jurisprudence that is in many ways ill suited to a modern pluralistic society Much of what is taught in madrasas is outdated and unscientific the Deoband madrasa for instance still insists that the sun revolves around the earth and it has special seating arrangements for invisible jinns Yet obscurantism need not necessarily lead to militancy and hostility against others For instance in the decades leading to India s independence the Deobandis representing an extreme form of religious conservatism insisted on Hindu Muslim amity and a joint struggle for a free and united India It is this integrated view of madrasas and a more liberal and open understanding of Islam and indeed of all faiths which Yoginder Sikand seeks to promote for he believes this is one of the principal duties confronting committed believers if we have to learn to live together despite our differences Bastions of the Believers covers a wide range of thought provoking issues from the origins and development of the institution to critiques of madrasa curricula and the alleged links between madrasas and Islamist militancy making this a must read for all those interested in creating and preserving a just social order Newspaper

Schooling Islam Robert W. Hefner, Muhammad Qasim Zaman,2010-12-16 Since the Taliban seized Kabul in 1996 the public has grappled with the relationship between Islamic education and radical Islam Media reports tend to paint madrasas religious schools dedicated to Islamic learning as medieval institutions opposed to all that is Western and as breeding grounds for terrorists Others have claimed that without reforms Islam and the West are doomed to a clash of civilizations Robert Hefner and Muhammad Qasim Zaman bring together eleven internationally renowned scholars to examine the varieties of modern Muslim education and their implications for national and global politics The contributors provide new insights into Muslim culture and politics in countries as different as Morocco Egypt Pakistan India Indonesia Iran and Saudi Arabia They demonstrate that Islamic education is neither timelessly traditional nor medieval but rather complex evolving and diverse in its institutions and practices They reveal that a struggle for hearts and minds in Muslim lands started long before the Western media discovered madrasas and that Islamic schools remain on its front line Schooling Islam is the most comprehensive work available in any language on madrasas and Islamic education The Muslims of British India Hardy,1972-12-07 Dr Hardy has attempted a general history of British India s Muslims with a deeper perspective He shows how the interplay of memories of past Muslim supremacy Islamic religious aspirations and modern Muslim social and economic anxieties with the political needs of the alien ruling power gradually fostered a separate Muslim politics Dr Hardy argues contrary to the usual view that Muslims were able to take political initiatives because in the region of modern Uttar Pradesh British rule before 1857 and even the events of the Mutiny and Rebellion of 1857-8 had not been economically disastrous for most of them He stresses the force of religion in the growth of Muslim political separatism showing how the modernists kept the conversation among Muslims within Islamic postulates and underlining the role of the traditional scholars in heightening popular religious feeling Regarding any sense of Muslim political unity and nationhood as an outcome of the period of British rule Dr Hardy shows the limitations and frailty of that unity and nationhood by 1947
