Tackling Trauma Paul A. Barker, 2019-03-14 Trauma is a universal phenomenon that can be caused by international catastrophes or individual personal tragedy Trauma is also a severely neglected topic in Christian literature and while it can challenge someone's faith in Christ God and the ministry of his Word is central to dealing with the emotional and psychological impact of trauma By his Spirit through his Word and through his church God is available to minister to people suffering from trauma and bring transformation to their lives In this book a team of experienced and informed Christian professionals from around the world promote a deep biblical response to trauma through clinical and theological wisdom and their first hand experience of witnessing and experiencing trauma The contributions provide practical responses to people's trauma rather than mere descriptions of the problems making it an ideal resource for pastors counsellors humanitarian workers and students

Bridging the Academia Industry Divide Wilson R. Nyemba, Charles Mbohwa, Keith F. Carter, 2021-05-12 This book is the result of years of research following a realization of the mismatch of engineering skills produced by universities and those that industry required based on the situation in Sub Saharan Africa equally applicable to other regions in Africa and indeed worldwide The book is meant to assist engineering academics and engineers in industry to build capacity and cope with the dynamic trends in technology brought on by the 4th Industrial Revolution and to prepare for the 5th Industrial Revolution an era predicted to be dominated by critical and system thinkers with creative and innovative skills as basic necessities The book is also useful for policy making researchers in academia industrial and public sector researchers and implementers in governments that provide required funding for the development of human resources and skills The book primarily consists of the novel research and innovation approaches of modelling and building systems thinking sub models which were ultimately integrated into the Universal Systems Thinking UST model aimed at improving the quality of engineers and engineering practice The initiatives in this book include strategies for bridging the gap between industry and academia through systems thinking research The book provides information on how to model simulate adjust and implement integrated systems thinking approaches to engineering education and training for capacity building and sustainability The book also covers approaches to address research gaps and mismatch of skills while capitalizing on the successes of several projects carried out and supported by the Royal Academy of Engineering over the years Making Politics in Zimbabwe's Second Republic Gordon Moyo, Kirk Helliker, 2023-05-16 The book provides a fresh and innovative interpretation of the new government of Zimbabwe led by Emmerson Mnangagwa which emerged in late 2017 after the downfall of Robert Mugabe. It demonstrates the contradictory character of the Mnangagwa government involving both continuities and discontinuities in relation to Mugabe's regime. The temptation amongst Zimbabwean scholars has been to focus on the continuities and to dismiss the significance of any discontinuities notably reform measures. This book adopts an alternative approach by identifying and focusing specifically on the existence of a formative project of the Mnangagwa's Second Republic further analysing its political significance as well as risks and limitations. While doing so the book covers topics such as reform measures reconciliation transitional justice corruption the media agriculture devolution and the debt crisis as well as health and education. Discussing the limitations of these different reform measures the book highlights that any scholarly failure to identify the risks of the project leads to an incomplete understanding of what constitutes the Mnangagwa's Second Republic. The book appeals to students scholars and researchers of Zimbabwean and African studies political science and international relations as well as policymakers interested in a better understanding of political reform processes.

Sustainable Finance and Business in Sub-Saharan Africa David Mhlanga, Mufaro Dzingirai, 2024-12-13 In the 21st century the imperative for sustainable development has assumed a paramount role echoing the pressing global concerns surrounding environmental degradation social inequalities and economic challenges. Within this context Sub-Saharan Africa emerges as a region of particular significance where the pursuit of sustainability holds immense promise and relevance. Despite being endowed with abundant natural resources and a vibrant entrepreneurial spirit Sub-Saharan Africa grapples with enduring issues of poverty inequality and environmental harm. This book explores the innovative paradigms of sustainable finance and business within Sub-Saharan Africa exploring how novel approaches can effectively tackle the region's most pressing challenges while simultaneously catalyzing economic growth and societal progress. The chapters presented here comprise a diverse array of cutting edge financial strategies circular economy initiatives technological advancements and business models that are revolutionizing sustainable development across the continent. Sub-Saharan Africa characterized by its youthful demographic and rapidly expanding economies is poised for transformation. Yet it confronts formidable obstacles in the form of poverty inequality and environmental degradation. The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) offer a comprehensive framework to address these issues. However realizing these objectives requires innovative solutions that can surmount the unique constraints of the region. Fortunately Sub-Saharan Africa is a crucible of innovation with a growing community of entrepreneurs financiers and decision makers committed to sustainable development. Initiatives promoting circular economies are reducing waste and enhancing resource efficiency while financial instruments like impact investing and green bonds are attracting new streams of funding. Simultaneously technological breakthroughs such as mobile payment systems and renewable energy solutions are expanding access to essential services and driving economic expansion. Despite these encouraging advancements, Sub-Saharan Africa stands at a pivotal juncture in its journey towards sustainability. This book, with a focus on practical and scalable solutions, endeavors to showcase the most promising and successful models that can propel sustainable development across the region.

