Historical Dictionary of Berlin
Ulrike Zitzlsperger, 2021-01-21 After World War II Berlin became one of the playgrounds of the Cold War the Berlin Wall made the division between East and West between capitalism and communism in 1961 highly visible though it did remove Berlin from front line politics East and West Berlin had turned into shop windows of ideologies West Berlin representing the lure of a market economy East Berlin the promise of socialism It is then fitting that the fall of the Wall in 1989 awarded Berlin such a prominent role It was here that the development after Reunification of East and West became a closely observed event and well beyond Germany Berlin appeared to represent fundamental developments throughout Europe at the time Today Berlin is the capital of reunified Germany and therefore one of the key political players in the European Union EU and it s now a desirable destination for young entrepreneurs The Historical Dictionary of Berlin contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 300 cross referenced entries on important personalities places institutions and events This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Berlin

the urban landscape of Berlin longtime home to nightingale colonies where the birds sing ever louder in order to be heard and invites us to listen in on their remarkable collaboration as birds and instruments riff off of each other's sounds Through dialogue travel records sonograms tours of Berlin's city parks and musings on the place animal music occupies in our collective imagination Rothenberg takes us on a quest for a new sonic alchemy a music impossible for any one species to make alone In the tradition of The Hidden Life of Trees and The Invention of Nature Rothenberg has written a provocative and accessible book to attune us ever closer to the natural environment around us The British National Bibliography

Media,2022-06-09T22:59:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 I catch the underground to Leipzig a couple of hours from Berlin It's snowing outside I move through the slush to where I know there are toilets The large woman in a purple apron and loud makeup at the bottom of the steps is guarding her stash of condoms and tissues and tampons 2 I can't smell anything anymore The train travels through northern Germany and I can feel myself falling asleep I remember my mother's moustache in the sun my adolescent hunger and the burnt chalk smell of tram brakes in summer 3 I visited Leipzig in 1994 five years after the Wall fell in November 1989 I was looking for the Stasi museum which had formerly been the Stasi offices The Stasi was the internal army by which the government kept control It knew everything about everyone using any means it chose 4 I visited the Runden Ecke the area where the Stasi headquarters was located The citizens committee that was in charge of the museum had mounted displays on cheap particleboard screens There were pictures of protesters occupying the building on December 4 1989
