Neville,2021-01-18 Fueling Resistance examines conflicts over development projects in energy frontiers places in the world far from sites of economic and political power that are seen as potential suppliers of new energy commodities Neville looks at biofuels in Kenya and fracking in the Canadian Yukon and shows how organizers connect specific energy projects to broader issues of globalization climate food water and justice Taken together the intersecting elements of the political economy of energy finance ownership and trade relations shape the contentious politics of biofuels and fracking at both local and global scales and help explain how and why particular mechanisms of contention emerge at different times and places

In Local Hands Lisa K. Parshall, 2023-03-01 In Local Hands examines the contemporary post 2010 village government dissolution movement and renewed state level effort to encourage local government restructuring against the backdrop of evolving statutory authority growing fiscal pressures and state incentives Drawing on multiple disciplines Lisa K Parshall explores the contemporary village dissolution movement in New York State the impetus behind these reforms and the impact of the state level policies and incentives that are driving a growing number of local communities to consider local government reorganization through the elimination of villages as governing entities Parshall explores the social political and narrative contexts in which these community level debates occur providing us with a study of local democracy in action and of the power of local control over the creation and dissolution of local governing entities With its dual within and cross case study focus on New York State villages In Local Hands is both timeless and timely providing valuable contributions to the study of municipal development and reorganization
