technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Selected Letters of Charles Dickens Charles Dickens,2012-02-02 Charles Dickens's letters provide vivid close up snapshots of a life lived at maximum intensity This volume offers the first selection to be made from the magisterial twelve volume British Academy Pilgrim Edition of his letters From over fourteen thousand editor Jenny Hartley has cherry-picked four hundred and fifty to give readers the essence of the Sparkler of Albion This eagerly awaited selection takes us straight to the heart of his life to show us Dickens at first hand Here he is writing out of the heat of the moment as a novelist journalist and magazine editor as a social campaigner and traveler in Europe and America and as friend lover husband and father These letters were an outlet for his high spirits sparkling wit and caustic commentary striking glimpses of the world around him as seen through his highly individual and acutely observing eye Whether you dip in or read straight through this selection of his letters captures anew the brilliance of Dickens and the sheer pleasure of being in his company

The Selected Letters of Charles Dickens Jenny Hartley,2012-02-02 What was it like to be Charles Dickens His letters are the nearest we can get to a Dickens autobiography vivid close up snapshots of a life lived at maximum intensity This is the first selection to be made from the magisterial twelve volume British Academy Pilgrim Edition of his letters From over fourteen thousand four hundred and fifty have been cherry-picked to give readers the best essence of the Sparkler of Albion Dickens was a man with ten times the energy of ordinary mortals There seem to have been twice the number of hours in his day and he threw himself into letter writing as he did into everything else This eagerly awaited selection takes us straight to the heart of his life to show us Dickens at first hand Here he is writing out of the heat of the moment as a novelist journalist and magazine editor as a social campaigner and traveller in Europe and America and as friend lover husband and father Reading and writing letters punctuated the rhythms of Dickens's day I walk about brimful of letters he told a friend He claimed to write at the least a dozen a day Sometimes it was a chore but more often a pleasure an outlet for high spirits sparkling wit and caustic commentary always as seen through his highly individual and acutely observing eye Whether you dip in or read straight through this selection of his letters creates afresh the brilliance of being Dickens and the sheer pleasure of being in his company

The British Academy/The Pilgrim Edition of the Letters of Charles Dickens: Volume 12: 1868-1870 Charles Dickens,2002-03-14 This final volume presents 1 151 letters many previously unpublished or published only in part for the years 1868 to Dickens's death from a stroke on 9 June 1870 also included is an Addenda of 235 letters belonging to earlier volumes discovered since the publication of the first such collection in Volume 7 and a Cumulative Index of Correspondents for the entire edition The volume begins with the final four months of Dickens's American tour of 75 readings which had been conspicuously successful throughout despite the appalling weather and his sufferings from American catarrh The tour culminated on 18 April 1868 when the American Press held a dinner in his honour in New York In July he rented Windsor Lodge Peckham for Ellen Ternan where she remained until after his death he was to give two more English reading tours before his collapse at Preston on 22 April 1869 In early January 1869 he was elected President of the Birmingham and Midland Institute and a dinner in his honour was given in St George's Hall Liverpool Between January and March 1870 he gave a series of Farewell readings in London and on 31 March Edwin Drood No 1 was published illustrated by Luke Fildes it continued monthly until 31 August Of the friends who died during this period much the closest were the painter Daniel Maclise to whom Dickens paid especial tribute at the Royal Academy Banquet of 30 April 1870 Mark Lemon who died only 18 days before Dickens himself and with whom he had a brief reconciliation after their bitter quarrel in 1858 and Chauncy Hare Townshend who left him 2 000 to publish as his Literary Executor Religious Opinions of the Late Chauncy Hare Townshend which appeared in November 1870
