Southern Africa Godfrey Kanyenze,Herbert Jauch,2016-12-14 The dawn of the twenty first century heralded an apparent change of fortunes for most sub Saharan African economies with annual growth averaging over 5% for fifteen years However this was not accompanied by structural transformation poverty food insecurity unemployment and inequality persist Structural transformation has not been and indeed cannot be delivered by market forces and neo liberal economic policies it requires a state committed to development and to achieving it in a democratic way To what extent do the countries of Southern Africa exhibit the characteristics of such a developmental state What steps if any do they need to take in order to become one The book answers the questions with respect to South Africa Botswana Namibia Zimbabwe Angola and Malawi Godfrey Kanyenze and his colleagues have assembled a distinguished team of writers to take the temperature of the regional political economy and chart a path for its future development Build Mark Katz,2020 Build The Power of Hip Hop Diplomacy in a Divided World explores the inescapable tensions and ambiguities in the relationship between art and the state revealing the ethical complexities that lurk behind what might seem mere goodwill diplomatic tours Author Mark Katz makes the case that hip hop can be a valuable positive and effective means to promote meaningful and productive international relations between people and nations Higher Education, Youth and Migration in Contexts of Disadvantage Faith Mkwanzani,2018-11-30 This book explores the lives experiences and the formation of higher educational aspirations among marginalised migrant youth in South Africa Using a case study based in Johannesburg the author illuminates their voices in order to demonstrate the reality faced by these young people in the context of migration to the Global South Within the complex landscape of global and African migration this book draws on detailed narratives to understand the conditions under which aspirations for higher education are or are not developed In doing so the author highlights the value of understanding individual lives experiences and opportunities from a human development point of view capturing the multidimensional disadvantages experienced by migrants in a balanced intersectional manner Balancing empirical data with theoretical analysis this volume tells a rich nuanced story about marginalised migrant youth an essential work for understanding the conditions necessary for such youth to live valuable lives in both local and international contexts This book will appeal to students and scholars of youth migration aspiration and educational opportunities particularly within the Global South A thriving agricultural sector in a changing climate De Pinto, Alessandro, Ulimwengu, John M., 2017-10-25 Given its heavy reliance on rainfed agriculture and projected climatic and weather changes SSA faces multidimensional challenges in ensuring food and nutrition security as well as preserving its ecosystems In this regard climate smart agriculture CSA can play an important role in addressing the interlinked challenges of food security and climate change CSA practices aim to achieve three closely related objectives sustainably increase agricultural productivity adapt to climate change and mitigate greenhouse gas GHG emissions The CSA objectives directly contribute to achieving the 2014 Malabo Declaration goals which include commitments to 1 end hunger in Africa by 2025 2 halve poverty by 2025 through inclusive agricultural growth and transformation and 3 enhance the resilience of livelihoods and production systems to climate variability and other related risks These linkages underscore the importance of including CSA in country and regional plans to achieve overarching development objectives in Africa in particular food security and poverty reduction The 2016 Annual Trends and Outlook Report ATOR examines the contribution of CSA to meeting Malabo Declaration goals by taking stock of current knowledge on the effects of climate change reviewing existing evidence of the effectiveness of various CSA strategies and discussing examples of CSA based practices and tools for developing evidence based policies and programs China in Africa Suisheng Zhao, 2017-10-02 China's expansion and growing influence in Africa is arguably the most remarkable global political and economic development in the 21st century China's foray into Africa started in the late 1990s propelled by its desire to obtain new sources of raw materials and energy for its economic growth as well as new markets for its manufactured goods While China's no political strings attached policy proves attractive to many of African leaders China has been criticized as neo colonialist interested solely in stripping Africa of its mineral wealth without proper environmental or social precautions This book addresses the controversy by exploring the motivations and practices of China's African engagement providing a comprehensive account of the intensified interactions between China and African states The first part examines the debate surrounding whether China has pursued a neo colonialist path in Africa by looking at the perception of China by the locals and the challenges that the intensified relationship has posed for African states The second part analyses China's strategic motivations to see if Beijing has acquired sustaining power and influence in Africa in competition with the West The third part focuses on economic and business practices of Chinese companies in Africa as well as China Africa trade patterns The articles in this book were originally published in special issues of the Journal of Contemporary China Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2016: Office of the Secretary; Natural Resources Conservation Service; Marketing and regulatory programs; Food