Melike,2024-12-13 Rural women entrepreneurs often face significant barriers that hinder their business success and growth. These challenges include limited access to financial resources, inadequate infrastructure, and lack of supportive networks or mentorship opportunities. Additionally, societal and cultural norms may restrict their entrepreneurial activities and access to markets. Building resiliency for rural women entrepreneurs involves addressing these barriers through targeted interventions. By creating and enabling environments that address these specific needs, rural women can strengthen their entrepreneurial ventures, foster economic independence, and contribute to the broader community's development. Examining Barriers and Building Resiliency for Rural Women Entrepreneurs discusses the multifaceted challenges faced by women in rural areas seeking to start and grow their own businesses. It explores strategies for overcoming these barriers, including the development of targeted support programs, enhanced access to capital, and the creation of robust networks and mentorship opportunities. Covering topics such as digital advancements, hospitality and tourism, and work-life balance, this book is an essential resource for policymakers, government officials, community leaders, local government representatives, business development specialists, mentors, academicians, researchers, entrepreneurs, and more. *Report of the Auditor-General for the Financial Year Ended ... SADC Gender Protocol 2019 Barometer Morna, Colleen Lowe, Rama, Kubi, 2019-08-23 Scoring another goal for gender equality, the 2019 Southern African Development Community (SADC) Gender Protocol Barometer breaks with past tradition in focusing solely on Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights. Measuring 100 indicators across seven themes, the Barometer is the first civil society shadow report on SADC's new SRHR Strategy Score Card, ranking countries based on their performance while offering detailed analysis and insights into what is changing and still needs to change. The no-holds-barred Voice and Choice Barometer features the first stand-alone chapters on Adolescent Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights, Safe Abortion, and Sexual Diversity. It provides the data that underpins 40 national campaigns, led the focal networks of the Southern African Gender Protocol Alliance, and 174 local campaigns led by the Centres of Excellence for Gender in Local Government. A must-read for all those committed to Action and Results for Agenda 2030 in the SADC region. Women in Policing around the World Venessa Garcia, 2021-03-24

Women in Policing around the World is a historical, legal, political, and social examination of women in policing. The book opens with a comparison of cultural definitions of gender and how this affects women's work in general and policing specifically. The book then takes the reader through women in policing in the Eastern and Western Hemispheres, featuring several countries within the major regions of the world. Major commonalities and differences are identified in the areas of recruitment, training, deployment, promotion, and violence against women. Among the key features of this book is a balanced coverage of historical and timely events that led to the current status of women police in their respective countries. The book identifies the commonalities that women police experience throughout the world, relying on the most current research. The book also dedicates coverage of policing violence against women in society as well as within the police organization itself. The author includes tables to allow for national comparisons throughout the book as well as current and historical photos This book is intended for researchers and students of police culture and women in policing It does not rely heavily on one country or region thus allowing for an enlightening international comparison A Brutal State of Affairs Henrik Ellert, Malcolm Anderson, 2020-04-02 A Brutal State of Affairs analyses the transition from Rhodesia to Zimbabwe and challenges Rhodesian mythology The story of the BSAP where white and black officers were forced into a situation not of their own making is critically examined The liberation war in Rhodesia might never have happened but for the ascendancy of the Rhodesian Front prevailing racist attitudes and the rise of white nationalists who thought their cause just Blinded by nationalist fervour and the reassuring words of the Ministry of Internal Affairs and army commanders the Smith government disregarded the advice of its intelligence services to reach a settlement before it was too late By 1979 the Rhodesians were staring into the abyss and the war was drawing to a close Salisbury was virtually encircled and guerrilla numbers continued to grow A Brutal State of Affairs examines the Rhodesian legacy the remarkable parallels of history and suggests that Smiths Rhodesian template for rule has in many instances been assiduously applied by Mugabe and his successors Off-Campus Study, Study Abroad, and Study Away in Economics Joshua Hall, Kim Holder, 2021-10-08 This volume discusses diverse methodologies in economics education focusing on experiential economic education away from campus through study abroad study away and other off campus programs These twenty three chapters provide a how to guide for economic educators looking to expand their pedagogical repertoire whether they want to take students to Ireland to study Adam Smith or South Africa to study poverty Readers are provided with information about the economic content of the course as well as the nuts and bolts of on the ground experiences Delivering a modern take on economic education this volume is intended for economics educators wishing to engage students in new and creative ways The 3 Regional Human Rights Courts in Context Laurence Burgorgue-Larsen, 2024-02-28 At specific moments in the history of Africa Europe and Latin America each region decided to create supranational jurisdictions to protect human rights These are in chronological order the European Court of Human Rights the Inter American Court of Human Rights and the African Court on Human and Peoples Rights While each has been the subject of important dedicated monographs no major study has analysed both the institutional and jurisprudential issues of all three regional systems The 3 Regional Human Rights Courts in Context Justice That Cannot Be Taken for Granted is the first book to offer a comprehensive comparison of the three systems Rather than merely juxtaposing analogous features the book considers how the three courts operate as parts of a greater integrated whole Similarities and differences between the courts are illuminated alongside historical political and sociological insights in addition to the book s primary legal focus Close analysis of the processes by which the courts came into being makes it clear that regardless of distinct political cultural or other variances states on each of the three continents have chafed against international supervision The book also debunks the common belief that after the Second World War the thrust of human rights initiatives was so powerful that states no longer need to discuss them Justice cannot be taken for granted a position further supported by the book's analysis of how each court has evolved and how their rulings have been implemented Laurence Burgorgue-Larsen's dynamism and multidisciplinary approach makes it possible to truly understand the stakes behind the institutional and jurisprudential developments of the three regional human rights courts This is a book that will interest not only legal practitioners but also specialists in international relations human rights and countless other fields
