

The Lamb - William Blake

Analysis

William Blake is an English poet, painter, and printmaker. He was largely unrecognised during his lifetime, but now is considered an original figure in the history of poetry and visual arts of the Romantic age. He was deeply influenced by the ideals and ambitions of the French and American revolutions. His masterpiece "The Lamb" was published as a part of his Songs of Innocence which is itself a part of Songs of Innocence and Experience.

In his writing he philosophises upon life by suggesting that there are two main views of the world: Innocence and experience. Both have their advantages and disadvantages. The positive side of innocence is joy and optimism, while its negative one is naivety. On the other hand, the positive side of experience is wisdom, and its negative one is cynicism. "The Lamb" represents his concepts regarding the innocent side and revolves around his theme of nature and man.

The entire poem is built upon the poet's monologue with the lamb. He opens the first stanza by questioning it "who made thee?" which indicates his curiosity. Also, from the very beginning of the poem, he calls the lamb "little" which gives the impression that he is in a higher position than the addressee. In the second line, he repeats the question in a slightly different way and shifts from sounding curious to sounding as if he knows the answer. Then he starts listing some ways that sets the lamb to be highly blessed.

In the form of rhetorical questions, the poet wonders at the power and wisdom of the unknown creator for he did not merely give life to the lamb, but also gave it an appetite for greenery. He continues by wondering at the wisdom of the creator to lead the greenery to travel by the "streams" and reach the lamb with ease.

Then he moves to discussing the physical appearance of the lamb and compares its "clothing" to be of delight." The poet's diction sets an aesthetic atmosphere suggested by the words "delight," "softest," and "bright." The word "bright" also suggests a visual image as the lamb's wool gleams in the sun.

In the seventh line, the poet moves to describing the lamb's voice as "tender" to the extent that it makes nature, specifically the valleys, "rejoice." The first stanza ends with the same initial two lines which add more musicality and a general light tone to the poem.
