97 Capacity Building for Information Technologies in Education in Developing Countries from which this publication derives was an invited IFIP working conference sponsored by Working Groups in secondary WG 3 1 elementary WG 3 5 and vocational and professional WG 3 4 education under the auspices of IFIP Technical Committee for Education TC3 The conference was held in Harare Zimbabwe 25th 29th August 1997 CapBIT 97 was the first time that the IFIP Technical Committee for Education had held a conference in a developing country When the Computer Society of Zimbabwe offered to host the event we determined that the location and conference topic reflect the importance of issues facing countries at all stages of developmen especially Information Technologies IT development Information Technologies have become within a short time one of the basic building blocks of modem industrial society Understanding IT and mastering basic skills and concepts of IT are now regarded as part of the core education of all people around the world alongside reading and writing IT now permeates the business environment and underpins the success of modem corporations as well as providing government with cost effective civil service systems At the same time the tools and technologies of IT are of value in the process of learning and in the organisation and management of learning institutions Entrepreneurship Mario Franco,2016-11-09 Entrepreneurship has been seen as a phenomenon allowing economic development job creation increased productivity and innovation but many studies do not include the causes of these events Consequently the objective of this book is to fill this gap by combining several studies from more practice oriented perspectives The various chapters presented here follow several approaches which researchers explore in different contexts and link to specific experiences in entrepreneurship This book intends to contribute to better understanding of the phenomenon of entrepreneurship and innovation and to show how these business practices can stimulate economic development in various countries and regions worldwide Living with
