Global Matters Paul Jay, 2014-02-15 As the pace of cultural globalization accelerates the discipline of literary studies is undergoing dramatic transformation Scholars and critics focus increasingly on theorizing difference and complicating the geographical framework defining their approaches At the same time Anglophone literature is being created by a remarkably transnational multicultural group of writers exploring many of the same concerns including the intersecting effects of colonialism decolonization migration and globalization Paul Jay surveys these developments highlighting key debates within literary and cultural studies about the impact of globalization over the past two decades Global Matters provides a concise informative overview of theoretical critical and curricular issues driving the transnational turn in literary studies and how these issues have come to dominate contemporary global fiction as well. Through close imaginative readings Jay analyzes the intersecting histories of colonialism decolonization and globalization engaged by an array of texts from Africa Europe South Asia and the Americas including Zadie Smith's White Teeth Junot Diaz's The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao Kiran Desai's The Inheritance of Loss Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things Vikram Chandra's Red Earth and Pouring Rain Mohsin Hamid's Moth Smoke and Zakes Mda's The Heart of Redness. A timely intervention in the most exciting debates within literary studies Global Matters is a comprehensive guide to the transnational nature of Anglophone literature today and its relationship to the globalization of Western culture. Musings on Indian Writing in English: Fiction N. Sharda Iyer, 2003 Beyond Partition Deepti Misri, 2014-10-30 Communal violence ethnonationalist insurgencies terrorism and state violence have marred the Indian nation-state since its inception. These phenomena frequently intersect with prevailing forms of gendered violence complicated by caste religion regional identity and class within communities. Deepti Misri shows how Partition began a history of politicized animosity associated with the differing ideas of India held by communities and in regions on one hand and by the political military Indian state on the other. She moves beyond that formative national event however in order to examine other forms of gendered violence in the postcolonial life of the nation including custodial rape public stripping deturbaning and enforced disappearances. Assembling literary historiographic performative and visual representations of gendered violence against women and men Misri establishes that cultural expressions do not just follow violence but determine its very contours and interrogates the gendered scripts underwriting the violence originating in the contested visions of what India means. Ambitious and ranging across disciplines Beyond Partition offers both an overview of and nuanced new perspectives on the ways caste identity and class complicate representations of violence and how such representations shape our understandings of both violence and India. The Fiction of Raja Rao Mittapalli Rajeshwar, Pier Paolo Piciuccio, 2001 Raja Rao is one of the triumvirate of the pioneering Indian novelists in English. His contribution to the growth of the English novel in India is enormous. Each one of his novels is a trendsetter. Kanthapura for instance demonstrates how the English language can be used to tell a typically Indian story without violating the native speech rhythms. And his The Serpent and the Rope gave a new direction to the Indian novel in English by philosophising it. His range and vision transcend all barriers. He used the fictional medium to portray his patriotic and philosophical concerns in a masterly way. In this volume an attempt has been made to assess Raja Rao's novels and short stories in terms of his philosophy vision style themes and techniques. It is hoped that Raja Rao scholars across the globe will find the book irresistible. A Treatise on the Laws of Nature Richard Cumberland, 1727 Insistent Images Elżbieta Tabakowska, Christina Ljungberg, Olga Fischer, 2007-01-01 Insistent Images presents a number of new departures dealing with iconicity on the conceptual and the structural levels. On the level of structure the interface between different aspects of iconicity lexical meaning and grammar is discussed in reference to both spoken and signed languages Novel approaches to aural iconicity investigate a wide range of phenomena from phonological iconicity to the role of iconic features in discourse in the nineteenth century practice of reading aloud in the almost magic incantations of fin de siècle poetry and in Tolkien's invented languages Several papers examine the function of iconicity in visual and avant garde poetry where iconic features allow a reduction of means which paradoxically generates textual diversification and complexity A discussion of iconic text strategies shows how texts are comprehended through iconic holistic transfer from complex natural and action patterns Liberateure which integrates text image and physical space is another novel area of study as are the investigations into the iconic properties of film and of multimedia performance Film is intrinsically iconic while at the same time being like photography indexical in multimedia performance on the other hand iconicity functions intermedially by both integrating and reflecting processes of perception and conceptualization These last two new fields of inquiry further enhance this truly interdisciplinary volume's explorations of icons as insistent images Identity Politics Reconsidered L. Alcoff, M. Hames-García, S. Mohanty, Michael Hames-García, Paula M.L. Moya, 2006-01-09 Based on the ongoing work of the agenda setting Future of Minority Studies national research project Identity Politics Reconsidered reconceptualizes the scholarly and political significance of social identity It focuses on the deployment of identity within ethnic women's disability and gay and lesbian studies in order to stimulate discussion about issues that are simultaneously theoretical and practical ranging from ethics and epistemology to political theory and pedagogical practice This collection of powerful essays by both well known and emerging scholars offers original answers to questions concerning the analytical legitimacy of identity and experience and the relationships among cultural autonomy moral universalism and progressive politics Canadian Literature K. Balachandran, 2007 A Hot-bed of Musicians Paula Hathaway Anderson-Green, 2002 In the Blue Ridge Mountains along the Virginia North Carolina border an extraordinarily rich musical heritage survives and flourishes Even before the legendary Bill Monroe coined the term bluegrass in the mid 1950s the traditional music of this area was coming into its own as a distinctive style Early performers from the 1920s through the 1950s many of whom migrated northward during the Great Depression popularized the music they had grown up hearing thereby preserving and celebrating the cultural legacy of their home region In A Hot Bed of Musicians Paula Anderson Green tells the stories of several of these legendary performers and instrument makers from the Upper New River Valley Whitetop Mountain region including Ola Belle Campbell Reed Albert Hash and Dave Sturgill These men and women began to bring the music of Appalachia to a wider audience well before Nashville became the center of country music Making extensive use of interviews the book reveals the fascinating experiences and enduring values behind the practice of old time music This musical heritage remains an indispensable component of Appalachian culture and Anderson Green traces the traditions down to the present generation of musicians there Written for anyone with an interest in mountain music this book focuses on performers from Alleghany and Ashe

Counties in North Carolina and Carroll County and Grayson County in Virginia It includes a comprehensive appendix of place names and music venues as well as annotated lists of musicians and the songs they have performed The Author Paula Hathaway Anderson Green is an adjunct professor of English at Kennesaw State University and does research in Appalachian studies Antiquarian Bookman ,1963
