

CHAPTER 1 | What do we mean by Leadership?

What is Leadership?

LEADERSHIP

- "Lives of great men all remind us we can make our lives sublime and, departing, leave behind us footprints on the sands of time." -Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
- Leadership is a process, not a position
- It is a complex phenomenon involving a leader, his or her followers, and the situation.
- Because of the complexity of leadership, leadership researchers have defined the concept in many different ways:
 - 1) Process by which an agent induces a subordinate to behave in a desired manner.
 - The word subordinate seems to confide leadership to downward influence in hierarchical relationships.
 - It seems to exclude informal leadership
 - 2) Directing and coordinating the work of group members.
 - It emphasizes the directing and coordinating aspects of leadership, and thereby may deemphasize emotional aspects of leadership.
 - 3) Interpersonal relation in which others comply because they want to, not because they have to.
 - It seems to exclude any kind of coercion as a leadership tool.
 - 4) Process of influencing an organized group toward accomplishing its goals.
 - 5) Actions that focus resources to create desirable opportunities.
 - It seems to distinguish between leadership and tyranny.
 - 6) Creating conditions for a team to be effective
 - 7) The ability to engage employees, the ability to build teams, and the ability to achieve results
 - The first two represent the how and the latter the what of leadership
 - 8) A complex form of social problem solving
