camp firsthand as the war continues and increasing numbers of Americans are imprisoned. Curt's days are occupied with work, detail, baseball, and childhood adventures. Along with his mother and sisters, he experiences daily life under a series of camp commandants, some ruling with intimidation and cruelty but one memorably with compassion. In the last months of the war, the entire family is finally reunited, and their ordeal ends when they are liberated from Manila's Bilibid Prison by American troops. Child of War is an engaging and thoughtful memoir that presents an unusual view of life as a World War II internee, that of a young boy. It is a valuable addition to existing wartime autobiographies and diaries and contributes
