The Lost Book of Sun Yatsen and Edwin Collins Patrick Anderson, 2016-11-25 Sun Yatsen 1866-1925 occupies a unique position in modern Chinese history he is equally venerated as the founding father of the nation by both the mainland Communist government and its Nationalist rival in Taiwan The first president of the Republic of China in 1911-12 the peasant born yet Western trained Dr Sun was also a dedicated political theorist constantly in search of the ideal political and constitutional blueprint to underpin his incomplete revolution A decade before the public emergence in Japan of his Three Principles of the People and weeks before even his first slim publication in 1897 Kidnapped in London Sun was already hard at work in the Reading Room of the British Museum planning his most ambitious book yet a comprehensive political treatise in English on the tyrannical misgovernment of the Chinese nation by the Manchus of the Qing Dynasty Started then abandoned twice over destined never to be completed let alone published we can only conjecture what title this revolutionary book might have had The Lost Book of Sun Yatsen and Edwin Collins is the first study of this lost work in all scholarship Western or Chinese It draws its originality and its themes from three primary sources all presented here for the first time The first is a series of interconnected lost writings co authored by Sun Yatsen between 1896 and 1898 The second is the mass of lost political interviews with and articles dedicated to Sun Yatsen and his politics first published in the British press in the aftermath the dramatic world famous rescue of Sun from inside the Chinese Legation in London in 1896 The third source is the Apostle of the Simple Life for Children the Anglo Jewish Rabbi Edwin Collins 1858 1936 a devotee and practitioner of Jean Jacques Rousseau s mile and the New Education movement it inspired who became Sun s writing collaborator of choice during his years of political exile from China Drawing on this wealth of neglected material Patrick Anderson s book offers a genuinely fresh perspective on Sun Yatsen and his political motivations and beliefs Mapping Memory in Translation Siobhan Brownlie, 2016-04-08 This book presents a map of the application of memory studies concepts to the study of translation A range of types of memory from personal memory and electronic memory to national and transnational memory are discussed and links with translation are illustrated by detailed case studies Deep Knowledge Oludamini Ogunnaike, 2020-10-26 This book is an in depth comparative study of two of the most popular and influential intellectual and spiritual traditions of West Africa Tijani Sufism and Ifa Employing a unique methodological approach that thinks with and from rather than merely about these traditions Oludamini Ogunnaike argues that they contain sophisticated epistemologies that provide practitioners with a comprehensive worldview and a way of crafting a meaningful life Using theories belonging to the traditions themselves as well as contemporary oral and textual sources Ogunnaike examines how both Sufism and Ifa answer the questions of what knowledge is how it is acquired and how it is verified Or more simply What do you know How did you come to know it How do you know that you know After analyzing Ifa and Sufism separately and on their own terms the book compares them to each other and to certain features of academic theories of knowledge By analyzing Sufism from the perspective of Ifa Ifa from the perspective of Sufism and the contemporary academy from the perspective of both this book invites scholars to inhabit these seemingly foreign intellectual traditions as valid and viable perspectives on knowledge metaphysics psychology and ritual practice Unprecedented and innovative Deep Knowledge makes a significant contribution to cross cultural philosophy African philosophy religious studies and Islamic studies Its singular approach advances our understanding of the philosophical bases underlying these two African traditions and lays the groundwork for future study      British Humanities Index ,2009      Cultures of Infancy Heidi Keller,2022-05-26 The Classic Edition of Heidi Keller s Cultures of Infancy first published in 2007 includes a new introduction by the author which describes for readers the original context of her work how she has further developed her research and thinking and the ongoing relevance of this volume in the context of future challenges for the field In its original volume Cultures of Infancy presented the first systematic analysis of culturally informed developmental pathways synthesizing evolutionary and cultural psychological perspectives for a broader understanding of human development In this compelling book Heidi Keller utilizes ethnographic reports as well as quantitative and qualitative analyses to illustrate how humans resolve universal developmental tasks in particular sociodemographic contexts These contexts are represented in cultural models with three distinct models addressed throughout the text the model of independence with autonomy as developmental organizer the model of interdependence with relatedness as the developmental organizer and the model of autonomous relatedness representing particular mixtures of autonomy and relatedness The book offers an empirical examination of the first integrative developmental task during the early months of life relationship formation Keller shows that early parenting experiences shape the basic foundation of the self within particular models of parenting that are influenced by culturally informed socialization goals With distinct patterns of results that the studies have revealed Cultures of Infancy helps redefine developmental psychology as part of a culturally informed science based on evolutionary groundwork Scholars interested in a broad perspective on human development and culture will benefit from this pioneering volume      Cultural Barriers to the Success of Foreign Media Content Ulrike Rohn,2009 What media content attracts audiences across cultures and what does not What does the cross cultural audience demand depend on The author takes a new approach to understanding cultural barriers to the success of foreign media content by analyzing the entry strategies of Time Warner Disney Viacom News Corporation and Bertelsmann with regard to China India and Japan in terms of their respective localization efforts In depth interviews with companies representatives give an insight into how they view the need for locally produced media in these countries The author develops and employs the Lacuna and Universal Model that provides a new theoretical classification of reasons for the cross cultural success and failure of media content as well as the Vertical Barrier Chain that locates cultural barriers in the wider context of legal political and economic barriers to successful entry into foreign media markets      The Penguin Book of Interviews Christopher Silvester,1993 A collection of interviews with Karl Marx Theodore Roosevelt Rudyard Kipling Christabel Pankhurst Sigmund Freud Adolf Hitler Benito Mussolini Joseph Stalin Mahatma Gandhi Marilyn Monroe Mao Tse tung Margaret Thatcher Arthur Miller John F Kennedy John Lennon Pablo Picasso Sigmund Freud Tolstoy Ibsen Oscar Wilde      Prospero's Son Seth Lerer,2013-04-05 The author uses his love of books as the backdrop for the story of his complicated relationship with his father      Interviews and Conversations with 20th-century Authors Writing in English Stan A.
