1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space weapons and launch them?	That U.S. suspend the prohibition of launching nuclear weapons.	Not really.
2. Would anyone benefit from the launch and retrieval of satellites?	They would certainly gain useful information about our world. They would also learn military secrets.	They might realize that it was in their interest to learn about the U.S. satellite. They might learn about our defense, planned attack and conduct of forward (frontline) operations.
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really.	Some might be against because they would learn our secrets.
4. Would the U.S. believe that the Soviet Union would comply?	Yes. The government had no reason to believe that it would not comply.	Yes. American people were convinced we would not take a decision that was wrong.

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these (these) provisions. What would the program look like? What would it be?

Answer: Nothing. The program is the program. It is not the program. It is not the program. It is not the program.
