Publishing the Woman Writer in England, 1670-1750 Leah Orr, 2023-06-14 In the late seventeenth and eighteenth centuries the woman writer emerged as a category of authorship in England Publishing the Woman Writer in England 1670 1750 seeks to uncover how exactly this happened and the ways publishers tried to market a new kind of author to the public Based on a survey of nearly seven hundred works with female authors from this period this book contends that authorship was constructed not always by the author for market appeal that biography often supported an authorial persona rooted in the genre of the work and that authorship was a role rather than an identity Through an emphasis on paratexts including prefaces title pages portraits and biographical notes Leah Orr analyses the representation of women writers in this period of intense change to make two related arguments First women writers were represented in a variety of ways as publishers sought successful models for a new kind of writer in print Second a new approach is needed for studying early women writers and others who occupy gaps in the historical record This book shows that a study of the material contexts of printed books is one way to work with the evidence that survives It therefore begins with a very familiar kind of author centric literary history and deconstructs it to conclude with a reception centered history that takes a more encompassing view of authorship In addition to analysis of many little known and anonymous authors case studies include Aphra Behn Catharine Trotter Cockburn Laetitia Pilkington Marie Catherine d Aulnoy and Anne Dacier

The Epistle on Legal Theory Muhammad ibn Idris al-Shafi'i, 2013-02-14 A modern translation of a foundational document of Islamic jurisprudence The Epistle on Legal Theory is the oldest surviving Arabic work on Islamic legal theory and the foundational document of Islamic jurisprudence Its author Muhammad ibn Idris al Shafi i d 204 820 was the eponym of the Shafi i school of legal thought one of the four rites in Sunni Islam This fascinating work offers the first systematic treatment in Arabic of key issues in Islamic legal thought These include a survey of the importance of Arabic as the language of revelation principles of textual interpretation to be applied to the Qur an and prophetic Traditions techniques for harmonizing apparently contradictory precedents legal epistemology rules of inference and discussions of when legal interpretation is required The author illustrates his theoretical claims with numerous examples drawn from nearly all areas of Islamic law including ritual law commercial law tort law and criminal law The text thus provides an important window into both Islamic law and legal thought in particular and early Islamic intellectual history in general The Arabic text has been established on the basis of the two most important critical editions and includes variants in the notes while the English text is a new translation by a leading scholar of Shafi i and his thought The Epistle on Legal Theory represents one of the earliest complete works on Islamic law one that is centrally important for the formation of Islamic legal thought and the Islamic legal tradition A bilingual Arabic English edition The Optical Papers of Isaac Newton , Documents of the English Reformation Gerald Bray,2019-01-31 The Reformation era has long been seen as crucial in developing the institutions and society of the English speaking peoples and study of the Tudor and Stuart era is at the heart of most courses in English history The influence of the Book of Common Prayer and the King James version of the Bible created the modern English language but until the publication of Gerald Bray s Documents of the English Reformation there had been no collection of contemporary documents available to show how these momentous social and political changes took place This comprehensive collection covers the period from 1526 to 1700 and contains many texts previously relatively inaccessible along with others more widely known The book also provides informative appendixes including comparative tables of the different articles and confessions showing their mutual relationships and dependence With fifty eight documents covering all the main Statutes Injunctions and Orders Prefaces to prayer books Biblical translations and other relevant texts this third edition of Documents of the English R Marx and Le Capital Marcello Musto,2022-12-16 Over the past few years Marx s Capital has received renewed academic and popular attention This volume is dedicated to the history of the making the theoretical evaluation and the analysis of the dissemination and reception of an almost unknown version of Capital the French translation published between 1872 and 1875 to which Marx participated directly In revising this version Marx decided to introduce some additions and modifications not hesitating to describe in the postscript Le Capital as a scientific value independent of the original To mark the 150th anniversary of the French translation of Capital 1872 2022 15 authors have helped to shed light on its history and main features as well as analysing its later fortunes in France and in the rest of the world They also provide a more exhaustive account of the ideas of the late Marx The book also includes a previously unpublished selection of 31 letters from correspondence of Karl Marx Maurice Lach tre Just Vernouillet and Friedrich Engels related to the making of Le Capital 10 of these letters by Marx were only recently rediscovered and are translated here for the first time in English This book is an indispensable source for academic communities who are increasingly interested in rediscovering Marx beyond 20th century Marxism Moreover it will be of appeal to graduate students as well as established scholars interested in French socialism and the history of the labour movement Medieval
