South African Air Force Recruitment:

Aviation Mental Health Todd Hubbard, Robert Bor, 2016-04-15 This book provides an authoritative and practical guide to the assessment management treatment and care of pilots and other professional groups within aviation covering a range of relevant topics for health and human resources practitioners working in the airline industry Pilot mental health has hitherto been regarded as a specialist topic in aviation medicine Consequently practitioners and researchers alike have been forced to consult specialist journals or seek out a relevant chapter on this topic in a general textbook to develop or update their understanding of the relevant issues This book seeks to remedy this situation by gathering together all of the relevant insights into a single authoritative source gathered from the leading specialists in the field It aims to cover all of the main relevant issues including the assessment care management and treatment of mental health problems as well as the prevention of mental health problems among this occupational group Propaganda and Public Relations in Military Recruitment Brendan Maartens, Thomas Bivins, 2020-11-19 This book represents the first international investigation of military recruitment advertising public relations and propaganda Comprised of eleven case studies that explore mobilisation work in Africa the Americas Asia and Europe it covers more than a hundred years of recent history with chapters on the First and Second World Wars the Cold War and the present day The book explores such promotion in countries both large and small and in times of both war and peace with readers gaining an insight into the different strategies and tactics used to motivate men women and occasionally even children to serve and fight in many parts of the world Readers will also learn about the crucial but little known role of commercial advertising public relations and media professionals in the production and distribution of recruitment promotion This book the first of its kind to be published will explore that role and in the process address two questions that are central to studies of media and conflict how do militaries encourage civilians to join up and are they successful in doing so It is a multi disciplinary project intended for a diverse academic audience including postgraduate students exploring aspects of war propaganda and public opinion and researchers working across the domains of history communications studies conflict studies psychology and philosophy South African Digest ,1964 Who Killed Hammar skjold? Susan Williams, 2014-08-15 One of the outstanding mysteries of the twentieth century and one with huge political resonance is the death of Dag Hammar skjold and his UN team in a plane crash in central Africa in 1961 Just minutes after midnight his aircraft plunged into thick forest in the British colony of Northern Rhodesia Zambia abruptly ending his mission to bring peace to the Congo Across the world many suspected sabotage accusing the multi nationals and the governments of Britain Belgium the USA and South Africa of involvement in the disaster These suspicions have never gone away British High Commissioner Lord Alport was waiting at the airport when the aircraft crashed nearby He bizarrely insisted to the airport management that Hammar skjold had flown elsewhere even though his aircraft was reported overhead This postponed a search for so long that the wreckage of the plane was not found for fifteen hours White mercenaries were at the airport that night too including the South African pilot Jerry Puren whose bombing of Congolese villages led in his own words to flaming huts destruction and death These soldiers of fortune were backed by Sir Roy Welensky Prime Minister of the Rhodesian Federation who was ready to stop at nothing to maintain white rule and thought the United Nations was synonymous with the Nazis The Rhodesian government conducted an official inquiry which blamed pilot error But as this book will show it was a massive cover up that suppressed and dismissed a mass of crucial evidence especially that of African eye witnesses A subsequent UN inquiry was unable to rule out foul play but had no access to the evidence to show how and why Now for the first time this story can be told Who Killed Hammarskjold follows the author on her intriguing and often frightening journey of research to Zambia South Africa the USA Sweden Norway Britain France and Belgium where she unearthed a mass of new and hitherto secret documentary and photographic evidence At the heart of this book is Hammarskjold himself a courageous and complex idealist who sought to shield the newly independent nations of the world from the predatory instincts of the Great Powers It reveals that the conflict in the Congo was driven not so much by internal divisions as by the Cold War and by the West's determination to keep real power from the hands of the post colonial governments of Africa It shows too that the British settlers of Rhodesia would maintain white minority rule at all costs

