The Many Lives Of Kenneth Myer:

The Many Lives of Kenneth Myer Sue Ebury, 2008 When Kenneth Baillieu Myer's father fell dead on the footpath in 1934 Ken's life changed in an instant As the eldest son of the Jewish immigrant retailing genius Sidney Baevski Myer who went from pedlar to philanthropist millionaire in fifteen years 13 year old Ken was immediately acknowledged as head of the family Despite a conventional education at Geelong Grammar and a year at Princeton University Ken was an unconventional man He had hit headlines when he was born and continued to make news throughout his life as the powerful Executive Chairman of Myer in his refusal to be Governor General of Australia with his separation and divorce from his wife Prue and remarriage to a Japanese woman half his age Yasuko Hiraoka as Chairman of the Victorian Arts Centre and the National Library of Australia and during his disastrous years as Chairman of the ABC a reward for signing the Myer It's time letter acknowledged by Whitlam as influential in bringing the Labor Party to power in 1972 Ken Myer introduced Australia to the first regional shopping centres with Chadstone changing the face of the Australian landscape Parking meters state of the art information systems at the National Library of Australia ground breaking medical research at The Howard Florey Institute and genetic engineering at CSIRO were all facilitated by him Visionary and romantic he was depressive and driven charming one moment icy the next Unpretentious and a passionate conservationist he was generous both publicly and anonymously giving away his fortune and in doing so founding modern philanthropy in Australia Happiest when finally free of the Store he died with his wife Yasuko in a light plane crash in Alaska in 1992 With unprecedented access to family documents Sue Ebury paints a vivid portrait of the many aspects of Ken Myer's life and the man himself China in Australasia James Beattie, Richard Bullen, Maria Galikowski, 2019-04-18 Drawing on expertise in art history exhibition studies and cultural studies as well as politics and international relations China in Australasia presents significant new perspectives on the role of art in the cultural diplomacy of the People's Republic of China The book tells the forgotten story of the loan exchange and gifting of Chinese art museum exhibitions and the use of Chinese arts more broadly in growing diplomatic relations with Australia and New Zealand from 1949 to the present day Its scope includes pre modern modern and contemporary sculpture painting and peasant art as well as ancient artefacts performance arts and gardens In considering the geopolitical connections opened by the arts this book presents new insights into some of the ways in which China often in conjunction with local supporters sought to present itself to the people of Australia and New Zealand It also considers how for their part New Zealanders and Australians worked to expand understandings of their powerful northern neighbour within changing political contexts The first of its kind this book length interdisciplinary study of Chinese soft diplomacy in Australasia will be invaluable to students and scholars of Chinese studies cultural diplomacy museum studies and art history Australian Dictionary of Biography, Volume 19 Melanie Nolan, 2021-03-09 Volume 19 of the Australian Dictionary of Biography ADB contains concise biographies of individuals who died between 1991 and 1995 The first of two volumes for the 1990s it presents a colourful montage of late twentieth century Australian life containing the biographies of significant and representative Australians The volume is still in the shadow of World War II with servicemen and women who enlisted young appearing but these influences are dimming and there are now increasing numbers of non white non male non privileged and non straight subjects The 680 individuals recorded in volume 19 of the ADB include Wiradjuri midwife and Ngannawal Elder Violet Bulger Aboriginal rights activist poet playwright and artist Kevin Gilbert and Torres Strait Islander community leader and land rights campaigner Eddie Mabo HIV AIDS child activists Tony Lovegrove and Eve Van Grafhorst have entries as does conductor Stuart Challender the first Australian celebrity to go public about his HIV AIDS condition in 1991 The arts are as always well represented including writers Frank Hardy Mary Durack and Nene Gare actors Frank Thring and Leonard Teale and arts patron Ian Potter We are beginning to see the effects of the steep rise in postwar immigration flow through to the ADB Artist Joseph Stanislaw Ostojka Kotkowski was born in Poland Pilar Moreno de Otaegui co founded the Spanish Club of Sydney Chinese restaurateur and community leader Ming Poon Dick Low migrated to Victoria in 1953 Often we have a dearth of information about the domestic lives of our subjects politician Olive Zakharov however bravely disclosed at the Victorian launch of the federal government's campaign to Stop Violence Against Women in 1993 that she was a survivor of domestic violence in her second marriage Take a dip into the many fascinating lives of the Australian Dictionary of Biography

Managing the Marketplace Matthew Bailey, 2020-05-10 This book charts the history of Australian retail developments as well as examining the social and cultural dimensions of shopping in Australia In the second half of the twentieth century the shopping centre spread from America around the world Australia was a very early adopter and produced a unique shopping centre model Situating Australian retail developments within a broader international and historical context Managing the Marketplace demonstrates the ways that local conditions shape global retail forms Knowledge transfer from Europe and America to Australia was a consistent feature of the Australian retail industry across the twentieth century By critically examining the strengths and weaknesses of Australian retail firms strategies across time and drawing on the voices of both business elites and ordinary people the book not only unearths the forgotten stories of Australian retail it offers new insights into the opportunities and challenges that confront the sector today both nationally and internationally This book will be of interest to all scholars and practitioners of retail marketing business history and economic geography as well as social and cultural history

The Cambridge Economic History of Australia Simon Ville, Glenn Withers, 2014-10-08 Australia's economic history is the story of the transformation of an indigenous economy and a small convict settlement into a nation of nearly 23 million people with advanced economic social and political structures It is a history of vast lands with rich exploitable resources of adversity in war and of prosperity and nation building It is also a history of human behaviour and the institutions created to harness and govern human endeavour This account provides a systematic and comprehensive treatment of the nation's economic foundations growth resilience and future in an engaging contemporary narrative It examines key themes such as the centrality of land and its usage the role of migrant human capital the tension between development and the environment and Australia's interaction with the international economy Written by a team of eminent economic historians The Cambridge Economic History of Australia is the definitive study of Australia's economic past and present

Gough Whitlam Jenny Hocking, 2014-11-10 Gough Whitlam Australia's twenty first prime minister swept to power in December 1972 ending twenty three years of conservative rule In barely three years Whitlam's dramatic reform agenda would transform Australia It was an ascendancy bitterly resented by some never accepted by others and ended with dismissal by the Governor General just three years later an outcome that polarised debate and left many believing the full story had not been told In this much anticipated second volume of her biography of Gough Whitlam Jenny Hocking has used previously unearthed archival material and extensive interviews with Gough Whitlam his family colleagues and foes to bring the key players in these dramatic events to life The identity of the mysterious third man who counselled the Governor General Sir John Kerr in his decision to sack the twice elected Whitlam government and appoint Malcolm Fraser as prime minister is confirmed here by Kerr himself as the High Court justice Sir Anthony Mason and the full story of his involvement is now revealed for the first time From Kerr's private papers Hocking details months of secret meetings and conversations between Kerr and Mason in the lead up to the dismissal that had remained hidden for over thirty seven years In response to these revelations Sir Anthony Mason released an extensive public statement acknowledging his role and disclosing additional information that is fully explored in this new edition This definitive biography takes us behind the political intrigue to reveal a devastated Whitlam and his personal struggle in the aftermath of the dismissal the unfulfilled years that followed and his eventual political renewal as Australia's ambassador to UNESCO It also tells through the highs and the lows of his decades of public life how Whitlam depended absolutely on the steadfast support of the love of his life his wife Margaret For this is also the story of a remarkable marriage and an enduring partnership The truth of this tumultuous period in Australia's history is finally revealed in Gough Whitlam His Time
