Classic Spy Novels 3-Book Bundle Alan Furst, 2012-05-14 From Alan Furst often compared to John le Carr, Graham Greene and Eric Ambler and praised as the best spy novelist ever a trio of his classic works Furst known for panoramic vision deep authenticity and a magnificent eye for historical detail always sets his novels in the twilight world of Europe in the 1930s and first years of World War II when the British, Russian, German and many other spy services fought it out in the alleys and grand hotels of Paris, Berlin and other cities on the Continent. The three classic spy novels in this read all night eBook bundle will transport you to the dark conflict between fascists, communists and the people who fought back against them. Includes a preview of Alan Furst's new novel Mission to Paris with movie stars, elite spies and German political warfare on sale in June. The writing in Mission to Paris sentence after sentence, page after page is dazzling. If you are a John le Carr fan, this is definitely a novel for you. James Patterson: I am a huge fan of Alan Furst. Furst is the best in the business, the most talented espionage novelist of our generation. Vince Flynn: NIGHT SOLDIERS, Bulgaria 1934. A young man is murdered by the local fascists. His brother, Khristo Stoianev, is recruited into the NKVD, the Soviet secret intelligence service, and sent to Spain to serve in its civil war. Warned that he is about to become a victim of Stalin's purges, Khristo flees to Paris. Night Soldiers masterfully re-creates the European world of 1934-35, the struggle between Nazi Germany and Soviet Russia for Eastern Europe, the last desperate gaiety of the beau monde in 1937 Paris, and guerrilla operations with the French underground in 1944. Night Soldiers is a scrupulously researched panoramic novel, a work on a grand scale. THE WORLD AT NIGHT, Paris 1940. The civilized upper class life of film producer Jean Casson is derailed by the German occupation of Paris, but Casson learns that with enough money, compromise and connections, one need not deny oneself the pleasures of Parisian life. Somewhere inside Casson, though, is a stubborn romantic streak. When he is offered the chance to take part in an operation of the British secret service, this idealism gives him the courage to say yes. A simple mission, but it goes wrong, and Casson realizes that he must gamble everything: his career, the woman he loves, life itself. Here is a brilliant re-creation of France, its spirit in the moment of defeat, its valor in the moment of rebirth. KINGDOM OF SHADOWS, Paris 1938. As Europe edges toward war, Nicholas Morath, an urbane former cavalry officer, spends his days working at the small advertising agency he owns and his nights in the bohemian circles of his Argentine mistress. But Morath has been recruited by his uncle, Count Janos Polanyi, a diplomat in the Hungarian legation, for operations against Hitler's Germany. It is Morath who does Polanyi's clandestine work, moving between the beach cafés of Juan-les-Pins and the forests of Ruthenia, from Czech fortresses in the Sudetenland to the private gardens of the d'classe royalty in Budapest. The web Polanyi spins for Morath is deep and complex, and pits him against German intelligence officers, NKVD renegades, and Croat assassins in a shadow war of treachery and uncertain loyalties, a war that Hungary cannot afford to lose. Alan Furst is frequently compared with Eric Ambler, Graham Greene, and John le Carr, but Kingdom of Shadows is distinctive and entirely original. It is Furst at his very best.

The Novels of Colin Wilson (Critical Studies Series) Nicolas Tredell, 1982-10 Tredell's study is praiseworthy in its depth of insight into Wilson's fiction yet his ideas are accessible to anybody capable of reading Wilson himself. The book contains exceptionally useful notes plus primary and secondary bibliography. Mastering Self Donald G. Hanna, 2022-03-28. Mastering Self is a worthy goal in a culture preoccupied with self. It is a journey that consists of warnings to heed, pitfalls to avoid, hazards to shun, detours to seek, options to assess, precautions to take, opportunities to embrace, and lessons to learn. This journey requires conviction, purpose. Many adults lack the courage of conviction because they have no conviction, no colors to nail to their mast. Conviction has formed and fashioned this book in the context of 120 white papers, essays to describe issues, ideas, and ideals that intersect to inform, instruct, interpret, and inspire in the lifelong journey of mastering self. The human condition, influenced by culture and politics, has a propensity to ignore or reject the lessons of history, practical philosophy, and basic theology. It replaces timeless virtues with temporary values. Consequently, mastering self has cultural, political, historical, philosophical, and theological implications for learning and understanding who and what you are. This discernment does not exist naturally in the human condition. It requires lifelong study. This book is for serious thinkers who want to clarify their worldview for wise living. It represents crucial truths, virtues, choices, and consequences for reference, reflection, or rumination. Understanding them fortifies relationships. Embracing them increases personal influence. Applying them benefits leadership. Practicing them sustains through difficulty. Cultivating them makes life worth living. These papers provide perspective about what matters in life, written with concise, clear, cogent context and correlated for coherence and continuity. They result from my reading, teaching, writing, and pondering to keep my heart with all diligence regarding issues in life. Prov 4:23. Collectively, they pertain to what the exceptional few consider. Some pinch the comfort zone, give pause, stretch the mind, or unsettle settled assumptions. Those politically incorrect come from old-school insight by a stubborn gadfly with stubborn ideas regarding stubborn facts and stubborn problems. The insight comes from twenty-four years as a police chief leading and managing police affairs in an urban area with a large university. Transhumanism David Livingstone, 2015-09-02. Transhumanism is a recent movement that extols man's right to shape his own evolution by maximizing the use of scientific technologies to enhance human physical and intellectual potential. While the name is new, the idea has long been a popular theme of science fiction, featured in such films as 2001: A Space Odyssey, Blade Runner, the Terminator series, and more recently The Matrix, Limitless, Her, and Transcendence. However, as its adherents hint at in their own publications, transhumanism is an occult project rooted in Rosicrucianism and Freemasonry and derived from the Kabbalah, which asserts that humanity is evolving intellectually towards a point in time when man will become God. Modeled on the medieval legend of the Golem and Frankenstein, they believe man will be able to create life itself in the form of living machines or artificial intelligence. Spearheaded by the Cybernetics Group, the project resulted in both the development of the modern computer and MK Ultra, the CIA's mind control program. MK Ultra promoted the mind-expanding potential of psychedelic drugs to shape the counterculture of the 1960s based on the notion that the shamans of ancient times used psychoactive substances equated with the apple of the Tree of Knowledge And as revealed in the movie Lucy through the use of smart drugs and what transhumanists call mind uploading man will be able to merge with the Internet which is envisioned as the end point of Kabbalistic evolution the formation of a collective consciousness or Global Brain That awaited moment is what Ray Kurzweil a director of engineering at Google refers to as The Singularity By accumulating the total of human knowledge and providing access to every aspect of human activity the Internet will supposedly achieve omniscience becoming the God of occultism or the Masonic All Seeing Eye of the reverse side of the American dollar bill
