Handbook of Intercultural Training Dan Landis,Richard W. Brislin,2013-10-22 Handbook of Intercultural Training Volume II Issues in Training Methodology is a major attempt to describe critique and summarize the major known ways to provide cross cultural training The collection of essays discusses the stresses of intercultural encounter as well as how to reduce these This volume is divided in two parts The first part discusses context factors including stress factors in intercultural relations and aspects of organization effectiveness A cross cultural experience from the perspective of a program manager is presented as well as a situational analysis and designing a translator based training program where alternative designs are forwarded for trainers to use effectively in multicultural and multilingual environments The second part presents different methods of training Learning from sojourners and from individuals from various cultures results in different frameworks for interpreting cross cultural interactions Consultants advisors and experts may find themselves performing outside and beyond their home ground and social groups so training programs pertaining to their particular situation need to be addressed more profoundly The training program in race relations by the U S Department of Defense is reviewed and the effects of stereotyping people are discussed and considered as other factors in the preparation of training programs English is then examined as a tool for intercultural communication where aspects of intercultural training should be integrated This book is suitable for overseas workers foreign students foreign technical advisers diplomats immigrants and many others who are going to live and work and be exposed to other cultures Hearings United States.
