Capitalism--its Nature and its Replacement Graham Priest,2021-10-14 In this third decade of the 21st century deep problems plague our world Many people lack adequate nutrition health care and education because while there is enough wealth for everyone to meet these basic needs most of it is tightly controlled by precious few Global warming causes droughts floods rising sea levels and soon the forced migrations of millions of people In this book philosopher Graham Priest explains why we find ourselves in this situation defines the nature of the problems we face and explains how we might solve and move beyond our current state The first part of this book draws on Buddhist philosophy Marx s analysis of capitalism and their complementary role in explaining our present crisis and the events that led us here In the second part of the book Priest turns to the much harder question of how one might go about creating a more rational and humane world Here he draws again on Buddhist and Marxist ideas as well as some key aspects of anarchist thought His discussion of the need for bottom up control of production power ideology and an emerging awareness of our interdependence is a must read for anyone who cares about the future of the planet and our latent capacity to care for each other Key Features Explains the necessary elements of Marxist Buddhist and anarchist thought no background knowledge of political theory or Buddhism is necessary

Shows how Buddhist and Marxist notions of persons are complementary Convincingly shows capitalism s role in creating current socio economic problems Provides an analysis of the corrosiveness of top down power structures and why they should be eliminated in a post capitalist state Discusses capitalism s role in war environmental degradation and race and gender based oppression The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4 0 license

The Service-Dominant Logic of Marketing Robert F. Lusch, Stephen L. Vargo, 2014-12-18 Expanding on the editors award winning article Evolving to a New Dominant Logic for Marketing this book presents a challenging new paradigm for the marketing discipline This new paradigm is service oriented customer oriented relationship focused and knowledge based and places marketing once viewed as a support function central to overall business strategy Service dominant logic defines service as the application of competencies for the benefit of another entity and sees mutual service provision rather than the exchange of goods as the proper subject of marketing It moves the orientation of marketing from a market to philosophy where customers are promoted to targeted and captured to a market with philosophy where the customer and supply chain partners are collaborators in the entire marketing process The editors elaborate on this model through an historical analysis clarification and extension of service dominant logic and distinguished marketing thinkers then provide further insight and commentary The result is a more comprehensive and inclusive marketing theory that will challenge both current thinking and marketing practice

The Quest for Professionalism Georges Romme, 2016-01-29 Early pioneers in management thinking such as Henri Fayol and Peter Drucker conceived of management as a science based professional activity that serves the greater good Today however many organizations are managed by people demonstrating anything but professionalism resulting in mismanagement of risks as well as a one dimensional focus on short term results The key thesis in this book is that The Quest for Professionalism must be revitalized because the societal costs and damage caused by managerial amateurism are huge The book is about how to address this grand challenge for example by exploring whether and how a shared professional purpose and a professional body of knowledge can be developed While most work in this area has previously focused on management education The Quest for Professionalism adopts an inside out approach implying management scholarship is the driving force behind any intrinsic transformation of the profession at large Without management scholars playing an active role in advancing science based professionalism in the mould of engineering and medicine any attempt to professionalize management practice is doomed to fail Moreover Georges Romme demonstrates the professionalization quest has to move away from the idea of management being confined to a few people at the top toward management as a technology for distributing power and leadership throughout the organization
