James Cox

Zimsec Divinity Paper 3 2012:

The Invention of God in Indigenous Societies James Cox, 2014-09-19 Indigenous societies around the world have been historically disparaged by European explorers colonial officials and Christian missionaries Nowhere was this more evident than in early descriptions of indigenous religions as savage primitive superstitious and fetishistic Liberal intellectuals both indigenous and colonial reacted to this by claiming that before indigenous peoples ever encountered Europeans they all believed in a Supreme Being The Invention of God in Indigenous Societies argues that by alleging that God can be located at the core of pre Christian cultures this claim effectively invents a tradition which only makes sense theologically if God has never left himself without a witness Examining a range of indigenous religions from North America Africa and Australasia the Shona of Zimbabwe the Rainbow Spirit Theology in Australia the Yupiit of Alaska and the M ori of New Zealand the book argues that the interests of indigenous societies are best served by carefully describing their religious beliefs and practices using historical and phenomenological methods just as would be done in the study of any world religion Islamic NGOs in Bangladesh Mohammad Musfequs Salehin, 2016-01-13 NGOs Non Governmental Organizations have emerged in both a development and aid capacity in Bangladesh providing wide reaching public services to the country s population living in extreme poverty However resistance to and limitations of NGO led development which in conjunction with Bangladesh s social transformation led to a new religious based NGO development practice Looking at the role of Islamic NGOs in Bangladesh the book investigates new forms of neoliberal governmentality supported by international donors It discusses how this form of social regulation produces and reproduces subjectivities particularly Muslim women subjectivity and has combined religious and economic rationality further complicating the boundaries and the relationship between Islam modernity and development The book argues that both secular and Islamic NGOs target women in the name of empowerment but more importantly as the most reliable partners to meet their debt obligations of micro financing schemes including shari a based financing The targeted women in turn experience Islamic NGOs as less coercive and more sensitive to their religious environment in the rural village community than are secular NGOs Providing a comparative study of the role of religious and secular NGOs in the implementation of neoliberal policies and development strategies this book will be a significant addition to research on South Asian Politics Development Studies Gender Studies and Religion International Development Policy: Religion and Development G. Carbonnier, 2016-01-06 The rise of fundamentalist movements in major religions has forced decision makers development organizations and academics to turn their attention to its meaning for development Global scholars and practitioners examine these issues and fundamentally question the secular religious dichotomy in development discourse and practice Postcolonial Imbusa Mutale Mulenga Kaunda, 2023-12-11 Imbusa a rite of passage for marriage among the Bemba people of Zambia is one of the most salient and resilient rituals that shapes and informs the private and public life It is one of the most formidable cultural forces that defines behaviors and determines everyday relations between women and men at home church and work Postcolonial Imbusa Bemba Women s Agency and Indigenous Cultural Systems by Mutale Mulenga Kaunda offers a glimpse into the lived imbusa and how the teaching proposes women s agency and subjectivity Mulenga Kaunda argues that the salience and resilience of imbusa despite the contact with various cultures and religions makes it a critical feminist decolonial resource for constructing life giving postcolonial womanism Through combined interviews and philosophical analysis this book discovers how the knowledge of imbusa was produced and how such knowledge constitutes postcolonial and decolonial nego feminism Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations,2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events
