

Enchant Creature

All creatures able to block target creature must do so. Lure does not prevent a creature from blocking more than one creature if blocker has that ability. If blocker is forced to block more creatures than it is allowed to, defender chooses which of those creatures to block, but must block as many creatures as allowed.

Allegories of Love Diana de Armas Wilson,2014-07-14 In the work he considered his masterpiece Persiles and Sigismunda Cervantes finally explores the reality of woman an abstraction largely idealized in his earlier writing Traditional critics have perpetuated this disembodied ideal woman Every Man claimed the translators of the 1706 Don Quixote has some darling Dulcinea of his Thoughts As Diana de Armas Wilson shows however Cervantes himself envisioned the radical embodiment of Dulcinea in the later Persiles a pan European Renaissance allegory Wilson illuminates Cervantes s strategic use of the ancient genre of Greek romance to contest various chivalric fictions about women love and marriage fictions collapsing under the constraints of an emerging bourgeois culture Taking as her subject Cervantes s erotic imperative to leave behind barbaric notions of love in quest of a new conceptual space Wilson demonstrates how the heroes of the Persiles unlike Don Quixote learn to cross the borders of difference Their journey toward marriage is illustrated by thirteen inset exemplary novels perhaps the most exploratory of Cervantes s writings Allegories of Love not only examines the fundamental importance of sexual and cultural difference in Cervantes s last romance but also reveals the historical conditions of representation itself during the late Renaissance Originally published in 1991 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

A Female Poetics of Empire Julia Kuehn, 2013-10-30 Many well known male writers produced fictions about colonial spaces and discussed the advantages of realism over romance and vice versa in the art of fiction debate of the 1880s but how did female writers contribute to colonial fiction This volume links fictional non fictional and pictorial representations of a colonial otherness with the late nineteenth century artistic concerns about representational conventions and possibilities The author explores these texts and images through the postcolonial framework of exoticism arguing that the epistemological dilemma of a self encountering an other results in the interrelated predicament to find poetic modalities mimetic realistic and documentary on the one hand romantic fantastic and picturesque on the other that befit an exotic representation Thus women writers did not only participate in the making of colonial fictions but also in the late nineteenth century artistic debate about the nature of fiction This book maps the epistemological concerns of exoticism and of difference self and other home and away familiarity and strangeness onto the representational modes of realism and romance The author focuses exclusively on female novelists travel writers and painters of the turn of the century exotic and especially on neglected authors of academically under researched genres such as the bestselling novel and the travelogue
