Zimsec November 2014 Session Question 2 Worked

Malcolm D. Evans, Jens Modvig

Zimsec November 2014 Session Question 2 Worked:

The Right to Strike in International Law Jeffrey Vogt, Janice Bellace, Lance Compa, K D Ewing, John Hendy QC, Klaus Lörcher, Tonia Novitz, 2020-03-19 This monograph was originally developed as a direct response to the claim made by members of the Employers Group at the 2012 International Labour Conference namely that the right to strike is not protected in international law and in particular by ILO Convention 87 on the right to freedom of association The group's apparent aim was to sow sufficient doubt as to the existence of an internationally protected right so that governments might seek to limit or prohibit the right to strike at the national level while still claiming compliance with their international obligations In consequence some governments have seized on the employers arguments to justify new limitations on that right The Right to Strike in International Law not merely refutes this claim but is the only complete and exhaustive analysis on this subject Based on deep legal research it finds that there is simply no credible basis for the claim that the right to strike does not enjoy the protection of international law indeed the authors demonstrate that it has attained the status of customary international law

The Routledge Handbook of Disability in Southern Africa Tsitsi Chataika, 2018-07-27 This comprehensive ground breaking southern African centred collection spans the breadth of disability research and practice Reputable and emerging scholars together with disability advocates adopt a critical and interdisciplinary stance to prove challenge and shift commonly held social understanding of disability in traditional discourses frontiers and practices in prominent areas such as inter national development disability studies education culture health religion gender sports tourism ICT theatre media housing and legislation This handbook provides a body of interdisciplinary analyses suitable for the development of disability studies in southern Africa Through drawing upon and introducing resources from several disciplines theoretical perspectives and personal narratives from disability activists it reflects on disability and sustainable development in southern Africa It also addresses a clear need to bring together interdisciplinary perspectives and narratives on disability and sustainable development in ways that do not undermine disability politics advanced by disabled people across the world The handbook further acknowledges and builds upon the huge body of literature that understands the social cultural educational psychological economic historical and political facets of the exclusion of disabled people The handbook covers the following broad themes Disability inclusion ICT and sustainable development Access to education from early childhood development up to higher education Disability employment entrepreneurship and community based rehabilitation Religion gender and parenthood Tourism sports and accessibility Compelling narratives from disability activists on societal attitudes toward disability media advocacy accessible housing and social exclusion Thus this much awaited handbook provides students academics practitioners development partners policy makers and activists with an authoritative framework for critical thinking and debates that inform policy and practice in incomparable ways with the view to promoting inclusive and sustainable development

Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies

Appropriations for 2016: Office of the Secretary; Natural Resources Conservation Service; Marketing and regulatory programs; Food and Drug Administration United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies,2015 The Death Penalty Roger Hood,Carolyn Hoyle,2015-01-08 The fifth edition of this highly praised study charts and explains the progress that continues to be made towards the goal of worldwide abolition of the death penalty The majority of nations have now abolished the death penalty and the number of executions has dropped in almost all countries where abolition has not yet taken place Emphasising the impact of international human rights principles and evidence of abuse the authors examine how this has fuelled challenges to the death penalty and they analyse and appraise the likely obstacles political and cultural to further abolition They discuss the cruel realities of the death penalty and the failure of international standards always to ensure fair trials and to avoid arbitrariness discrimination and conviction of the innocent all violations of the right to life They provide further evidence of the lack of a general deterrent effect shed new light on the influence and limits of public opinion and argue that substituting for the death penalty life imprisonment without parole raises many similar human rights concerns This edition provides a strong intellectual and evidential basis for regarding capital punishment as undeniably cruel inhuman and degrading Widely relied upon and fully updated to reflect the current state of affairs worldwide this is an invaluable resource for all those who study the death penalty and work towards its removal as an international goal The United Nations Principles to Combat Impunity Frank Haldemann,Thomas Unger,Valentina Cadelo,2018 Bringing together leading experts in the field this volume provides comprehensive academic commentary on the UN Principles to Combat Impunity The book features the text of each of the 38 Principles along with a full analysis detailed commentary and a guide to relevant literature and case law Narcissism and Politics Jerrold M. Post,2014-11-17 In this age of narcissism the proliferation of politicians with significant narcissistic personality features is dramatic Driven by dreams of glory they seem to find the spotlight that the arena of politics provides irresistible This book analyzes narcissism and politics and systematically explores the psychology of narcissism the entitlement the grandiosity and arrogance overlying insecurity the sensitivity to criticism and the hunger for acclaim illustrating different narcissistic personality features through a spectrum of international and national politicians It addresses the power of charismatic leader follower relationships as well as the impact of age and illness on leaders driven by dreams of glory Turning Promises Into Action ,2018 More than two years into the life of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development this report calls for dramatic advances in statistics financing and policies for gender equality as well as more determined steps towards democratic governance and accountability Based on robust data and expert analysis the report takes stock of where we stand on key aspects of gender equality globally tells us what is needed to monitor progress meaningfully and provides wideranging recommendations for change North-South Regional Trade Agreements as Legal Regimes Clair Gammage,2017-05-26 This book offers a critical reflection of the North South

