Diverse Voices in Chinese Translation and Interpreting Riccardo Moratto, Martin Woesler, 2021-02-02 This book presents a thoughtful and thorough account of diverse studies on Chinese translation and interpreting TI It introduces readers to a plurality of scholarly voices focusing on different aspects of Chinese TI from an interdisciplinary and international perspective The book brings together eighteen essays by scholars at different stages of their careers with different relationships to translation and interpreting studies Readers will approach Chinese TI studies from different standpoints namely socio historical literary policy related interpreting and contemporary translation practice Given its focus the book benefits researchers and students who are interested in a global scholarly approach to Chinese TI The book offers a unique window on topical issues in Chinese TI theory and practice It is hoped that this book encourages a multilateral dynamic and international approach in a scholarly discussion where more often than not approaches tend to get dichotomized This book aims at bringing together international leading scholars with the same passion that is delving into the theoretical and practical aspects of Chinese TI

Laika's Window Kurt Caswell, 2018-09-18 Laika began her life as a stray dog on the streets of Moscow and died in 1957 aboard the Soviet satellite Sputnik II Initially the USSR reported that Laika the first animal to orbit the earth had survived in space for seven days providing valuable data that would make future manned space flight possible People believed that Laika died a painless death as her oxygen ran out Only in recent decades has the real story become public Laika died after only a few hours in orbit when her capsule overheated Laika's Window positions Laika as a long overdue hero for leading the way to human space exploration Kurt Caswell examines Laika's life and death and the speculation surrounding both Profiling the scientists behind Sputnik II he studies the political climate driven by the Cold War and the Space Race that expedited the satellite's development Through this intimate portrait of Laika we begin to understand what the dog experienced in the days and hours before the launch what she likely experienced during her last moments and what her flight means to history and to humanity While a few of the other space dog flights rival Laika's in endurance and technological advancements Caswell argues that Laika's flight serves as a tipping point in space exploration beyond which the dream of exploring nearby and distant planets opened into a kind of fever from which humanity has never recovered Examining the depth of human empathy what we are willing to risk and sacrifice in the name of scientific achievement and our exploration of the cosmos and how politics and marketing can influence it Laika's Window is also about our search to overcome loneliness and the role animals play in our drive to look far beyond the earth for answers

Murder of the Horse Trainer's Rival: The Bitter Breakup of

Buddy Jacobson and the Model (A Historical True Crime Short) R. Barri Flowers, From R Barri Flowers award winning criminologist and the bestselling author of Murdered by the King of Western Swing Murder at the Pencil Factory Murder of the Doctor's Wife and Murder During the Chicago World's Fair comes the riveting historical true crime short Murder of the Horse Trainer's Rival The Bitter Breakup of Buddy Jacobson and the Model On August 6 1978 firefighters discovered the charred remains of a body inside a wooden crate set ablaze in an empty lot in the Bronx New York The male decedent had been worked over stabbed and shot multiple times The victim was identified as John Jack Tupper a restaurateur age thirty four His killer turned out to be forty eight year old Howard Buddy Jacobson who at one time was the country's leading Thoroughbred horse trainer The shocking act of violence was the result of a classic love triangle turned deadly The woman caught between the two men was an attractive twenty three year old fashion model and cover girl named Melanie Cain who had recently started living with Tupper in his 84th Street penthouse apartment on the Upper East Side of Manhattan She had previously lived in the adjoining suite with Jacobson for a number of years before moving out After being convicted of Tupper's murder in 1980 Buddy Jacobson made a daring escape from custody fleeing across the country to California with his new girlfriend a twenty two year old model named Audrey Barrett The convicted murderer stayed on the lamb for several weeks before being captured to carry out his sentence for the death of Jack Tupper The stunning tale of Jacobson's meteoric rise and fall in horse training and subsequent romantic involvement with someone less than half his age ending up in a tragic crime of passion had all the makings of an ill fated contemporary melodrama except that it occurred on a real life stage as a sad true event Bonus material includes a complete and gripping historical true crime short Murder of the Banker's Daughter The Killing of Marion Parker and excerpts from the author's bestselling true crime anthologies Murder Chronicles A Collection of Chilling True Crime Tales and The Dreadful Acts of Jack the Ripper and Other True Tales of Serial Murder and Prostitutes

T-Kit 6 - Training essentials Sabine Klocker, Snežana Bačlija Knoch, Stefan Manevski, 2021-12-01 The training of youth workers is one of the main priorities of both the European Commission and the Council of Europe and of their partnership in the field of youth Youth work is in the spotlight for both institutions and youth workers are essential for the quality of its provision This revised T Kit aims to equip youth workers and youth trainers with the essentials of non formal education training It is a practical tool for them to develop training competences and learn more about educational theory concepts tools practices resources as well as hands on tips as this handbook is written by trainers for trainers and youth workers in the European youth field Whereas other T Kits focus on one specific area of youth work training this one emerges from the broader European youth work context and enables trainers and youth workers to reflect on their daily practice as this publication follows the logic of an entire training cycle from beginning to end of any youth training programme with an international dimension The European youth training field has undergone massive changes since this T Kit was first published in 2002 Especially when it comes to digitalisation the focus on trainer competences and competence development training standards and quality criteria for training recognition of non formal education accessibility and diverse ability dimensions Topics such as access gender environment and sustainability or the focus on learning environments emotional management and well being of the trainer have greatly changed non formal education settings This T Kit offers information links and resources on how to work with young people in non formal education training settings today and make a difference in their personal lives as well as their peer groups and communities beyond

The Personal Trainer'S Legal Bible Gary W. Pitts,2014-01-07 PERSONAL TRAINERS are not just fitness professionals they could be the saviours of the global health care systemlife changers As pioneers in this budding field in the health and wellness industry trainers face misinformation and myths about the fitness industry Whats more due to negative portrayal in the media the common perception of personal trainers is less than stellar This situation coupled with the relative lack of regulation means that there are many legal issues that you must be aware of in order to stay safe in your day today practice As is the case for any practitioner of a health related profession you must be aware of the legal ramifications of your decisions and advice But the legal education provided to personal trainers is virtually nonexistent In this guidebook author Gary Pitts a master strength coach and Canadas premier fitness lawyer provides the knowledge you need for your practice Following the principles of MISS make it simple stupid Gary has compiled information on the entire spectrum of fitness specific legal issues most of which are largely unknown or misunderstood by even the most seasoned veterans in the personal training industry If youre serious about your personal training career explores these important issues and start building your protective legal strategies now
