Fighting for Peace in Somalia Paul D. Williams, 2018 Fighting for Peace in Somalia provides the first comprehensive analysis of the African Union Mission in Somalia AMISOM an operation deployed in 2007 to stabilize the country and defend its fledgling government from one of the world's deadliest militant organizations Harakat al Shabaab The book's two parts provide a history of the mission from its genesis in an earlier failed regional initiative in 2005 up to mid 2017 as well as an analysis of the mission's six most challenges namely logistics security sector reform civilian protection strategic communications stabilization and developing a successful exit strategy These issues are all central to the broader debates about how to design effective peace operations in Africa and beyond AMISOM was remarkable in several respects it would become the African Union's AU largest peace operation by a considerable margin deploying over 22 000 soldiers it became the longest running mission under AU command and control outlasting the nearest contender by over seven years it also became the AU's most expensive operation at its peak costing approximately US 1 billion per year and sadly AMISOM became the AU's deadliest mission Although often referred to as a peacekeeping operation AMISOM's troops were given a range of daunting tasks that went well beyond the realm of peacekeeping including VIP protection war fighting counterinsurgency stabilization and state building as well as supporting electoral processes and facilitating humanitarian assistance Tana Forum Annual Book Launch 2019 Winner

The World of Science Education Femi S. Otulaja, Meshach B. Ogunniyi, 2017-09-12 Each volume in the 7 volume series The World of Science Education reviews research in a key region of the world These regions include North America South and Latin America Asia Australia and New Zealand Europe and Israel North Africa and the Middle East and Sub Saharan Africa The focus of this Handbook is on research in science education in mostly former British colonies in Sub Saharan Africa and the scholarship that most closely support this program The reviews of the research situate what has been accomplished within a given field in Sub Saharan Africa rather than an international context The purpose therefore is to articulate and exhibit regional networks and trends that produced specific forms of science education The thrust lies in identifying the roots of research programs and sketching trajectories focusing the changing face of problems and solutions within regional contexts The approach allows readers to review what has been done and accomplished what is missing and what might be done next

Validating Technological Innovation David Coniam, Peter Falvey, 2016-04-02 This book discusses Hong Kong's use of onscreen marking OSM in public examinations Given that Hong Kong leads the way in OSM innovation this book has arisen from a recognised need to provide a comprehensive coherent account of the findings of various separate but linked validation studies of onscreen public examinations in Hong Kong The authors discuss their experience of the validation process demonstrating how high stakes innovation should be fully validated by a series of research studies in order to satisfy key stakeholders

Paradigms and Theories Influencing Policies in the South African and International Water Sectors Richard Meissner, 2016-11-12 This book presents a new way of looking at and analyzing policies programs and or plans in which research scientists have used their knowledge to develop mechanisms such as South Africa's National Water Resource Strategy Second Edition Australian and South African climate change adaptation strategies for government entities and the UNDP's Water and Ocean Governance focus area It critically assesses how science can be used in the service of society and how researchers and practitioners can bridge the gaps that arise as a result of incomplete thinking Presenting a bird's eye view of how thinking and understanding operate in the policy context it offers a valuable contribution to fields of inquiry such as research methods comparative analyses political science international relations and the natural and social sciences in general This book fills a market gap providing real world solutions to the practical application of science paradigms and theories

Reconceptualising Multilingualism on African Radio Limukani Mathe, Gilbert Motsaathebe, 2025-01-31 This book redefines multilingualism via the concept of radio in Africa Africa presents unique challenges of lingual diversity which the media still struggles to accommodate particularly when it comes to indigenous languages Contributors argue that the linguistic realities of African radio reflect ethnic co existence and fluidity of identity in pre colonial colonial and post colonial contexts They argue that communities consist of several majorized and minoritized indigenous languages which if closely analysed reflect a commonality of multilingualism The book also suggests practical measures through which linguistic co existence could be achieved and explores cases that redefine reconceptualize and reframe multilingualism on African radio
