Example (1) given credit

Although not consistent with the recommendations for including these more specialized areas, a thesis candidate included chapters in "The non-representing student population" and "Student representation in study in history and law" respectively. He argued: "I have argued that the study of the representative population from the past is not only necessary, it is also the best way to study."

1. "I understand that the student population from the past is not only necessary, it is also the best way to study. I understand that the student population from the past is not only necessary, it is also the best way to study."
