Handbook of African Catholicism Ilo, Stan Chu,2022-07-13 A disciplinary map for understanding African Catholicism today by engaging some of the most pressing and pertinent issues topics and conversations in diverse fields of studies in African Catholicism Routledge Handbook on Labour in Construction and Human Settlements Edmundo Werna,George Ofori,2023-12-12 Routledge Handbook on Labour in Construction and Human Settlements presents a detailed and comprehensive examination of the relationship between labour and the built environment and synergises these critical focus areas in innovative ways This unrivalled edited collection of chapters analyses problems and presents possible solutions related to the employment and conditions of workers in the construction industry It provides comprehensive coverage of the relationship between the global workforce and the built environment and is divided into four topical areas how labour and the built environment relate to development employment generation in the built environment quality of employment in the built environment and the impact of the built environment on labour in other sectors Underpinning the entire book is the premise that the way the built environment is produced and its main products buildings cities and towns have an impact on large numbers of workers At the same time the quality of the built environment requires construction workers who are well trained and with good working conditions While cities and towns are the engines of economic growth they will not be able to fulfil their economic potential if poverty in the workforce is not addressed Those who are unemployed underemployed or work in unfavourable conditions cannot fully contribute to production and at the same time are limited in their ability to purchase goods and services therefore limiting economic growth and restricting improvements in their living standards In addition investments in infrastructure housing and inner city redevelopment cannot be sustainable if labour issues i e poverty are not addressed This book aims at analysing this complex set of issues comprehensively and will be essential reading to a wide range of researchers across the interdisciplinary intersections of construction business and management economic development urban studies sociology political science and project management

Customary International Humanitarian Law Jean-Marie Henckaerts, Louise Doswald-Beck, 2005 In 1996 the International Committee of the Red Cross alongside a range of renowned experts embarked upon a major international study into current state practice in international humanitarian law in order to identify customary law in this area This book is the result of that study a comprehensive analysis of the customary rules of international humanitarian law applicable in international and non international armed conflicts Given that important treaties in this area have not yet been universally ratified this is a publication of major importance carried out at the express request of the international community In so doing this study identifies the common core of international humanitarian law binding on all parties to all armed conflicts