regional trade agreements RTAs known as the Economic Partnership Agreements negotiated between the EU and the African Caribbean and Pacific countries Conceiving of regions as legal regimes Clair Gammage highlights the challenges facing developing countries when negotiating RTAs with developed countries and interrogates the assumption that these agreements will and can promote sustainable development through trade The Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa: a commentary Celestine Nyamu Musembi ,Trésor Muhindo Makunya,2023-08-28 The first in a series of PULP commentaries on African human rights law under the series title PULP Commentaries on African human rights law Since its adoption on 11 July 2003 the Protocol to the African Charter on Human and Peoples Rights on the Rights of Women in Africa the Maputo Protocol has become a landmark on the African human rights landscape It has steadily gained prominence as a trail blazing instrument responsive to the diverse realities of women on the African continent This comprehensive Commentary on the Maputo Protocol the first of its kind provides systematic analysis of each article of the Protocol delving into the drafting history and elaborating on relevant key concepts and normative standards This Commentary aims to be a one stop shop for anyone interested in the Maputo Protocol such as researchers teachers students practitioners policymakers and activists David Bruce and Diplomatic Practice John W. Young,2014-05-08 David Bruce 1898 1977 was a prominent American diplomat who served in France Germany and the UK His work is examined here to provide an in depth look at the practice of diplomacy and the role of the ambassador as diplomatic actor This thorough survey aims to investigate the relevance of the resident embassy to modern diplomacy To do so it focuses on the ambassador s daily work as a diplomat looking at his role in promoting friendly relations his political reporting policy advising as well as the role of his staff and his relations with others in the Foreign Service It also addresses major issues such as the debate over the death of the embassy showing that ambassadors remain vital actors in the relations between major powers The work integrates theoretical material on diplomatic practice and the case study of a highly regarded diplomat This unique readable study will appeal to students in diplomacy international relations American politics as well as to trainee and junior diplomats Democracy, Elections, and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad,Nico Steytler,2021-03-18 The third wave of democracy that reached African shores at the end of the Cold War brought with it a dramatic decline from 1990 onwards in dictatorships military regimes one party governments and presidents for life Multiparty democracy was at the core of the constitutional revolutions that swept through most of Africa in those watershed years However that wave is either losing momentum or receding or being reversed in its entirety This volume examines democracy and elections in Africa a focus motivated by two concerns First after 30 years it is important to take stock of the state of constitutional democracy on the continent The democratic gains of the 1990s and 2000s seem to be falling by the wayside with the evidence mounting that regimes are concealing authoritarianism under the veneer of elections doing so in an international context where populist regimes are on the rise and free and fair multiparty elections are consequently no longer a given It is becoming a battle to protect and retain constitutional democracy The second reason for this volume s focus on democracy and elections is that multiparty democracy is essential for the proper functioning of the state in addressing the major problems facing Africa internal conflict inequality and lack of development and poor governance and corruption The focus of this volume is thus on how competitive politics or multiparty democracy can be realized and how through competition such politics could lead to better policy and practice outcomes

Economic and Social Rights and the Maintenance of International Peace and Security Claire Breen,2017-06-14 This text comprises cutting edge research on one of the greatest global challenges the failure to address systematic economic and social exclusion and attendant violations of economic and social rights ESR as a driver of conflict The text explores what the UN s obligation to maintain international peace and security can mean when it is informed by the requirement to protect and promote ESR rights that play a crucial role in maintaining international peace and security but which are often overlooked The book considers the extent to which Security Council mandated peace operations have been informed by human rights and efforts to promote economic and social development The approach is to analyse the extent to which the Security Council has interacted with the General Assembly the Economic and Social Council as well as other Charter based mechanisms such as the Human Rights Council and its predecessor with particular reference to the role of the Special Procedure Mechanisms The role of the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights is also considered In this way the text shows that the connection between peace and security and human rights is well recognised by these organs In addition the text considers States ESR obligations stemming from the extraterritorial application of such rights in the context of peace operations Given that States obligations stemming from ESR have often been neglected the book examines how such provision could be improved using ESR grounded plans reflecting the rights to health food water education work and life The text concludes with a call to reimagine what international peace and security can look like when it is informed by the need to recognise the emergence of post conflict legal obligations based on broader concepts of international peace and security that draw from ESR This text will appeal to legal scholars policy advisors members of the military those working in the area of development NGOs and final year undergraduate and or postgraduate students working in the areas of international law political science and international relations and associated fields of research