and Drug Administration United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies, 2015 Fireworks Dalia Taha, 2015-04-22 There's no one in the streets but us You run that way and I'll run this way Whoever gets back to the front door first without getting shot wins In a Palestinian town eleven year old Lubna and twelve year old Khalil are playing on the empty stairwell in their apartment block As the siege intensifies outside fear for their safety becomes as crippling as the conflict itself Dalia Taha's play offers a new way of seeing how war fractures childhood Fireworks Al ab Nariya is part of International Playwrights A Genesis Foundation Project and received its world premiere at the Royal Court Theatre London on 12 February 2015 The COVID-19 - Health Systems Nexus Lazarus Chapungu, David Chikodzi, Kaitano Dube, 2023-01-12 This contributed volume based on papers presented at a conference held in Zimbabwe in mid 2021 examines the nexus between Zimbabwe's health systems and the COVID 19 pandemic The collection of papers contained here is diverse and covers topics from how health systems handled or didn't handle surges to health communication during a global pandemic to economic and environmental impacts of the pandemic in Zimbabwe Editors Drs Edward Kunonga Lazarus Chapungu and David Chikodzi set the stage for these pieces with an introductory chapter that describes the health systems in Zimbabwe and offers an overview of the effects of the pandemic felt in the country Their concluding chapter synthesizes trends and issues emerging from the chapters and recommends policy directions regarding health management systems in Zimbabwe and elsewhere in the face of this and future pandemics Zimbabwe: Agricultural R&D Indicators Factsheet Gao, Lang, Chipunza, Percy, Beintema, Nienke, 2017-06-25 This country factsheet presents key agricultural R D indicators in a highly accessible visual display The publication also features a more in depth analysis of some of the key challenges that the country's agricultural R D system is facing and the policy options to address these challenges The Oxford Handbook of United Nations Peacekeeping Operations Joachim Koops, Norrie MacQueen, Thierry Tardy, Paul D. Williams, 2015-07-09 The Oxford Handbook on United Nations Peacekeeping Operations presents an innovative authoritative and accessible examination and critique of the United Nations peacekeeping operations Since the late 1940s but particularly since the end of the cold war peacekeeping has been a central part of the core activities of the United Nations and a major process in global security governance and the management of international relations in general The volume will present a chronological analysis designed to provide a comprehensive perspective that highlights the evolution of UN peacekeeping and offers a detailed picture of how the decisions of UN bureaucrats and national governments on the set up and design of particular UN missions were and remain influenced by the impact of preceding operations The volume will bring together leading scholars and senior practitioners in order to provide overviews and analyses of all 65 peacekeeping operations that have been carried out by the United Nations since 1948 As with all Oxford Handbooks the volume will be agenda setting in importance providing the authoritative point of reference for all those working throughout international relations and beyond Inventing the New Dispensation in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Lovemore Togarasei, Joram Tarusarira, 2024-11-14 How does a regime whose members have been actively involved in the previous one appropriate and deploy religious ideas and rhetoric to cast itself as born again and attractive Exploring intersections between politics religion and economics this book examines invention of Zimbabwe's New

Dispensation the regime of Emmerson D Mnangagwa and how it has aimed to separate itself from the previous regime of Robert G Mugabe Utilizing the concept of invention contributors reflect on how Mnangagwa and his publicists deploy religious ideas concepts and rhetoric in the quest for legitimacy in a heavily contested political field The book also reflects on the ways opposing political actors have utilized the same template in their quests to secure power The contributors interrogate the use of time theological ideas and religious practices to separate Mnangagwa s regime from Mugabe s This book provides insight into how religious rhetoric is used not only to gain but also to contest legitimacy in Zimbabwe s political sphere Africa Bounces Back Victor Kgomoewana,2021-07-15 It has been nearly ten years since Africa is Open for Business was first published and Victor Kgomoewana showcased the continent as a place of opportunity and fertile ground for business But if recent headlines are anything to go by then the current outlook seems dim As a result of corruption the deepening infrastructure backlog including resistance to 4IR developments and the current global pandemic it seems the continent is fast running out of time However when asked if Africa is still open for business Kgomoewana confidently says It depends on your perspective Africa Bounces Back draws on case studies that look at the continent s response to COVID 19 and where it might leave us how the shift from globalisation to more nationalist politics could impact the region amidst growing global terror and the tipping point of the African Continental Free Trade Area implementations Kgomoewana also revisits previous case studies including Ethiopian Airlines China s ongoing involvement in Africa and the new normal innovations that have caused much needed disruptions in their sectors Africa Bounces Back is a reminder that even in the mist of crisis a resilient spirit decisive action and the correct perspective can lead to progress and ultimately success
