Zimsec November 2014 Accounting Paper 2 3:

Economics and Political Implications of International Financial Reporting Standards Uchenna, Efobi, Nnadi, Matthias, Tanna, Sailesh, Iyoha, Francis, 2016-03-08 International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS are internationally recognized financial reporting guidelines regulated by the International Accounting Standards Board IASB to ensure that uniformity exists in the global financial system. In addition to regulating financial reporting, the adoption of IFRS has been shown to impact the flow of foreign capital and trade. Economics and Political Implications of International Financial Reporting Standards focuses on the consequences and determinants of the adoption of the International Financial Reporting Standard IFRS which has remained a top issue in International Accounting. This timely publication brings to the forefront issues related to the political and economic influences and impacts of IFRS in addition to providing a platform for further research in this area. Policy makers, academics, researchers, graduate level students and professionals across the fields of management, economics, finance, international relations and political science will find this publication pertinent to furthering their understanding of financial reporting at the global level.

Sustainable Finance and Business in Sub-Saharan Africa David Mhlanga, Mufaro Dzingirai, 2024-12-13 In the 21st century the imperative for sustainable development has assumed a paramount role echoing the pressing global concerns surrounding environmental degradation, social inequalities and economic challenges. Within this context Sub-Saharan Africa emerges as a region of particular significance where the pursuit of sustainability holds immense promise and relevance. Despite being endowed with abundant natural resources and a vibrant entrepreneurial spirit Sub-Saharan Africa grapples with enduring issues of poverty, inequality and environmental harm. This book explores the innovative paradigms of sustainable finance and business within Sub-Saharan Africa exploring how novel approaches can effectively tackle the region's most pressing challenges while simultaneously catalyzing economic growth and societal progress. The chapters presented here comprise a diverse array of cutting edge financial strategies, circular economy initiatives, technological advancements and business models that are revolutionizing sustainable development across the continent. Sub-Saharan Africa, characterized by its youthful demographic and rapidly expanding economies, is poised for transformation. Yet it confronts formidable obstacles in the form of poverty, inequality and environmental degradation. The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) offer a comprehensive framework to address these issues. However, realizing these objectives requires innovative solutions that can surmount the unique constraints of the region. Fortunately, Sub-Saharan Africa is a crucible of innovation with a growing community of entrepreneurs, financiers and decision makers committed to sustainable development. Initiatives promoting circular economies are reducing waste and enhancing resource efficiency while financial instruments like impact investing and green bonds are attracting new streams of funding. Simultaneously, technological breakthroughs such as mobile payment systems and renewable energy solutions are expanding access to essential services and driving economic expansion. Despite these encouraging advancements Sub Saharan Africa stands at a pivotal juncture in its journey towards sustainability This book with a focus on practical and scalable solutions endeavors to showcase the most promising and successful models that can propel sustainable development across the region Climate Change 2014 - Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability: Part B: Regional Aspects: Volume 2, Regional Aspects Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC),2014-12-29 This latest Fifth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC will again form the standard reference for all those concerned with climate change and its consequences including students researchers and policy makers in environmental science meteorology climatology biology ecology atmospheric chemistry and environmental policy Climate Change 2014 - Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability: Regional Aspects Christopher B. Politics at a Distance from the State Lucien van der Walt,Kirk Helliker,2022-08-23 For decades most anti capitalist and anti imperialist movements identified radical transformation with capturing state power The collapse of these statist projects from the 1970s led to a global crisis of left and working class politics But crisis has also opened space for rediscovering alternative society centered anti capitalist modes of bottom up change operating at a distance from the state These have registered important successes in practice such as the Zapatistas in Mexico and Rojava in Syria They have been a key influence on movements from Occupy in United States to the landless in Latin America to anti austerity struggles in Europe and Asia to urban movements in Africa Their lineages include anarchism syndicalism autonomist Marxism philosophers like Alain Badiou and radical popular praxis This path breaking volume recovers this understanding of social transformation long side lined but now resurgent like a seed in the soil that keeps breaking through and growing It provides case studies with reference to South Africa and Zimbabwe and includes a dossier of key texts from a century of anarchists syndicalists insurgent unionists and anti apartheid activists in South Africa Originating in an African summit of radical academics struggle veterans and social movements the book includes a preface from John Holloway Higher Education, Community Engagement and Entrepreneurship in Southern Africa I. G. Govender,2021-02-24 This volume explores the pressing issues of entrepreneurship education and development in Southern Africa It discusses the various roles of higher education institutions in enhancing entrepreneurship in localised communities and provides a systematic solution for improving the Southern African economy by realising the importance of empowering the youth with entrepreneurial skills In addition successful development requires effective policies and contemporary approaches to both community engagement and entrepreneurship management The book uses different Southern African case studies to discuss the various issues and innovations in entrepreneurship in the country Still Counting Marilyn Waring,2018-12-06 Underneath the numbers a philosophical judgement is always being made based on values not facts Thirty years ago Marilyn Waring s groundbreaking book Counting for Nothing was released Waring explained through meticulous economic analysis how the success of the global economy rests on women s unpaid work Counting for Nothing became a phenomenon it was read and discussed around the world and even made into a film Today many people hope that the shift to a wellbeing approach moving beyond narrow economic indicators when assessing New Zealand s progress will mean women s work is finally valued fairly But what does Marilyn Waring make of it This short book provides an essential assessment of wellbeing economics from a leading feminist scholar

