School Libraries Matter Mirah J. Dow,2013-06-17 As school districts across the United States increasingly question the need for trained librarians this collection of research based evidence helps make the case for a state licensed librarian in every school While serving on the AASL legislation committee Mirah Dow recognized the urgent need to utilize research based evidence to prove school librarians are much more than an educational luxury This collection is the result It brings together school library research studies and findings from the past decade and draws connections to how they can be applied to situations and questions that occur in practice Taken as a whole the research underscores that state licensed school librarians are a necessity for 21st century students Chapters center on important research studies from the past decade that examine data and locate school libraries within operational contexts Methodologies are explained and findings summarized while notes clarify practical applications for school librarians Because each chapter includes a connection to broad realms of theoretical influence in the social sciences the work will also be relevant to educators and public policymakers arming them to better communicate research based links between investments in school libraries and student learning outcomes
