Resources in Education ,2001-04 Research in Education ,1971 Prioritizing the Common Core Larry Ainsworth,2013 The consensus among educators nationwide is that in depth instruction paired with focused assessment of essential concepts and skills are far more effective than superficially covering every concept and skill in the standards Educators are faced with the task of teaching all standards while meeting the extraordinary range of student learning needs Prioritizing the Common Core offers common sense solutions to the dilemmas teachers face today in implementing the new more rigorous national standards Chapters present a rationale for prioritizing the Common Core a step by step process for prioritizing standards in language arts and mathematics strategies for soliciting feedback and input from everyone in the district or school prior to the final determination of the Priority Standards and detailed summaries of the process schools in six different districts used to identify their Priority Standards with accompanying commentary by those who directed the work

Turning Average Instruction into Great Instruction John O'Connor,2009-01-16 Turning Average Instruction into Great Instruction details a clear and concise approach to school improvement focusing school leaders on the critical factor that has the greatest impact on student achievement_classroom instruction Decades of research demonstrate that what happens between teachers and students in our nation s classrooms has the greatest impact on how well those students learn The current trend in school reform is to tackle all aspects of a school in order to improve student achievement forcing school leaders to attempt to focus on the school culture use of materials community relations teachers pre service training the school s physical design classroom decorations and instruction Unfortunately such a wide scope leads to a lack of focus among school staff With his singular focus on classroom instruction what O Connor suggests is an antithesis to that approach School leaders will develop a common understanding of the high impact instructional components that should be seen in every classroom O Connor maps out how school leaders can align all personnel to systematically build training support and monitoring mechanisms that ensure that effective instruction becomes part of every classroom routine
