Displacing the Divine Douglas Alan Walrath, 2010-05-07 As religious leaders ministers are often assumed to embody the faith of the institution they represent As cultural symbols they reflect subtle changes in society and belief specifically people s perception of God and the evolving role of the church For more than forty years Douglas Alan Walrath has tracked changing patterns of belief and church participation in American society and his research has revealed a particularly fascinating trend portrayals of ministers in American fiction mirror changing perceptions of the Protestant church and a Protestant God From the novels of Harriet Beecher Stowe who portrays ministers as faithful Calvinists to the works of Herman Melville who challenges Calvinism to its very core Walrath considers a variety of fictional ministers including Garrison Keillor s Lake Wobegon Lutherans and Gail Godwin s women clergy He identifies a range of types religious misfits harsh Puritans incorrigible scoundrels secular businessmen perpetrators of oppression victims of belief prudent believers phony preachers reactionaries and social activists He concludes with the modern legacy of nineteenth and early twentieth century images of ministers which highlights the ongoing challenges that skepticism secularization and science have brought to today s religious leaders and fictional counterparts Displacing the Divine offers a novel encounter with social change giving the reader access through the intimacy and humanity of literature to the evolving character of an American tradition

States of Obligation Yanni Kotsonis, 2014-09-24 Beginning in the 1860s the Russian Empire replaced a poll tax system that originated with Peter the Great with a modern system of income and excise taxes Russia began a transformation of state fiscal power that was also underway across Western Europe and North America States of Obligation is the first sustained study of the Russian taxation system the first to study its European and transatlantic context and the first to expose the essential continuities between the fiscal practices of the Russian Empire and the Soviet Union Using a wealth of materials from provincial and local archives across Russia Yanni Kotsonis examines how taxation was simultaneously a revenue raising and a state building tool a claim on the person and a way to produce a new kind of citizenship During successive political wartime and revolutionary crises between 1855 and 1928 state fiscal power was used to forge social and financial unity and fairness and a direct relationship with individual Russians State power eventually overwhelmed both the private sector economy and the fragile realm of personal privacy States of Obligation is at once a study in Russian economic history and a reflection on the modern state and the modern citizen The Basket Islandman Gerald Hayes, 2018-05-04 Tom s Criomhthain 1856 1937 is one of the giants of Irish language literature His best known books Allagar na hInise and An tOile nach are acknowledged classics But he was a highly unlikely author He lived his entire life on the isolated and now abandoned Great Blasket in a house he built with his own hands using stones he found on the island Likewise he crafted a valuable literary heritage out of island life With indefatigable persistence he steadily built on his modest formal education learning to read and write in Irish during middle age while simultaneously expanding his knowledge of literature and history Scholarly visitors were impressed with Tom s s observations of his tiny community They encouraged him to commit his stories and memories to paper He wrote three first person accounts of his experiences bequeathing to us a captivating saga of a folk culture doomed by difficult circumstances His works are among the first examples of Ireland s transition from oral to written folk storytelling The Blasket Islandman tells for the first time the full story of Tom s s life with its many triumphs and travails This absorbing account also describes the forces that influenced his work and details his impressive legacy Tom s was determined that his community be remembered In the process he achieved a level of immortality for himself More than eighty years after his passing he remains the famed Blasket Islandman and to paraphrase the man himself the like of him will never be again The Bible of Every Land Bagster, 1848 The Bible in the Pacific Archibald Wright Murray, 1888 History of Bible translations printings distributions and missions in the Pacific Islands The Open Court Paul Carus, 1897 vols 46 47 have special title New Orient Society monograph Carteret's Voyage Round the World, 1766-1769 Helen Wallis, 2017-05-15 Captain Philip Carteret sailed to the South Seas as second in command to Samuel Wallis on a voyage of discovery of the Southern Continent Separating from Wallis at the exit to the Strait of Magellan he went on to make an independent voyage which has earned him the reputation of being the ablest and most ill fated of Cook s immediate precursors Handicapped by a defective ship and inadequate supplies he made a spirited attempt to carry out his instructions While Wallis was enjoying the delights of Tahiti Carteret on a more southerly track rediscovered the long lost Spanish discoveries of Santa Cruz and the Solomon Islands and then became involved in a bitter dispute with the Dutch in Celebes which almost ended in open warfare This edition presents the first full account of the voyage It is based on Carteret s own manuscript Journals including one which Carteret wrote with a view to publication to correct the misrepresentation of John Hawkesworth's Voyages 1773 Supplemented by letters and other documents from English and Dutch archives these manuscripts throw light on various controversial topics such as the conduct of Wallis and the Admiralty the Patagonian giants Carteret's quarrel with the Dutch and the rights and wrongs in the dispute following the publication of Voyages Maps drawn on the voyage are reproduced The main pagination of this and the following volume Second Series 125 is continuous This is a new print on demand hardback edition of the volume first published in 1965 Catalogue ... Francis Edwards, Francis Edwards (Firm), 1978 The Tree and the Canoe Joël Bonnemaïson, 1994-01-01 This personal observation of Tanna an island in the southern part of the Vanuatu archipelago presents an extraordinary case study of cultural resistance Based on interviews myths and stories collected in the field and archival research The Tree and the Canoe analyzes the resilience of the people of Tanna who when faced with an intense form of cultural contact that threatened to engulf them liberated themselves by re-creating and sometimes reinventing their own kastom Following a lengthy history of Tanna from European contact the author discusses in detail original creation myths and how Tanna people revived them in response to changes brought by missionaries and foreign governments The final chapters of the book deal with the violent opposition of part of the island population to the newly established National Unity government Culture and Power at the Edges of the State Thomas M. Wilson, Hastings Donnan, 2005 State borders are somewhere the state is keen to stress its presence and yet are simultaneously places where that presence is challenged They are sites of resistance to the state and at the same time places where the national interest is vigorously maintained This constant ambiguity generates questions about the dynamics of borderland state relations and about how what happens along the border can undermine state policies Using case studies of nation and state relations in borderlands in Europe this book seeks to understand how structures of power are created experienced changed and reproduced Sardinia on Screen Maria Bonaria Urban, 2013-11-01 This volume explores how Sardinians and Sardinia have been portrayed in Italian cinema from the beginning of the 20th century until now starting from the examination of Sardinian tropes in a wide range of texts travel writing fictional sources essays and academic works The purpose is to shed light on the cultural construction of the Sardinian character and to reveal the ideology that is behind this process Hence the volume challenges topics such as the dynamics between verbal and visual imagery and the intertwining between discourse images and audience It addresses the following questions how was the Sardinian character translated from texts into films Which strategies were developed to define Sardinian images on screen For whom were these images intended Which ideology lies behind the images Focusing on cultural images within film and literature this volume is of interest to those working in imagology comparative cultural and Italian studies Notes and Queries, 1880
