shedding of traditional diets in favor of highly processed foods Or conversely they may blame these on the traditional diets of fatty meat starchy root vegetables and rice Applying a much needed intersectional approach Fuster shows that nutritionists and eaters often misrepresent and even racialize or pathologize a cuisine s healthfulness or unhealthfulness if they overlook the kinds of economic and racial inequities that exist within the global migration experience The Easy Puerto Rican

In The Expressive Lives of Elders, Jon Kay and contributors from a diverse range of public institutions argue that such mediations work best when they are culturally, socially, and personally relevant to the participants. From quilting and canning to weaving and woodworking, this book explores the role of traditional arts and folklore in the lives of older adults in the United States, highlighting the critical importance of ethnographic studies of creative aging for both understanding the expressive lives of elders and for designing effective arts therapies and programs. Each case study in this volume demonstrates how folklore and traditional practices help elders maintain their health and wellness, providing a road map for initiatives to improve the lives and well-being of America's aging population.