The Springbok Captains Edward Griffiths,2015-11-16 For more than a century the Springbok captain has represented the pinnacle of rugby achievement in South Africa In this revealing narrative Edward Griffiths and Stephen Nell tell the stories of the elite group of men who have been able to call themselves Springbok captain exploring their backgrounds their triumphs and their disappointments The Springbok Captains offers an epic historical perspective on this remarkable country viewed through the prism of rugby Compelling and emotional the book brings the story of the Springbok captains right up to date Relive the heyday of legends such as Bennie Osler Danie Craven Hennie Muller Johan Claassen Naas Botha Francois Pienaar Gary Teichmann Joost van der Westhuizen Andre Vos and others This revised and updated third edition includes up to date accounts of the careers of Bob Skinstad John Smit Victor Matfield and Jean de Villiers as well as the story of the Springboks 2015 Rugby World Cup campaign Area Handbook for the Republic of South Africa Irving Kaplan,1971

Decolonisation and Regional Geopolitics Lazlo Passemiers,2019-03-11 Decolonisation and Regional Geopolitics argues that as much as the Congo crisis 1960-1965 was a Cold War battleground so too was it a battleground for Southern Africa's decolonisation This book provides a transnational history of African decolonisation apartheid diplomacy and Southern African nationalist movements It answers three central questions First what was the nature of South African involvement in the Congo crisis Second what was the rationale for this involvement Third how did South Africans perceive the crisis Innovatively the book shifts the focus on the Congo crisis away from Cold War intervention and centres it around African decolonisation and regional geopolitics Manpower and the Armies of the British Empire in the Two World Wars Mark Frost,Andrew L. Brown,Douglas E. Delaney,2021-06-15 In the first and only examination of how the British Empire and Commonwealth sustained its soldiers before during and after both world wars a cast of leading military historians explores how the empire mobilized manpower to recruit workers care for veterans and transform factory workers and farmers into riflemen Raising armies is more than counting people putting them in uniform and assigning them to formations It demands efficient measures for recruitment registration and assignment It requires processes for transforming common people into soldiers and then producing officers staffs and commanders to lead them It necessitates balancing the needs of the armed services with industry and agriculture And often overlooked but illuminated incisively here raising armies relies on medical services for mending wounded soldiers and programs and pensions to look after them when demobilized Manpower and the Armies of the British Empire in the Two World Wars is a transnational look at how the empire did not always get these things right But through trial error analysis and introspection it levied the large armies needed to prosecute both wars Contributors Paul R Bartrop Charles Booth Jean Bou Daniel Byers Kent Fedorowich Jonathan Fennell Meghan Fitzpatrick Richard S Grayson Ian McGibbon Jessica Meyer Emma Newlands Kaushik Roy Roger Sarty Gary Sheffield Ian van der Waag Koevoet Steve Crump, 2023-01-19 Koevoet Afrikaans for Crowbar tells of the origination and deployment of the South West African Police s elite counter insurgency capability during the South African Border War of 1978 1989 Drawing upon previously unpublished sources and from interviews with a number of key personalities including former members of Koevoet this volume the first of two documents the formation of Koevoet and its early operations up to 1984 Koevoet examines the background and context to the South West African conflict and details the early experiences of the South African Police in seeking to counter SWAPO PLAN activities It outlines the tasking assigned to Colonel Hans Dreyer of the South African Police to establish Ops K and to develop a counter insurgency unit as part of the South West African Police response to the developing conflict a unit that was to become both respected and feared and is today considered as one of the most effective counter insurgency forces of modern times Koevoet describes the recruitment of trackers from the local population the integration of black and white Koevoet operators into a single entity their training organization and deployment across the Operational Area The author examines Koevoet tactics in the field including all arms co operation with the South African Defence Force and the South African Air Force and the practice of turning captured SWAPO PLAN fighters and their employment across the Zulu teams The design and evolution of the iconic Casspir and Wolf Mine Protected Vehicles MPVs is covered as is their practical use on operations alongside the development of other specialized weapons and equipment utilized by Koevoet In documenting Koevoet operations in Kavnago Kaokoland and Owamboland Volume 1 of Koevoet seeks to examine SWAPOL COIN s effectiveness and to assess how the lessons learned between 1979 1984 shaped future Koevoet doctrine and thinking to afford the reader a truly inclusive perspective on counter insurgency today as police and armed forces globally move to a greater reliance on cutting edge digital technology including artificial intelligence Color profiles detail a range Mine Protected Vehicles MPVs used by Koevoet including the iconic Casspir and Wolf along with SADF and SAAF helicopters used to support these operations Uniforms and insignia of Koevoet are presented in specially commissioned full color artworks

