Schwartz,2021-02-09 From New York Times business reporter Nelson D Schwartz comes a bold and urgent investigation of division between the wealthy and the middle class n every arena of American life In nearly every realm of daily life from health care to education highways to home security there is an invisible velvet rope that divides how

Americans live On one side of the rope for a price red tape is cut lines are jumped appointments are secured and doors are opened On the other side middle and working class Americans fight to find an empty seat on the plane a place in line with their kids at the amusement park a college acceptance or a hospital bed We are all aware of the gap between the rich and everyone else but when we weren't looking business innovators stepped in to exploit it shifting services away from the masses and finding new ways to profit by serving the privileged And as decision makers and corporate leaders increasingly live on the friction free side of the velvet rope they are less inclined to change or even notice the obstacles everyone else must contend with Schwartz's must read book takes us on a behind the scenes tour of this new reality and shows the toll the velvet rope divide takes on society

Broken Contract Richard D. Kahlenberg, 1999 In 1986 70 percent of the first year class of Harvard Law School wanted to pursue careers in public interest law Ten years later the same percentage of this class was pursuing careers in private corporate firms How is it that these students began their careers interested in using law as a vehicle for social change but ended up in those very law firms most resistant to change How are law students able to reconcile liberal politics with careers in corporate law Richard D Kahlenberg's Broken Contract serves to warn prospective law students on the transformation that happens during the second and third years His memoir explores the intense competitiveness and insidious pressure leading to jobs that are lucrative prestigious and challenging but ultimately unsatisfying Though Broken Contract doesn't seek to convince every law student to go into public service Kahlenberg means to challenge and restructure our social institutions to make it easier to follow our impulses toward good instead of toward the goods

Leonidas Polk Huston Horn, 2019-02-19 Leonidas Polk was a graduate of West Point who resigned his commission to enter the Episcopal priesthood as a young man At first combining parish ministry with cotton farming in Tennessee Polk subsequently was elected the first bishop of the Louisiana Diocese whereupon he bought a sugarcane plantation and worked it with several hundred slaves owned by his wife Then in the 1850s he was instrumental in the founding of the University of the South in Sewanee Tennessee When secession led to war he pulled his diocese out of the national church and with other Southern bishops established what they styled the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Confederate States of America Polk then offered his military services to his friend and former West Point classmate Jefferson Davis and became a major general in the Confederate Army Polk was one of the more notable yet controversial generals of the war Recognizing his indispensable familiarity with the Mississippi Valley Confederate president Jefferson Davis commissioned his elevation to a high military position regardless of his lack of prior combat experience Polk commanded troops in the Battles of Belmont Shiloh Perryville Stones River Chickamauga and Meridian as well as several smaller engagements in Georgia leading up to Atlanta Polk is remembered for his bitter disagreements with his immediate superior the likewise controversial General Braxton Bragg of the Army of Tennessee In 1864 while serving under the command of General Joseph E Johnston Polk was killed by Union cannon fire as he observed General Sherman's emplacements on the hills outside Atlanta New York
