Water is Life Hellum, Anne, Kameri-Mbote, Patricia, 2015-10-19 This book approached water and sanitation as an African gender and human rights issue Empirical case studies from Kenya Malawi South Africa and Zimbabwe show how coexisting international national and local regulations of water and sanitation respond to the ways in which different groups of rural and urban women gain access to water for personal domestic and livelihood purposes The authors who are lawyers sociologists political scientists and anthropologists explore how women cope in contexts where they lack secure rights and participation in water governance institutions formal and informal The research shows how women as producers of family food rely on water from multiple sources that are governed by community based norms and institutions which recognise the right to water for livelihood How these common pool water resources due to protection gaps in both international and national law are threatened by large scale development and commercialisation initiatives facilitated through national permit systems is a key concern The studies demonstrate that existing water governance structures lack mechanisms which make them accountable to poor and vulnerable water users on the ground most importantly women The findings thus underscore the need to intensify measures to hold states accountable not just in water services provision but in assuring the basic human right to clean drinking water and sanitation and also to protect water for livelihoods

Dare to Invent the Future Clapperton Chakanetsa Mavhunga, 2023-11-21 A rallying manifesto for the innovative problem solving we need to build a better more verdant and sustainable planetary existence Academics are letting Africa down With all that we know what do we have to show for it Whose lives have been changed for the better by it What have we done for and with our communities lately In this provocative book the first in a trilogy Clapperton Chakanetsa Mavhunga argues that our critical thinkers must become actual thinker doers Taking its title from one of Thomas Sankara s most inspirational speeches Dare to Invent the Future looks for moments in Africa s story where precedents of critical thought and knowledge in service of problem solving are evident to inspire readers to dare to invent such a knowledge system Mavhunga revisits insights from Edward Wilmot Blyden Booker T Washington Aim C saire Frantz Fanon Am lcar Cabral Julius Nyerere and Thomas Sankara to illustrate how the academic disciplines have been and could be deployed in the service of and through problem solving building on what people are doing and know At its core he writes knowledge in the service of and through problem solving derives from reading the past for new questions doing due diligence in the present and contriving an anticipatory approach toward the future Questioning the fundamental premises of Western and white knowledge production especially regarding science and technology Mavhunga proposes in this book refreshingly new approaches to thinking doing that stem from African realities in the hopes of inspiring a generation that will run toward not away from problems to solve them Yearbook of International Organizations 2013-2014 (Volumes 1a-1b) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2013-06-21 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Microplastics Hyunjung Kim, 2022-09-19 This book introduces the growing problem of microplastics pollution in the soil and aquatic environment and its interaction with other chemical pollutants Further it provides a detailed review of existing analysis techniques for characterization separation and quantification of microplastics including their merits and demerits with possible suggestions Additionally the regulatory need and actions for improving the economic and quality of plastic recycling curbing microplastic littering and stakeholders researchers and recyclers challenges are reviewed comprehensively Priorities are identified to bridge the knowledge gaps for appropriate management of existing challenges Features Provides a comprehensive description of the fate and environmental impact of microplastics along with various characterization methods Overviews the interaction of microplastics with other toxic chemicals and further their transportation in environment Explains how microplastics enter in environment and its effect on biota and human health Analyses existing analytical techniques for characterization of microplastics Describes societal awareness related to use of plastic and discarding This book focusses on graduate students researchers in environmental engineering ecological engineering chemical and biological engineering plastics and material sciences engineering waste management materials science Indigenous knowledge systems and climate change management in Africa Ajayi, O.C. (ed), Mafongoya, P.L. (ed), 2017-11-15 Climate change presents a profound challenge to food security and sustainable development in Africa Its negative impacts are likely to be greatest in the African region which is already food insecure In the face of global climate change and its emerging challenges and unknowns it is essential that decision makers base policies on the best available knowledge In recent years the knowledge of local and indigenous people often referred to as indigenous knowledge IK has been increasingly recognised as an important source of climate knowledge and adaptation strategies Climate Change and Food Security Elizabeth Thomas Hope, 2016-12-08 Global climatic change has resulted in new and unpredictable patterns of precipitation and temperature the increased frequency of extreme weather events and rising sea levels These changes impact all four aspects of food security availability accessibility stability of supply and appropriate nourishment as well as the entire food system food production marketing processing distribution and prices Climate Change and Food Security focuses on the challenge to food security posed by a changing climate The book brings together many of the critical global concerns of climate change and food security through local cases based on empirical studies undertaken in Sub Saharan Africa and the Caribbean Focusing on risk reduction and the complex nature of vulnerability to climate change the book includes chapters on the responsiveness of farmers based on traditional knowledge as well as the critical phenomenon of food insecurity in the urban setting Other chapters are devoted to efforts made to strengthen resilience through long term development with interventions at the regional and national levels of scale It also examines cross cutting themes that underlie the strategies employed to achieve food security including equity gender livelihoods and governance This edited volume will be of great interest to students and scholars of climate change food security environmental management and sustainable development

A Non-Technical Guide to International Accounting Roger Hussey,Audra Ong,2019-11-08 Business has become more international and more complex Whether you are a manager a student or someone generally interested in corporate financial information you want information and you want to understand that information Companies in all countries are required to generate financial information if for no other reason than to settle their tax obligations If you are interested in the larger companies such as those listed on a stock exchange they must make financial information public and the nature and type of that information is strictly regulated Companies must comply with accounting standards Many countries use the International Accounting Standards issued by the IFRS Foundation This is a not for profit international organization that has developed a single set of high quality global accounting standards These standards can be complex but this book explains clearly the main requirements