Public Budgeting in African Nations Peter Fuseini

Haruna, Shikha Vyas-Doorgapersad, 2016-04-14. Public Budgeting in African Nations aims to provide usable budgeting and fiscal policy management information to development practitioners interested in improving the performance of governments in the context of good governance. It shares regional and cross-cultural experiences with international audiences and gives reflective attention to comparative budgeting and fiscal policy management. With a promising economic and fiscal forecast, such information is timely for international development practitioners and for scholars and researchers interested in advancing development management. This book adopts an interdisciplinary pragmatic approach to analyze and present research findings on public budgeting as a sustainable development tool. The central argument is that development practice will benefit from a bottom-up decentralized approach to budgeting and fiscal policy management involving national, sub-national, and civil society institutions. From this perspective, a balanced budget should draw from and reflect values and priorities across the full spectrum of social and political life.

Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms

Maxim Bolt, 2015-09-25. During the Zimbabwean crisis, millions crossed through the apartheid-era border fence searching for ways to make ends meet. Maxim Bolt explores the lives of Zimbabwean migrant labourers, of settled black farm workers and their dependants, and of white farmers and managers as they intersect on the border between Zimbabwe and South Africa. Focusing on one farm, this book investigates the role of a hub of wage labour in a place of crisis. A close ethnographic study, it addresses the complex shifting labour and life conditions in northern South Africa's agricultural borderlands. Underlying these challenges are the Zimbabwean political and economic crisis of the 2000s and the intensified pressures on commercial agriculture in South Africa following market liberalization and post-apartheid land reform. But amidst uncertainty, farmers and farm workers strive for stability. The farms on South Africa's margins are centers of gravity, islands of residential labour in a sea of informal arrangements.

Financial Inclusion and Digital Transformation Regulatory Practices in Selected SADC Countries Howard Chitimira, Tapiwa Victor Warikandwa, 2023-03-28

This book investigates the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion and provides a comparative analysis of the regulation, promotion, and enforcement of the relevant laws in the SADC, in particular South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, and Zimbabwe, as well as the challenges of financial inclusion. In turn, it evaluates financial inclusion in the context of specific challenges faced by unbanked and underbanked customers who are easy targets for cyber criminals because they tend to have lower levels of digital literacy. The book presents novel discussions that identify the challenges and flaws associated with the enforcement of financial inclusion laws and related measures intended to promote financial inclusion in the SADC region. This is primarily done in order to reveal the current strengths and weaknesses of financial inclusion laws in relation to certain aspects of the companies securities and financial markets in the region For example there is no common financial inclusion instrument law that is effectively and uniformly applied throughout the SADC This has impeded the enforcement authorities efforts to effectively combat financial exclusion across the region The book is likely the most comprehensive study to date on the regulation and promotion of financial inclusion in the SADC region and fills a major gap in SADC and African legal jurisprudence As such it offers a valuable asset for policymakers attorneys bankers securities share holders and other market participants who deal with financial inclusion as well as undergraduate and graduate students interested in the topic      Accounting for Biological

Assets Rute Gonçalves, Patrícia Lopes, 2017-10-16 This book explores accounting for biological assets under IAS 41 Agriculture and explains the recent adjustments introduced by the IASB which allow firms to choose between cost or revaluation models concerning mature bearer plants Identifying the firm and country level drivers that inform the disclosure and measurement practices of biological assets this concise guide examines the value relevance of measuring those assets at fair value It also analyses how firm and country level drivers explain the differences in the disclosure level and practices used to measure biological assets under IAS 41 Finally it evaluates whether there is a difference in the relevance of biological assets among the listed firms with high and low disclosure levels on biological assets Based on a major international study of a wide selection of firms and country level drivers this book is vital for standard setters stakeholders students accountants and auditors who need to understand disclosure and measurement practices of biological assets under IAS 41      Kanyenze:
