The Light Upon My Path 2nd Edition:

S.G.E.B. 2nd Edition Steve J. Williams, 2009-08-14 The information age has begotten turmoil It seems that the more information we have the less peace the average person has To many as impression has developed that modern science has disproven the existence of the metaphysical realm and doomed us to a sterile pointless wandering in the wilderness of minutiae This couldn't be further from the truth A reasonably skeptical look at modern philosophy science archeology and history point overwhelmingly in a single direction and the truth that it points to is blissful and eternal The Christian's Duty to Walk Wisely (2nd Edition) Matthew Mead, C. Matthew McMahon, 2015-07-31 Matthew Mead's The Christian's Duty to Walk Wisely is a practical exploration of the believer's spiritual journey addressing the holy command for Christians to navigate life with wisdom and grace Anchored in Ephesians 5:15-16 and Psalm 131 this work challenges and encourages readers to live with godly discernment and contentment in the midst of temptations The first sermon Walk Wisely explores the Christian's responsibility to live circumspectly in a fallen world fraught with temptation and evil Mead exhorts believers to navigate life with spiritual wisdom avoiding folly redeeming the time and relying wholly on the grace of Christ Through rich biblical exposition and practical application he addresses the nature of temptation the dangers of self confidence and the necessity of prayer faith and reliance on Scripture With clarity and pastoral insight Mead equips Christians to triumph over sin and stand firm against Satan's schemes The second sermon The Power of Grace takes its cue from David's confession in Psalm 131 Surely I have behaved and quieted myself as a child that is weaned of his mother Mead explores the heart transforming work of grace that weans the believer from worldly affections and fosters a spirit of humility contentment and childlike dependence on God He examines the believer's resemblance to a weaned child helpless yet trusting detached from earthly vanities yet nourished by the rich promises of God This sermon offers invaluable guidance on finding satisfaction in Christ and cultivating a life rooted in heavenly affections rather than temporal comforts Together these sermons serve as a guide for professing Christians offering biblical counsel on Walking wisely in a fallen temptation filled world Trusting in God's providence amidst trials and uncertainties Cultivating humility contentment and a teachable spirit Detaching from the fleeting allure of the world and setting affections on eternal joys in Christ This second edition of The Christian's Duty to Walk Wisely brings renewed attention to Matthew Mead's sermons carefully updated and clarified for the modern reader while preserving their rich theological depth This edition seeks to make Mead's biblical teachings on spiritual wisdom and grace accessible to a new generation of believers striving to walk faithfully in a fallen world NIV, Charles F. Edited by the author of the "Sea wolf" [i.e. John Brent], etc* John BRENT (F.S.A.), 1841 Ethical Dimension of Cult in the Book of Isaiah Bohdan Hrobon, 2010 This book investigates the relationship between cult and ethics in the book of Isaiah Part I attempts to revise some of the common Old Testament views on prophets and cult After inspecting cultic concepts such as sacrifice purity and impurity holiness and the Promised Land it suggests that the priestly and prophetic understandings of the role of the Ancient Israelite cult were essentially the same This general proposition is then tested on the book of Isaiah in Part II each chapter there analyses the key passage on cult and ethics in the three main parts of the book namely Isa 1 10 17 43 22 28 and 58 1 14 and concludes that even though the role of cult and ethics in each part of the book varies significantly the underlying principles behind the teaching about ritual and social justice in the various parts of the book of Isaiah are the same Furthermore these principles are cultic in nature and in accord with priestly teaching Far from being anti ritualistic the studied texts are concerned with what can be labelled The Ethical Dimension of Cult The reason behind the variations of the role of cult and ethics in the book called Isaiah seems to be cultic as well namely the purity or impurity of the people and the land before during and after the Babylonian exile
