Corporate Formation Patricia A. Dris Bilman,1998-12 Patrick Suppes R. Bogdan,2012-12-06 The aim of this series is to inform both professional philosophers and a larger readership of social and natural scientists methodologists mathematicians students teachers publishers etc about what is going on who s who and who does what in contemporary philosophy and logic PROFILES is designed to present the research activity and the results of already outstanding personalities and schools and of newly emerging ones in the various fields of philosophy and logic There are many Festschrift

volumes dedicated to various philosophers There is the celebrated Library of Living Philosophers edited by P A Schilpp whose format influenced the present enterprise Still they can only cover very little of the contemporary philosophical scene Faced with a tremendous expansion of philosophical information and with an almost frightening division of labor and increasing specialization we need systematic and regular ways of keeping track of what happens in the profession PRO FILES is intended to perform such a function Each volume is devoted to one or several philosophers whose views and results are presented and discussed The profiled philosopher s will summarize and review his their own work in the main fields of significant contribution This work will be discussed and evaluated by invited contributors Relevant historical and or biographical data an up to date bibliography with short abstracts of the most important works and whenever possible references to significant reviews and discussions will also be included

Poor Queer Studies Matt Brim,2020-03-06 In Poor Queer Studies Matt Brim shifts queer studies away from its familiar sites of elite education toward poor and working class people places and pedagogies Brim shows how queer studies also takes place beyond the halls of flagship institutions in night school after a three hour commute in overflowing classrooms at no name colleges with no research budget without access to decent food with kids in tow in a state of homelessness Drawing on the everyday experiences of teaching and learning queer studies at the College of Staten Island Brim outlines the ways the field has been driven by the material and intellectual resources of those institutions that neglect and rarely serve poor and minority students By exploring poor and working class queer ideas and laying bare the structural and disciplinary mechanisms of inequality that suppress them Brim jumpstarts a queer class knowledge project committed to anti elitist and anti racist education Poor Queer Studies is essential for all of those who care about the state of higher education and building a more equitable academy
