Sizonqoba! Outliving AIDS in Southern Africa Ngcaweni, Busani, 2017-04-11 The aim of this book is to better understand the phenomenon of HIV in a country that has faced the fullest might of the disease and yet after first faltering has made more progress than any other country in the world in its response to HIV It aims to reflect the complexity of this narrative and the range of widely differing insights by featuring what is likely the largest number of contributors in a single publication on the subject in South Africa as well as a full spectrum of specialised areas ranging from high end science to personal reflections Social Computing, Behavioral-Cultural Modeling and Prediction William G. Kennedy, Nitin Agarwal, Shanchieh Jay Yang, 2014-03-14 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 7th International Conference on Social Computing Behavioral Cultural Modeling and Prediction SBP 2014 held in Washington DC USA in April 2014 The 51 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 101 submissions The SBP conference provides a forum for researchers and practitioners from academia industry and government agencies to exchange ideas on current challenges in social computing behavioral cultural modeling and prediction and on state of the art methods and best practices being adopted to tackle these challenges The topical areas addressed by the papers are social and behavioral sciences health sciences military science and information science The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja, Meshach B. Ogunniyi, 2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next Decolonising Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) in an Age of Technocolonialism Nhemachena, Artwell, Hlabangane, Nokuthula, Matowanyika, Joseph Z. Z., 2020-03-02 Positing the notions of coloniality of ignorance and geopolitics of ignorance as central to coloniality and colonisation this book examines how colonialists socially produced ignorance among colonised indigenous peoples so as to render them docile and manageable Dismissing colonial descriptions of indigenous people as savages illiterate irrational prelogical mystical primitive barbaric and backward the book argues that imperialists colonialists contrived geopolitics of ignorance wherein indigenous regions were forced to become ignorant hence containable and manageable in the imperial world Questioning the provenance of modernist epistemologies the book asks why Eurocentric scholars only contest the provenance of indigenous knowledges artefacts and scientific collections Interrogating why empire sponsors the decolonisation of universities epistemologies in indigenous territories while resisting the repatriation restitution of indigenous artefacts the book also wonders why Westerners who still retain indigenous artefacts skulls and skeletons in their museums universities and private collections do not consider such artefacts and skulls to be colonising them as well The book is valuable to scholars and activists in the fields of anthropology museums and heritage studies science and technology studies decoloniality policymaking education politics sociology and development studies African Indigenous Knowledge and the Sciences Gloria Emeagwali,Edward Shizha,2016-07-08 This book is an intellectual journey into epistemology pedagogy physics architecture medicine and metallurgy The focus is on various dimensions of African Indigenous Knowledge AIK with an emphasis on the sciences an area that has been neglected in AIK discourse The authors provide diverse views and perspectives on African indigenous scientific and technological knowledge that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics scholars students development agents and policy makers in both governmental and non governmental organizations and enable critical and alternative analyses and possibilities for understanding science and technology in an African historical and contemporary context The Narrative of Mathematics Teachers ,2018-11-26 The issue of mathematics teaching and its impact on learners attainments in this subject has continuously been on the public agenda The anthology of chapters in this book consists of varied up to date studies of some of the best mathematics education researchers and mathematics teaching experts exploring the varied aspects of this essential The book depicts the elementary school mathematics teachers world while relating to three aspects which comprise the professional environment of mathematics teachers Teachers education and teachers knowledge Teaching and Teachers personality The chapters are written on a level which addresses and might interest a wide readership researchers in service teachers pre service teachers parents and learners Information and Communications Technology in STEM Education Umesh Ramnarain,Mdutshekelwa Ndlovu,2023-07-21 This timely book presents the latest scholarly research on the integration of Information Communications Technology ICT for enhanced STEM education in African schools and universities Featuring critical discussion and illustration of key data led arguments this volume gives a comprehensive picture of the breadth complexity and diversity of issues present in different African countries It highlights a diverse range of topics such as approaches to ICT integration the use of digital technologies to support inquiry based learning teacher development and contextual issues in ICT integration for STEM education Chapters feature contributions and shared experiences from prominent science educators and researchers from across African regions and demonstrate findings and reflections on emerging trends pedagogical innovations and research informed practices on ICT integration in STEM education Offering cutting edge research on STEM and digital education in Africa the book will appeal to researchers postgraduate students and scholars in the fields of STEM education ICT education digital education and pedagogy The African Mother Tongue and Mathematical Ideas Abdul Karim Bangura,2020-06-02 This book by renowned scholar Dr Abdul Karim Bangura combines linguistics and mathematics to show how and why African centred mathematical ideas can be a driving force in Africa's development efforts. Bangura explores the concept that Africa has been the centre of the History of Mathematics for thousands of years as the civilizations that emerged across the continent developed contributions which would enrich both ancient and modern understanding of nature through mathematics. However, scholars and other professionals working in the field of mathematics education in Africa have identified a plethora of issues in carrying out their tasks. This is highlighted by one of the most compelling arguments in the book which is that a major reason for these problems is the fact that the African mother tongues have been greatly neglected in the teaching of mathematics in the continent. Bangura asserts that a change has to be made in order for Africa to benefit from the exceptional opportunities mathematics offer, showing that even if there is a great body of work connecting linguistics and mathematics, few analyses have been performed on the link between African languages and mathematics and the ones that have been made are not theoretically grounded on linguistics. Thus, the book begins by identifying the objects of study of linguistics and mathematics and delineates which ones they have in common. Next, since the object of study of linguistics is language, the nine design features of language are employed to examine each of the objects as it pertains to African languages. After that, mathematical ideas of sustainability and those of tipping points are suggested as means to help Africa's development efforts.

Accountability in education: meeting our commitments UNESCO, 2017-10-30. The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report (GEM Report) presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals. With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school, it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals. The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs. Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results-oriented value for money, countries are searching for solutions. Increased accountability often tops the list. The 2017-8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education. It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive, equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all. The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility. While governments have primary responsibility, all actors—schools, teachers, parents, students, international organizations, private sector providers, civil society and the media—have a role in improving education systems. The report emphasizes the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used. It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions. In an era of multiple accountability tools, the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not.
