Smith, 2019-10-31 The basis for this book began twenty years ago when I enrolled in the College of Charleston's summer archaeological field school After spending the first half of the semester honing our technique by digging five foot by five foot units identifying soil stratigraphy and collecting artifacts at the Charleston Museum's Stono Plantation the archaeologists reoriented us students to a new site For the remainder of the field school we investigated Willtown Bluff on the Edisto River an early eighteenth century township surrounded by plantations My interest in inland rice cultivation grew from our work at the James Stobo site a 1710 plantation located on the edge of the Willtown township and one mile from the tidal river For three archaeological seasons between 1997 and 1999 I participated in excavations of the Stobo Plantation house foundation located on a hardwood knoll surrounded by a sea of low lying Cypress wetlands During this time I had a unique opportunity to walk off the dry terra firma and explore miles of inland rice embankments sprawling to the east and to the south of the house site Major embankments traverse the wetlands on a magnetic north south and east west axis intersected by smaller check banks and drainage canals as far as the eye can see under the dense cypress and hardwood canopy