The Death Penalty in Africa: Foundations and Future Prospects A. Novak,2014-04-16 In recent years the death penalty has sharply declined across Africa but this trend belies actual public opinion and the retributivist sentiments held by political elites This study explains capital punishment in Africa in terms of culturally specific notions of life and death as well as the colonial era imposition of criminal and penal policy

Artificial Intelligence and International Conflict in Cyberspace Fabio Cristiano,Dennis Broeders,François Delerue,Frédéric Douzet,Aude Géry,2023-05-11 This edited volume explores how artificial intelligence AI is transforming international conflict in cyberspace Over the past three decades cyberspace developed into a crucial frontier and issue of international conflict

However scholarly work on the relationship between AI and conflict in cyberspace has been produced along somewhat rigid disciplinary boundaries and an even more rigid sociotechnical divide wherein technical and social scholarship are seldomly brought into a conversation This is the first volume to address these themes through a comprehensive and cross disciplinary approach With the intent of exploring the question what is at stake with the use of automation in international conflict in cyberspace through AI the chapters in the volume focus on three broad themes namely 1 technical and operational 2 strategic and geopolitical and 3 normative and legal These also constitute the three parts in which the chapters of this volume are organised although these thematic sections should not be considered as an analytical or a disciplinary demarcation This book will be of much interest to students of cyber conflict AI security studies and International Relations The Open Access version of this book is available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Research Handbook on Torture Malcolm D. Evans, Jens Modvig, 2020-12-25 This Research Handbook is of great importance in an era where torture whilst universally condemned remains endemic It explores the nature of the international prohibition of torture and the various means and mechanisms which have been put in place by the international community in an attempt to make that prohibition a reality

Chinese Engagement in Africa Larry Hanauer, Lyle J. Morris, 2014-03-12 Examines Chinese engagement with African nations focusing on 1 Chinese and African objectives in the political and economic spheres and how they work to achieve them 2 African perceptions of Chinese engagement 3 how China has adjusted its policies to accommodate African views and 4 whether the United States and China are competing for influence access and resources in Africa and how they might cooperate in the region

Recognition Politics in Settler Colonial States Emile Badarin, 2025-06-26 Using Palestine as a case study Recognition Politics in Settler Colonial States shows how recognition politics operate to legitimize long standing colonial power structures In existing scholarship recognition has been seen as an asset coveted by indigenous communities This book forwards a new theoretically ground breaking perspective Emile Badarin shows that in colonial contexts settlers use recognition to legitimize and normalize the dispossession and elimination of Indigenous people More than this settler colonial states themselves actively pursue recognition employing it as a means to further the elimination of the indigenous societies they seek to replace In making the case the book critically examines the Euromodern categories of race racism and racial hierarchies and draws new conclusions about the interplay between colonialism racism and Zionism Central to this analysis is how anti Zionism has been strategically equated with anti Semitism and effectively used as a tool for the advancement of both settler colonialism in Palestine and Israel's recognition on the international stage The book delves into indigenous normative resistance against colonial recognition politics through the lens of the Palestinian practice of umud steadfastness extracting its philosophy of liberation as a pathway towards a decolonial future for all in Palestine and beyond

Feminist Futures Kum-Kum Bhavnani, John Foran, Priya A.

Kurian, Debashish Munshi, 2016-10-15 Straddling disciplines and continents Feminist Futures interweaves scholarship and social activism to explore the evolving position of women in the South Working at the intersection of cultural studies critical development studies and feminist theory the book's contributors articulate a radical and innovative framework for understanding the linkages between women culture and development applying it to issues ranging from sexuality and the gendered body to the environment technology and the cultural politics of representation This revised and updated edition brings together leading academics as well as a new generation of activists and scholars to provide a fresh perspective on the ways in which women in the South are transforming our understanding of development The Political Economy of Poverty, Vulnerability and Disaster Risk Management Mawere, Munyaradzi, 2017-11-29 Poverty remains a thorny and topical challenge and research topic to scholars and researchers on African development Scholars in the Global North have since the Second World War sought to research poverty and underdevelopment in Africa postulating what they think are the major causes of insipid and abject poverty in the continent but with little or no success on how to solve the poverty enigma Sadly little research and homework have been done by scholars in context in Africa on why there seems to be more production rather than eradication of poverty and vulnerability in Africa and among Africans This book is born out of the realisation for the need for both scholars on the ground and outside Africa to earnestly interrogate and reflect on the poverty situation that continues to haunt the people of Africa and rattle the conscience of the world at large With contributors from across the continent and beyond the volume offers a balanced and rigorous multi faceted analysis of Africa's poverty and vulnerability from a rich tapestry of perspectives The volume is handy to scholars and students in the fields of African and development studies as well as to students of Sociology Anthropology Political Science and Policy Studies
