Wedekind,1995 Applause Books Spring's Awakening is a tragi comedy of teenage sex Its fourteen year old heroine Wendla is killed by abortion pills The young Moritz terrorized by the world around him and especially by his teachers shoots himself The ending seems likely to be the suicide of Moritz's friend Melchior but in a confrontation with a mysterious stranger the famous Masked Man he finally manages to shed his illusions and face the consequences Spring Awakening Frank Wedekind,1996-02-15 This version of Frank Wedekind's extraordinary play Spring Awakening was specially commissioned by the Royal Shakespeare Company The themes it addresses and the sheer energy of the writing make this masterpiece of German symbolism startlingly relevant today With its scenes of pubescent angst sexual outspokenness rape and homosexuality the play still more than one hundred years after it was first staged has the power to shock Ted Hughes's rendition lends the dialogue a particularly modern terseness and bite drawing out all the erotic energy of the original

Wedekind,2016-05-11 That it is a fatal error to bring up children either boys or girls in ignorance of their sexual nature is the thesis of Frank Wedekind's drama Fruhlings Erwachen From its title one might suppose it a peaceful little idyl of the youth of the year No idea a could be more mistaken It is a tragedy of frightful import and its action is concerned with the development of natural instincts in the adolescent of both sexes The playwright has attacked his theme with European frankness but of plot in the usual acceptance of the term there is little Instead of the coherent drama of conventional type Wedekind has given us a series of loosely connected scenes illuminative of character scenes which surely have profound significance for all occupied in the training of the young He sets before us a group of school children lads and lassies just past the age of puberty and shows logically that death and degradation may be their lot as the outcome of parental reticence They are not vicious children but little ones such as we meet every day imaginative beings living in a world of youthful ideals and speculating about the mysteries which surround them Wendla sent to her grave by the abortive administered with the connivance of her affectionate but mistaken mother is a most lovable creature while Melchior the father of her unborn child is a high type of boy whose downfall is due to a philosophic temperament which leads him to inquire into the nature of life and to impart his knowledge to others a temperament which under proper guidance would make him a useful intelligent man

It is Melchior's very excellence of character which proves his undoing That he should be imprisoned as a moral degenerate only serves to illustrate the stupidity of his parents and teachers As for the suicide of Moritz the imaginative youth who kills himself because he has failed in his examinations that is another crime for which the dramatist makes false educational methods responsible A grim vein of humor is exhibited now and then as when we are introduced to the conference room in which the members of a gymnasium faculty met to consider the regulation of their pupils' morals sit beneath the portraits of Pestalozzi and J J Rousseau disputing with considerable acrimony about the opening and shutting of a window The exchange of unpleasant personalities is interrupted only by the entrance of the accused student to whose defense the faculty refuses to listen having marked the boy for expulsion prior to the formal farce of his trial