The Road to Democracy in South Africa: 1970-1980 South African Democracy Education Trust, 2004 v 3 The third volume in the series examines the role of anti apartheid movements around the world The global anti apartheid movement was very successful in creating awareness of the liberation struggle in South Africa and in contributing to the downfall of the apartheid government This volume in 2 parts brings together analyses which in the main are written by activist scholars with deep roots in the movements and organizations they are writing about

A Short History of South Africa Gail Nattrass, 2017-11-16 South Africa is popularly perceived as the most influential nation in Africa a gateway to an entire continent for finance trade and politics and a crucial mediator in its neighbours affairs On the other hand post Apartheid dreams of progress and reform have in part collapsed into a morass of corruption unemployment and criminal violence A Short History of South Africa is a brief general account of the history of this most complicated and fascinating country from the first evidence of hominid existence to the wars of the 18th 19th and 20th centuries that led to the establishment of modern South Africa the horrors of Apartheid and the optimism following its collapse as well as the prospects and challenges for the future This readable and thorough account illustrated with maps and photographs is the culmination of a lifetime of researching and teaching the broad spectrum of South African history Nattrass's passion for her subject shines through whether she is elucidating the reader on early humans in the cradle of humankind or describing the tumultuous twentieth century processes that shaped the democracy that is South Africa today

Absent Aviators Donna Bridges, Jane Neal-Smith, Albert Mills, 2016-03-16 The objective of this book is to present a number of related chapters on the subject of gender issues in the workplace of the aviation industry More specifically the chapters address the continuing shortfall in the number of women pilots in both civilian and military aviation Considerable research has been carried out on gender issues in the workplace and for example women represent about 10% of employees in engineering This example is often used to show that the consequences of gender discrimination are embedded and difficult to overcome in masculine dominated occupations However women represent only 5-6% of the profession of pilot Clearly there are many factors which mitigate women seeking to become pilots The chapters within this volume raise both theoretical and practical issues endeavouring to address the imbalance of women pilots in this occupation Absent Aviators consolidates a diverse range of issues from a number of authors from Australia Austria the United States Canada South Africa and the United Kingdom Each of the chapters is research based and aims to present a broad picture of gender issues in aviation gendered workplaces and sociology underpinned by sound theoretical perspectives and methodologies One chapter additionally raises issues on the historical exclusion of race from an airline The book will prove to be a valuable contribution to the debates on women in masculine oriented occupations and a practical guide for the aviation industry to help overcome the looming shortfall of pilots It is also hoped it will directly encourage young women to identify and overcome the barriers to becoming a civilian or military pilot

Military Psychology for Africa Gideon Van Dyk, 2016-03-17 Military Psychology for Africa is the first textbook of its kind from Africa Selected authors with competent military psychology knowledge skills expertise and experience each contributed a chapter to this unique book The book empowers academics students and military fellows to apply this knowledge at academic institutions and military units during operations and in presenting short courses The book will also equip soldiers with new knowledge for advancing peace on the continent and abroad Transnational Corporations in South Africa and Namibia ,1986

Sweden and National Liberation in Southern Africa Tor Sellström, 1999 In 1969 the Swedish parliament endorsed a policy of direct assistance to the liberation movements in Southern Africa Sweden thus became the first Western country to enter into a relationship with organizations that elsewhere in the West were shunned as Communist or terrorist This book the first in a two volume study on Sweden the regional struggles for majority rule national independence traces the background to the relationship Presenting the actors factors behind the support to MPLA of Angola FRELIMO of Mozambique SWAPO of Namibia ZANU ZAPU of Zimbabwe ANC of South Africa it addresses the question why Sweden established close relations with the very movements that eventually would assume state power in their respective countries The second volume later this year will discuss how the support was expressed covering the period from 1970 until the democratic elections in South Africa in 1994 Soviet Imperatives for the 1990's United States.
