Urban Water Governance in Postcolonial Zimbabwe Abraham R. Matamanda, Tazviona R. Gambe, Johannes I. Bhanye, Tafadzwa C. Maramura, Oratilwe Annastacia Khoza, 2025-09-04 This book focuses on urban water supply and governance in the Global South using urban Zimbabwe as a case study to provide insights and perspectives into the realities of the water governance Applying a resilience and sustainability perspective we argue that fragmentation of responsibilities between various institutions the difficulty of coordination at various levels and the politics centered on water supply constrain effective water governance in Zimbabwe This has resulted in a downward spiral in urban water services in Zimbabwe's urban centers Additionally the innovative nature of this study is to draw from an often neglected dimension in urban water governance which is the political ecology which brings into perspective the varying interests associated with environmental contests and conflicts that influence water allocation and sharing among urban areas by the public sector Therefore this book dwells on understanding the politics economic and ecology of water governance through an interdisciplinary lens This analysis is critical for this study because Zimbabwe's current state of obsolete water infrastructure has also had a negative impact on the supply of high quality portable water services to the public in urban areas This book will be a critical read for academic and professionals in the fields of urban geographers planners sociologists and water experts It will also be useful for undergraduate and postgraduate students from Geography Urban and regional Planning Political Science Development Studies and Economics

Gendered Spaces, Religion and Migration in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Molly Manyonganise, 2022-10-12 This book explores the intersections of gender religion and migration within the context of post independent Zimbabwe with a specific focus on how gender disparities impact economic development By demonstrating how these interconnections impact women's and girls' lived realities the book addresses the need for gender equity gender inclusion and gender mainstreaming in both religious and societal institutions This book assesses the gender and migration nexus in Zimbabwe and examines the impact of religious cultural ideologies on the status of women. In doing so it assesses the transition of Zimbabwean women across spaces and provides insights into the practical strategies that can be utilised to improve their status both at home and on the move. Furthermore, chapters show how space continues to be genderised in ways that perpetuate structural inequality to challenge the exclusion of women from key social processes.