Corporate Governance and IFRS in the Middle East Muath Abdelqader, Tamer K. Darwish, Khalil Nimer, 2022-12-14 The rapid globalization of capital markets has increased attention toward examining the quality of the disclosure practices implemented by companies as internationalization and globalization are the most important motives of the harmonization of financial statements preparation and presentation Given the expansion of trade and the openness to foreign capital markets investment decisions became not limited only for local users but also international users may need to access the financial information The issuance of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS to be used throughout the world aims to improve the comparability and understandability of financial statements and hence to enhance investment decisions through helping investors across the borders to invest in multinational companies Although fluid and under developed institutional arrangements remain central features of emerging markets ensuring effective corporate governance mechanisms would indeed support companies in complying with IFRS the latter imposes a challenge for companies operating in emerging markets This book evaluates the differences in the level of compliance with IFRS across the GCC states exploring the impact of corporate governance on the level of compliance with IFRS and presenting an empirical analysis of companies across the GCC It makes an important contribution by providing a detailed empirical analysis of the interplay between corporate governance and IFRS in emerging market setting and highlights the way for future research It will provide international business management and accounting and finance students and senior practitioners with a completely new and updated guide to the work in the field of corporate governance and IFRS compliance in emerging markets

The Politics of the Dead in Zimbabwe, 2000-2020 Joost Fontein, 2022 Innovative and challenging study that provides fresh insights on the anthropology of death and postcolonial politics In 1898 just before she was hanged for rebelling against colonial rule Charwe Nyakasikana spirit medium of the legendary ancestor Ambuya Nehanda famously prophesised that my bones will rise again A century later bones bodies and human remains have come to occupy an increasingly complex place in Zimbabwe s postcolonial milieu From ancestral bones rising again in the struggle for independence and later land to resurfacing bones of unsettled war dead and from the troubling decaying remains of post independence gukurahundi massacres to the leaky tortured bodies of recent election violence human materials are intertwined in postcolonial politics in ways that go far beyond yet necessarily implicate contests over memory commemoration and the representation of the past

In this book Joost Fontein examines the complexities of human remains in Zimbabwe's politics of the dead. Challenging and innovative, he takes us beyond current scholarship on memory, commemoration, and the changing significance of traditional death practices to examine the political implications of human remains as material substances, as duplicitous rumours, and as returning spirits. Linking the indeterminacy of human substances to the productive but precarious uncertainties of rumours and spirits, the book points to how the incompleteness of death is politically productive and ultimately derives from the problematic, entangled excessivities of human material and immaterial existence, and is deeply intertwined with the stylistics of postcolonial power and politics. Joost Fontein is Professor of Anthropology, University of Johannesburg. He was previously Director of the British Institute in Eastern Africa and Lecturer in Social Anthropology at the University of Edinburgh. His books include Remaking Mutirikwi Landscape: Water and Belonging (James Currey, 2015), shortlisted for the African Studies Association 2016 Herskovits Prize, Southern Africa (South Africa, Namibia, Lesotho, Swaziland, and Botswana), University of Johannesburg Press.

A Non-Technical Guide to International Accounting Roger Hussey, Audra Ong, 2019-11-08

Business has become more international and more complex. Whether you are a manager, a student, or someone generally interested in corporate financial information, you want information and you want to understand that information. Companies in all countries are required to generate financial information, if for no other reason than to settle their tax obligations. If you are interested in the larger companies, such as those listed on a stock exchange, they must make financial information public, and the nature and type of that information is strictly regulated. Companies must comply with accounting standards. Many countries use the International Accounting Standards issued by the IFRS Foundation. This is a not-for-profit international organization that has developed a single set of high-quality global accounting standards. These standards can be complex, but this book explains clearly the main requirements.

Handbook of Missing Persons Stephen J. Morewitz, Caroline Sturdy Colls, 2016-12-19

This ambitious multidisciplinary volume surveys the science, forensics, politics, and ethics involved in responding to missing persons cases. International experts across the physical and social sciences offer data, case examples, and insights on best practices, new methods, and emerging specialties that may be employed in investigations. Topics such as secondary victimization, privacy issues, DNA identification, and the challenges of finding victims of war and genocide highlight the uncertainties and complexities surrounding these cases, as well as possibilities for location and recovery. This diverse presentation will assist professionals in accessing new ideas, collaborating with colleagues, and handling missing persons cases with greater efficiency and potentially greater certainty. Among the Handbook's topics: A profile of missing persons; some key findings for police officers; missing persons investigations and identification issues of scale; infrastructure and political will; pregnancy and parenting among runaway and homeless young women; estimating the appearance of the missing; forensic age progression in the search for missing persons; the use of trace evidence in missing persons investigations; the investigation of historic missing persons cases; genocide and conflict time; human rights abuses.
